

THE CHARGES TO ACCUSER OF PAIR

Mrs. Snell Causes Arrest of Merz on Charge of Robbing Her Apartment.

ACT LEARNED ON RELEASE

Woman Says Man Looted Rooms While She and Cannon Were in Jail on Allegations Made by Him—Case Becomes Tangled.

Raymond Merz, who caused the arrest of Byron H. Cannon and Mrs. Julia Snell, a woman who was charged, was arrested last night by Detectives Abbott and LaSalle on a warrant sworn to by Mrs. Snell, charging him with the theft of numerous articles from her apartments at the Sunnyside, East Thirty-seventh and Belmont streets, while she and Cannon were held in jail. Mrs. Snell and Cannon were discharged when arraigned in Municipal Court.

Booming developments have marked the cases of Cannon, Mrs. Snell and Merz since the first arrest of Cannon was made May 29 on a complaint of Mrs. Snell, who charged him with having brought Mrs. Snell to Oregon from California in violation of the Mann act. Merz fails to appear.

The case against Cannon and Mrs. Snell was called in Municipal Court, but Merz failed to appear to prosecute, so both were discharged. Mrs. Snell says she returned to her apartment Monday to find that her money, a $150 diamond ring and clothing valued at $200 had been removed in suitcase. She further charged that Merz had retained friends in her apartment. She swore to a complaint charging Merz with larceny.

When Cannon was informed that Merz was in custody and a number of his clothes found in the man's possession Cannon told Detectives Abbott and LaSalle that he would prosecute if he could be permitted to swear to a complaint. The detectives said that Cannon will be brought into the office of the Clerk of Court today, so it is probable that the unusual spectacle of a prisoner, awaiting extradition, appearing as complaining witness against a fellow prisoner will be seen in Judge Stevenson's court.

HUERTA PREPARES TO QUIT

potentialities and to the circumspection of the American delegates. Pacification Held Essential. "To treat of the interior pacification of Mexico in the course of deliberations on difficulties of an international character cannot be considered as submitting the sovereignty of the nation to an external influence; said pacification is necessarily bound up with the international questions. This has been appreciated by the Mexican delegation and in settling forth the intentions of its government in the matter, and in its endeavors to bring about pacification, it has been inspired by the knowledge that without it no satisfactory conclusion can be arrived at in the international question."

Just before the foregoing was issued the Mexican delegates had a long conference with the mediators. Afterward they telegraphed General Huerta to send them the names of those who will be satisfactory to him for places in the new provisional government, to consist of two men chosen by Huerta, two by the constitutionalists, and a neutral provisional president, selected by common agreement of all parties.

The first four are to comprise the cabinet, but are to be morally obligated by the terms of any agreement reached here to share equally the responsibility of a fair administration, which will be expected not only to conduct a general election, but to make a beginning on land, educational and other internal reforms.

the dispute between the United States and the Huerta government. The elimination of Huerta, although never before the public administration, has nevertheless been privately considered here the fundamental aim of the constitutionalists.

JAPANESE ACTION PLEASES

Seljo Maru Lands No Munitions on West Coast of Mexico. WASHINGTON, June 2.—Officials here appeared to be much gratified by the conduct of the Japanese ship Seljo Maru, reported today to the Navy Department by Rear-Admiral Badger. For many days past Army and Navy officials have been watching for the appearance of a Japanese liner on the west coast of Mexico, reported to be carrying guns and ammunition. The vessel reached Salinas Cruz Sunday morning, but, according to Admiral Badger's dispatch, she landed no arms or munitions.

ARCH JUBILEE PLANNED

THIRD STREET WILL ENTERTAIN PUBLIC WITH CONCERT. Illumination Plans Are About Completed and Saturday Night Doubtless Will Be Selected as Festival Occasion.

In celebration of the first public illumination of "The Great Light" on Third street, between Yamhill and Burnside streets, hereafter will be a thoroughfare will entertain the public probably next Saturday night, with a double band concert, a preliminary effort to attract the attention of the buying public to the business advantage of that district.

The great steel and concrete arches across the ten street intersections, between Yamhill and Burnside, will be completed in the next few days. The arches rise from the four corners of the street and meet in a common center frame. A big electric arc light surmounts the entire structure. The frame of the arches will be studded with hundreds of incandescent lights. Each steel frame at each corner is encased in columns of solid concrete, finished in graceful curves and ornamental designs.

EZRA MEEKER AND OX TEAM REACH PORTLAND

Noted Oregon Pioneer, En Route to San Francisco to Attend Reunion, Here First—"Secret" of Long Life Given Out.

EZRA MEEKER, famed all over the country as an Oregon pioneer, who has crossed and recrossed the United States by ox team, arrived in Portland yesterday with his outfit and established his camp on East Clay street and Grand avenue.

He came overland to Kalama, Wash., from Seattle. After attending the reunion of the Oregon pioneers in Portland, June 18, he will continue his trip to San Francisco, where he will be employed by the State of Washington in the state building on the grounds of the Panama-Pacific Exposition. Part of this trip will be taken by team. Mr. Meeker, with his ox team outfit, will lead the day parade of the Rose Festival on June 13. During his stay here he will be the guest of his grandson Frank Templeton, a front-street commission merchant, at the Templeton home, 1400 East Eleventh street. His headquarters will be at the offices of the Oregon Historical Society in the Towner building, 297 Front street.

Mr. Meeker has white hair about a foot long that hangs over his shoulders and over his ears as if he were a young man. He says long hair is the natural and proper thing, because it permits of no radical change of temperature about the head. He said that he hadn't shaved for 40 years, and his beard lends ample testimony. The conspicuous locks and whiskers of Ezra Meeker and his large Texas hat make of him a conspicuous figure.

COUNT FOR STATE OFFICES FINISHED

County Vote Record in Primary Will Be Sent Today to Secretary of State.

3 PARTIES NOMINATE GILL

Unofficial Figures Given Republican Candidates for the Legislature Are Verified—Data Show Results.

Deputies under County Clerk Coffey yesterday afternoon completed the official count of the vote for Republican, Democratic and Progressive candidates for state offices at the primary election. The official count for Representatives in the Legislature from Multnomah County certifies the unofficial figures, which gave the 12 Republican nominations to Ben Selling, John Gill, D. C. Lewis, E. P. Stott, Dr. Andrew C. Smith, Louis Kuehn, Conrad P. Olson, S. E. Cobb, L. J. Wentworth, E. V. Littlefield, S. E. Huston and Oscar W. Horne.

Gill Named by Three Parties. Four of these men were also nominated by the Democrats, their names being written on the ballot. The four thus honored were Ben Selling, John Gill, D. C. Lewis and Conrad P. Olson. Mr. Gill was also nominated by the Progressives.

Clerks Rushed With Work. The many names written on the ballot for various offices caused so much extra work for the deputies that they have been rushed to comply with the law. The official count for county officers will be begun today and Mr. Coffey hopes to have it completed within a week. Here are official figures of the vote for various state offices, compilation of which was completed yesterday:
