VANCOUVER, B. C., June 3.—Sensational pitching by Callahan and Eastley and brilliant fielding by Coltrin today broke Portland's string of reverses and the Colts defeated Vancouver, the league leaders, 3 to 1, in the first game and held them to a 0 to 0 tie in the second game of a double bill here. The second game of a double bill here. The second game of a double bill here to second contest was called at the end of the ninth owing to darkness.

The first game saw Callahan, of Portland, pitching gilt-edge ball, the champions garnering only three hits off his delivery and these so scattered the Brownies were unable to make them count for more than one tally, that in the third. Besides mixing up his offering and putting lightning speed on his straight ones, Callahan did vallant service at bat, hitting twice in four times up, once for a two-bag-ger. Later he scored. Callahan aldid vallant service at bat, hitting twice in four times up, once for a two-bagger. Later he scored. Cailahan allowed only one base on balls. Hunt, hurling for Vancouver, was touched up for nine swats, four of which were doubles and one a triple.

The game was snappy and fast, only an hour and 35 minutes being consumed. An idea of Callahan's control and effectiveness is evidenced in the fact that Vancouver had only one man left on bases.
