United Brethren Missionary Conference Is Held.

$380 RAISED FOR CAUSE

Rev. J. S. Kendall Speaks at Meeting of Stewardship Commission. Other Services Conducted. Regular Sessions Open Today.

According to reports received yesterday at the annual meeting of the Women's Missionary Conference in the First United Brethren Church, East Morrison and East Fifteenth streets, $380 was raised during the year. This is $80 more than the apportionment. Mrs. Nina Sprecker delivered the an bual address in which she emphasized the need of progressive work and ex-

Short talks were made by Rev. J. S. Kendall, of Dayton, O., Bishop Bell and others. Reports received from local societies showed progress. Mrs. Mary Hinkle, as president, presided. In the afternoon Rev. J. S. Kendall, Recretary of the stewardship commis-sion, conducted the third conference on that subject. He said that the United Erethren Church had raised $2,500,000 last year by selling ice cream and other food and holding social gatherings, when double that amount might have been raised by tithing and systemati tension of activity.
