DELEGATION IS CHOSEN

PACIFIC COUNTY PICKS REPRESENTATIVES TO STATE CONVENTION.

Bull Moose Threatens, but Party Call to Harmony Is Made by Chairman of Republican Forces.

South Bend, Wash., June 9.—(Special.)—The Republican delegates of Pacific County in convention assembled here today named the following members of the state convention: W. G. Shumway, P. W. Culver, W. T. Stapleton, Raymond; Judge Sol Smith, Mentor; S. W. Sturdevant, John H. Drissler, A. J. McDonald, South Bend; William Rounds, Lebam; Charles A. Payne, Chinook; G. W. Kedzie, Ilwaco. Alternates: M. C. Welsh, C. H. Figuoa, Rev.

Paul Holbrook, J. M. Weaver, Raymond; E. W. Lilly, Mentor; C. F. Clyde, H. I. Gerwig, South Bend; R. L. Eubanks, Lebam; L. C. Johnson, Chinook; L. D. Williams, Ilwaco.

The convention had about 50 of its 87 delegates present. It turned down the suggestion of County Chairman D. J. Olds for an advisory convention to follow later to recommend the Republican candidates for office. The state convention meets in Tacoma June 18. Absolute harmony prevailed today. Judge Sol Smith was chairman. Permanent officers were named. D. J. Olds remains chairman. W. W. Hays, Jr., of Raymond, secretary.

The Bull Moose threaten to place a full ticket in the county. Chairman Olds holds out small hope for Republican success unless all Republicans unite in support of party nominees.
