ANGRY FANCIERS THREATEN TO INVOKE THE REFERENDUM.

Salem Ordinance Too Metropolitan in Tone and Too Crude in Operation.

Asserts the Opposition.

A. W. Latterty. Another editorial impugning my honor, and insulting my manhood, appeared in the Portland News Saturday afternoon. This time I was referred to as a "Demagogue" and a "Liar." I had chal-lenged Dana Sleeth a week earlier to produce his facts to show wherein I was unfit, as he told the readers of the News during the campaign, and his only reply is to call me a "Demagogue" and a "Liar." People with brains will demand more than that. I have charged, and here charge, that E. C. Sorripps, a multi-millionaire, is the owner of the Portland News. Has sleeth answered that charge? He has not. SALEM, Or., June 7 .- (Special.) - Angered because, they say, the City Council passed at its last meeting a strin-gent dog ordinance without any at-tempt to learn the sentiment of the citizens, numerous canine fanciers are threatening to invoke the referendum or to have the courts pass upon the meas when he is not looking, the girls in-tend to rush on him and throw him into the scalar of the second to put an end to dogs running at large.

of the festival party, happy to be on the last lap of their swing around the circle of Pacific Coast cities, passed through here today. While charmed by the attractions and generous hospi-tality of the cities visited, all declared enthusiastically today there was no place like home. Last night at the Orpheum in San Francisco, Eddy Foy and all the little Foys declared from the stage that Portiand is the only city on earth. The San Francisco audi-ence accepted the statement good-naturedly. On the reappearance of the Foys with Mrs. Foy, Queen Thelma and the girls from the upper boxes showered the whole Foy fimily with blg bouquets of roses, giving the rose call. The audience caught the spirit and in response to Phil Bates' query, "Will San Francisco come to the Port-land festival?" stood up and shouted "We will."
