Majestic.

SERENADES under the fair one's window, stolen kisses and moonlight characterize "The Two Vanrevs," a photoplay of life in the South preceding the Civil War, that is being shown at the Majestic Theater. Mabel Trunnelle, a favorite young star, appears in the role of Belle Carewe, the girl for whom one man lied by impersonating another.

"Sophie Starts Something" when she breaks up all the bottles in the saloon and all the liquor runs into the town well.

"A Daring Getaway" was not a get-away at all. Three automobile robbers spotted the bank machine and held it up, getting only canceled mortgages.

The Fair weekly shows all the latest news.

Miss Betty Anderson, prima donna, will complete her singing engagement Wednesday, when she goes to Suite, Mont. to sing.

Miss Esther Lundquist, the violinist, renders some new selections with ease and grace.

Star.

"HUNGER KNOWS NO LAW" is the title of a play at the Star Theater this week, dealing with a question the answer to which is as yet unsolved.

The plot of this play is a big one and the situations are aptly handled.

The seventh installment of the "Lucille Love" series finds the girl in a Chinese seaport with intrigue rife about her.

"A Tango Tragedy" is a hilarious comedy. Papa did not prove of the popularity. First of these was the swimming tank, where some hundreds of Portland people took their initial dip for the season. The water registered 65, which is several degrees warmer than is usual at this time of the year, declares Instructor Kirk.

Headed by McElroy's band, which gave two capital concerts, the personnel of the programme was much the same as that which opened the park.

12,000 GO TO OAKS

WATER GREAT ATTRACTION

Sacred Number on Band Programme by Request Is Listened to With Reverence and in Silence by Monster Audience.

It may have been the weather; it may have been the programme, or, maybe, it was a combination of both; but enthusiasm undiluted ran riot at the Oaks Amusement Park yesterday, the first fine Sunday of the park season.

From 10 o'clock in the morning six turnstiles opened steadily as by car, launch, auto and on foot thousands of Portland people made the Oaks their Mecca.

At 6 o'clock last night the turnstiles had registered 12,000, and indications were that the later crowds would be almost as large.

Aside from the amusement bill several features proved of undoubted popularity. First of these was the swimming tank, where some hundreds of Portland people took their initial dip for the season. The water registered 65, which is several degrees warmer than is usual at this time of the year, declares Instructor Kirk.

Headed by McElroy's band, which gave two capital concerts, the personnel of the programme was much the same as that which opened the park.

By special request a "Religious Meditation," by Brooks, was added to the band programme. The first time any sacred music has been played at the park. The number was listened to reverently in dead silence. McElroy seems to be winning a place with his band at the Oaks.

Montana Bill, the cowboy singer, received an ovation and was recalled several times.

The Hawaiian Troubadours gave several new numbers, and have proved themselves exceedingly popular. They are eight in number.

The Rich Musical Comedy Company gave "The Love Cure," a skit on military snuff-taking. It took. Special thanks to George A. Burton, incidentally the producer of the comedy, as a German comedian, and to Tommy Burns as a French humorist. W. E. Wheeler, O. J. Post, Virginia Ellis and Marie Rich acquitted themselves well, while Marjorie Mandeville's specialties were unusually good.

The bill will be repeated daily at 2:30 and 8 P. M.

UNITED BRETHREN TO MEET

Preliminary Conference Starts Today at First Church.

The preliminary sessions of the 61st annual conference of the Church of United Brethren in Christ will convene today at 2 P. M. today in the First Church, located on the corner of East Morrison and East Fifteenth streets.

Until June 4, when the conference proper will open, the Christian stewardship conferences will be held each afternoon, under the direction of Rev. J. S. Kendall, D. D., of Dayton, Ohio, general secretary of the Stewardship Commission.

Bishop William M. Bell, D. D., of Los Angeles, will preside at the general conference, which will convene Thursday and conclude Sunday. Nightly evangelistic services will be held in charge of Bishop Bell and Professor Billhorn.

Mrs. Ruth A. White Buried.

Funeral services for Mrs. Ruth Allen White, who died Wednesday at the home of her stepdaughter, Mrs. Mary W. Kester, 124 Thirteenth street, were held yesterday at Skewes chapel. Interment was in Lone Fir Cemetery. Mrs. White was the widow of the late John S. White. She was 74 years old. She had lived in Portland for 25 years. She is survived by two sons, Glenn H. Hussey, of California, and H. C. White, of Portland.
