SPEED BOATS SURPRISE

Oregon Wolf II Meets Defeat at Hands of Oregon Kid II in Fast Sprint Down River at Clip of at Least 45 Miles an Hour.

BY RALPH J. STAEBELL

Portland's day of water sports on the Willamette River yesterday was one of thrills. The thrill of the day was the defeat of John Wolff's Oregon Wolf II by the Oregon Kid II, a successor and duplicate of the Oregon Kid, the boat which won national championships at Chicago last summer.

The exact speed of the winning boat could not be measured, but it was in excess of 45 miles an hour in the opinion of several of the followers of the sport. The race was scheduled merely as an exhibition, and the distance was not fixed.

The Oregon Kid II was built by Captain Milton Smith, of Rainier, for his son, Wilbur J. Smith, the 16-year-old pilot of the boat in yesterday's race. The mechanic was Al Klingbeil, of the Gas, Power & Supply Company.

Oregon Kid II Makes Time. It was built at Rainier and equipped with a duplicate of the Oregon Kid I, a 185-horsepower Van Blerck engine. The old Oregon Kid made 53 miles an hour on a straightway at Kansas City last year.

The boats started at the Oceanic dock, with the Wolf slightly in the lead. Then the Kid spurted a little and Wolf had to open up. This he did and the boats fairly flew. The Kid spouted more flame and started to stand up in front until it seemed certain that she would lead over.

The Portland Rowing Club had all its crews on hand for a long series of races. The four-oared race was won by the junior four, composed of Lewellyn, bow; Hochull, No. 2; Bates, No. 3, and Fabre, No. 4.

Champion Takes Singles. In the singles A. Pfander, present singles champion of the Northwest Association, defeated E. O. Gloss, ex-Coast champion. It was a close race, made so by the spurring on the part of Gloss toward the end of the course. Pfander finished a bare length ahead.

Canoe events, singles, doubles, mixed doubles and four-paddled events made up an hour of good finishes. Harry Gammie and Colly Wheeler tied in the first single, but the latter was disqualified. The off Gammie beat it out by a fraction of a length.

The Olympian, owned by E. M. Taylor, won the "three-oared" race for motor cruisers. The Spray was first over the line, but her incoming time exceeded her outgoing time by 48 seconds, so she was disqualified. The Wanderlust, Fred Vogler's cruiser, won second place.

Swimmers Gain Interest. The water meet was like a three-ring circus, with something in every corner. Over against the California & Oregon Grain Elevator the Pacific Coast swimming championships took place.

It was a meet of surprises, with Kiernan running off with the 100-yard dash against such competitors as McMurray and Krueger. The latter, the Spokane star, Kiernan's time was 1:04.1-5.

Norman Ross was the individual star of the water meet, winning the 220, the 500 and 800-yard races. Clair Tait gave a beautiful exhibition of diving and won without opposition.

Lifeboats Finish Close. Other events were the special races between the lifeboats of the U. S. S. Boston and the steamer Beaver. The first was between the engineers and deck men of the Boston. The engineers beat by a length. In the second race the Beaver's picked crew defeated the Boston's picked crew by a margin.

The summary of all events follows: Rowing—Singles, A. Pfander defeated E. O. Gloss. Doubles—Hansen and Wyde, first; Reisinger and Cooper, second; and Gloss and Dryland, third. Four-oared crews—Lewellyn, bow; Hochull, No. 2; Bates, No. 3, and Fabre, No. 4, first; McPaul, No. 5, and Mathena, second; second boat over the line.

Canoeing—Harry Gammie defeated Collister and Wheeler. Doubles, Gammie and Wiest; Mamin, first. Four-oared—Wheeler, Humphries, Bremner and Lawrence Edwards, first; Arthur Allen, Reisinger, Dryland, second. Mixed doubles—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hartman, Oregon Yacht Club, first.

Swimming—100-yard, Coast championship—Kiernan, Multnomah, first; McMurray, Multnomah, second; and Cruger, Spokane, third. Time, 1:05.2. 100 yards, junior race—Wright, Multnomah, first; Shea, Multnomah, second; and Teppinger, Multnomah, third. Time, 1:18.

200-yard—Ross, Multnomah, first; McMurray, Multnomah, second; Pautz, Multnomah, third. Time, 2:50.1-5. 500-yard race—Ross, Multnomah, first; Howard, Multnomah, second. Time, 7:47.

800 yards—Ross, Multnomah, first; and Cole, Multnomah, second. Fancy diving—Clair Tait, Multnomah, first; Spamer, Multnomah, second; and Balbach, Multnomah, third. Junior diving—Douglas, first; and Kuehn, second.

COULON PULLED OUT BY WILLIAMS IN THIRD

Right-Handed Punch to Chin Wins Bantamweight Championship of World.

FIGHTING ALL WINNER'S

Result Shows Wisdom of Bettors, Who Offered Odds as High as 2 to 1, Holding Loser's Illness Had Destroyed Form.

RINGSIDE, Vernon, Cal., June 9.—Johnny Coulon, bantamweight champion of the world, lost his title tonight to "Kid" Williams, of Baltimore, who knocked him out with a stiff right-handed punch to the chin in the third round of their scheduled 20-round contest.

The fighting was all Williams' from the start. Coulon seemed unable to solve the problem of landing anywhere in the short interval of the first two rounds and was saved at the close of the second round only by the timely ringing of the gong.

The result proved the wisdom of the bettors who favored Williams from the start, holding that Coulon's illness that kept him out of the ring a year had robbed him of the championship form.

Odds as High as 2 to 1. The odds on Williams went as high as 2 to 1. At the ringside, while no betting was in evidence, it was plain that there was plenty of money placed just before the contest.

With the opening of the first round the crowd repeatedly called for Williams to "get in and get it over," and assured that he was capable of making good his claim to the championship title.

Coulon got in only one really effective blow during the short contest. Toward the close of the first round he managed to reach Williams' face.

Although the champion was obviously outclassed from the beginning, his blow to Williams' countenance elicited uproarious cheers from the crowd.

Fighting in Frenzy. The fighting was fast and exciting from the start. Williams held the center of the ring and kept Coulon spar- ring near the ropes. Privately Coulon received the blow which ended him of his title he fell nearly under the ropes, within a few feet of Williams' corner of the ring.

As Referee Eytan raised the new champion's arms, signifying him to be the victor, the crowd rose and cheered lustily. Williams ran around the ring, eree and attempted to assist the champion to his feet. Coulon appeared shaky and scarcely able to walk. As soon as he had gone a step or two he went to his corner unassisted, how-ling, and refused Williams' proffered aid.

Before Coulon had reached his corner the seconds of both men had leaped into the ring, followed by other ring officials and several policemen. The latter went to the aid of the former champion and drove back the throng which was gathered to see what damage had been inflicted.

Coulon's Pay $5000. For eight minutes' work in the ring and taking a beating at the hands of the world champion, Coulon received about $5000. Before he would agree to meet Williams, he demanded a guarantee of $5000, which was granted with the privilege of taking 40 per cent of the "gate." The crowd was one of the largest seen at Vernon for months, and Coulon took the gate percentage.

In addition to this he received $1000 from the new champion, which was an agreement between the two men.

RESULTS GIVEN BY ROUNDS

Round 1—Coulon led with a left to the body. They clinched. Williams attempted sharp infighting and was felled. Williams landed an overhand right to the body. Coulon was left to Williams' face. They clinched and on the breakaway Williams landed to face and Coulon got in right to body.

Round 2—Williams reached the kid-neys over Coulon's shoulder repeatedly. Williams chopped Coulon on the chin. Coulon was on his knees while the referee counted up to seven, when the bell rang.

Round 3—Both men rushed to the center. Williams making wild lunges without damage. In the clinch he delivered several kidney punches over Coulon's shoulder. Coulon landed straight left to stomach and ducked a wild left swing. Williams seemed more reckless than in former rounds and closed in on his man with a right uppercut to the chin, sending Coulon to the floor. He attempted twice to arise as Referee Eytan counted, but was unable to do so until the end of the count and Referee Eytan declared Williams the winner.

Besides acquiring the bantamweight title, Williams received $2500 as his end of the purse.

In accordance with an agreement, the men weighed in the ring after the third preliminary had been concluded the scales were brought into the ring. Without any perceptible difference both fighters made the required 116 pounds to the satisfaction of the ring officials.
