OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Wash-

Ington, June 4 .- When Senator Lane.

of Oregon, announced his purpose to vote against the repeal of the exemption clause of the Panama Canal act the Administration lost a vote on which it has been counting from the beginning of the tolls fight. At the outset Senator Lane was reckoned among the Senators who would "stand by the President," but the Senator, though inclined to vote for repeal, declined to commit himself, and said he would not make well.

would not make up his mind until he had heard the question thoroughly discussed in the Senate.

forth the reasons for his vote against repeal Senator Lane discussed the sub-aldy feature of the question, among "If it is contrary to the policy of this country to pay subsidies to the shipping interests of its own citizens."

said Senator Lane, "it seems to me that it is obnoxious to grant what is prac-tically a subsidy to the citizens of other nations, with whom they will be compelled to compete for business.

"It may not be out of place at this time to call attention to the contention made by some that $200,000,000 of American money is invested in ships which fly foreign flags and are engaged in carrying freight and passeners (mostly immigrants) to this coun-"These vessels, owned in part by American citizens, whose tolls through the canal will be paid by the foreign nation whose flag they fly and under whose laws they are registered, are also said to be subsidized by those na-tions to keep on hand and readily available a complement of guns and ammunition, and are outfitted in every way to act as auxiliary cruisers and scouts to destroy the shipping of this nation in the event that war should occur between the two nations. Conduct Called Treachery. The conduct of such citizens is an act of treachery to this country and should be dealt with as such, instead of being favored at the expense of the rest of the more honorable people of this country. These same vessels whose welfare has been so well guard-ed by the terms of the Hay-Pauncefote treaty are busily engaged in flooding this country with immigrants from Eu-rope and thus are at work in harmony rope and thus are at work in harmony
