ertrude P. Corbett

UEEN THELMA and her royal maids were feted by the Portland Ad Club again yesterday at an elaborate luncheon at Hotel Portland. A delightful feature of the affair was the christening of Miss Tacoma, the ceremony being performed by William H. Brewster, Mayor Albee and Mayor Gill, of Seattle. A number of the wives and relatives of the Potlatch Club men were guests at the luncheon, and prominent men made interesting responses to toasts and exchanged the courtesles of singing songs for Seattle, Seattleites singing their specially written songs for Portland. The Ad Club quartet also contributed to the programme by singing several songs, suitable for the particular occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Kress, of Centralia, Wash., passed several days in Portland and returned last night to their home.

An unusually delightful tea and mu-sicale was enjoyed by friends of Mrs. W. Worth Davis, who entertained at her home in Piedmont recently in hon-or of Mrs. Margaret Redding Koon, who left last night for a three months' who left last night for a three months trip through the East.

The parlors were brilliant with red roses and ferns, the same colors prevailing in the dining-room, where delicious refreshments were served at small tables, the favors being dainty place cards, hand-painted in red roses.

Those taking part in the programme were Mrs. E. D. M. Fowles, Miss Elizabeth Johnson, Miss Eva Johnson, Miss Evelyn Carvel, Miss Eva Farrel and Miss Margaret Redding Koon. Mrs. Waltman T. Wade read selec-

An important event of this afternoon An important event of this afternoon will be the reception to be given on board the Cruiser Boston as part of the Rose Festival entertaining. The ship will not accommodate all those who have been invited, so the reception will begin at 2:30, continuing for one hour for state officials, officers and women of the United States Army, United States Navy, National Guard, Naval Militia, the Queen of the Rose Festival and her court and officials and their friends.

Assisting in receiving the Festival visitors are clubwomen and young girls stationed in all the hotels and depots. From the Portland Woman's Club

Mrs. R. W. Hoyt, Mrs. George L. Baker and Mrs. David M. Dunne.

The guests will be received by the commanding officer and the officers and men of the Oregon Naval Militia in honor of his excellency, the Governor of Oregon. A beyy of young girls will of Oregon. A bevy of young girls will assist the patronesses during the afternoon in the dining-room, and will include the Misses Alice Dabney, Dorls Smith, Amy Robinson, Margaret Platt, Elsie Walker, Katharyn Hoyt, Katherine Whitton, of Berkeley, and Martha Hoyt Carrie Myers, Johnie Gray, Mrs. F. G. Wice at 4:30 o'clock.

Horseman, Mrs. Maud Berckler, Mrs. S.

B. Wiest... . . .

Miss Genevieve Hailey and Miss Priscilla Elliott, of Portland, spent the week end with Mrs. Eleanor Martin in San Francisco, having come to the city from Mare Island Navy-yard for a dance and several teas.

Miss Caroline Gillespie, of Scattle, is the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mackenzie over the Festival, Mrs. Fletcher Linn entertained for her last night with an informal dance at her residence on Portland Heights, asking about 40 of the convergence of the co beaux of the smart set.

Mrs. Thompson Coberth, wife of Dr. Coberth, and Mrs. C. A. Johnson, of The Dalles, are house guests of their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Werlein, for the Festival. They will return to their homes Friday night.

The closing costume party given for the children by the Rose City Park Club recently was one of the pleasantest affairs of the season. Every grade of society was represented, queens, Spanish girls, Chinese, cowboys, clowns, babies, darkies, girls from the harem and even a convict had escaped and come to the party. The costumes were beautiful. Much of the success day at 2 o'clock in Women of Wood-craft Hall. Mrs. G. J. Frankel will announce the calendar committee for the or candied cherries might also be use Willamette Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will assem-ble at the Patton Home Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. A handsome half gallon water, and for every gallon of the final mixture, add one-half cup members of the chapter to the home. Appropriate exercises will be held. The ment to the vinegar stage, or the accommittee of arrangements.

and her court and officials and their friends.

From 3:20 to 4:30 the general public will be received. List of patronesses: Mrs. W. E. Finzer, Mrs. G. F. Blair, Mrs. R. R. Smith, Mrs. G. S. Gunderson, Mrs. John McNulty, Mrs. J. Fred Larson, Mrs. George W. Hoyt, Mrs. Harvey Beckwith, Mrs. A. J. Capron, Mrs. H. R. Beckwith, Mrs. F. E. Hilton, Mrs. Edgar B. Piper, Mrs. C. C. Colt, Mrs. Edgar B. Piper, Mrs. C. C. Colt, Mrs. C. V. Cooper, Mrs. W. F. Woodward, Mrs. J. A. Currey, Mrs. T. L. Perkins, Mrs. F. T. Griffith, Mrs. W. E. Coman, Mrs. G. W. Talbot, Mrs. A. H. Averill, Mrs. F. C. Riggs, Mrs. L. R. Alderman, Mrs. R. W. Hoyt, Mrs. George L. Baker girls stationed in all the hotels and depots. From the Portland Woman's Club alone, 190 women are among the workers. The State Woman's Press Club is among the busy organizations acting as hostesses. Roses are given to everyone. At the Union Depot a committee from the United Artisans welcomed strangers supplied them with roses. If the supplied them with roses. I

Mrs. R. W. Hoyt, Mrs. George L. Baker

Y. W. C. A. 1 Notes 1

A launch ride is planned for Wednes-day, June 17. "Lunch and Launch" will claim the attention of those attending. Reservations are being made now.

The Young Women's Christian Association's vacation camp and cottage at Gearhart Park will be open this Summer. It is for self-supporting women and offers a delightful outing under the best environment.

The Northwestern General Conference will open at Cohassett Beach June 23 and will continue until July 3. about 40 of the younger married set. The conference is for young women of as well as a number of the belles and Washington, Oregon, Idaho and Mon-

> TALKS ON S DOMESTIC SCIENCE BY LILIAN TINGLE.

Cherry Recipes PORTLAND, Or., June 8 .- Kindly give in The Oregonian, as soon as possible, a recipe for cherry wine. We have more cherries than we can use. MRS. H. CHERRY WINE (1)—Remove the stalks, mash the cherries, without were beautiful. Much of the success of the evening was due to the assistance of Mrs. Harry Brown, and Mrs. A. Leidlaw. Many of the parents were present and punch and cake were served. These parties have been arranged by Mrs. Carey C. Shay and will be discontinued until the first Friday evening in September.

Stars, breaking the stones. Squeeze and strain. For every gallon juice add two pounds sugar. Pour into a barrel and let ferment until no "whispering" can be heard. The barrel should be kept filled up with juice. When fermentation is over stop the barrel close for a month or more. Draw off into bottles putting a lump of sugar into each bottle. Store three months before using. tle. Store three months before using. Cherry wine (2) — With every 15 pounds of cherries use two pounds of currents, and not more than two-thirds of the cherry kernels. Mash thoroughly, strain and squeeze. Add two pounds sugar to every gallon liquid. Finish as above. The fermentation will probably take about three weeks. Two months may well be allowed before ful.

Cherry vinegar—Mash the cherries, and water "just to cover," and let stand 48 hours. Drain and press. To every gallon of this liquid add one-

Appropriate exercises will be held. The committee of arrangements includes Mrs. R. G. E. Cornish, Mrs. A. T. Brown and Miss Bertha Green, Mrs. J. H. Bagley is regent of Willamette chapter, Music will be furnished by some of Portland's leading musicians.

The members of the Multnomah chapter, Daughters of the Multnomah chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution are busy making plans for the celebration of Flag day. They are asking the co-operation of schools, stores and the public in general. In the churches Sunday a patriotic hymn will be a part of the service.

ment to the vinegar stage, of the service sand in the vinegar stage, of the service sand did dading a little fresh yeast, spread on a small plece of toast.

Dried cherries (1)—Stone and spread in thin layers on platters, sprinkle with sugar and dry in a slow oven, the hot sun, or a fruit drier.

Dried cherries (2)—Stew the stoned cherries slowly, without water, and with very little sugar. When tender drain from the juice, spread on platters, and dry as above. Boil down the syrup until thick and as the fruit dries prove a little fresh yeast, spread on a small plece of toast.

Dried cherries (2)—Stew the stoned of the result of the sugar and dry in a slow oven, the hot sun, or a fruit drier.

Dried cherries (2)—Stew the stoned of the result of the sugar. When tender drain from the juice, spread on platters, and dry as above. Boil down the syrup until thick and as the fruit dries prove it, daily, until all the syrup is absorbed by the cherries.

Miss Tilly Cornelias, Chairman of Reception Committee.

cook very slowly until the cherries are translucent. If convenient, they may again be set away over night. Pour off the syrup, spread the fruit on platters, dry in the hot sun or slow oven. Roll in sugar, and store with like that after marriage. They are dry sugar between the layers.

FEW days ago I asked a beautybelieve I know." How many of my tainly improves his opportunities." readers are in the same undecided state of mind. Do you really know husbands were that way," sighed the

they had been shown to a table in one of Broadway's popular-priced cafes, "No, thank you," answered Marian.

"Nonsense," objected the other. "A little cocktail won't hurt you. Why, I don't think there's a woman in town who writes and who doesn't daily a who writes and who doesn't daily a triffle with the cheering stuff now and then. They're all good scouts, good Bohemians, you know. I want to introduce you to some of the bunch. I'll arrange to have you invited to a little party one of these days. Waiter, bring a couple of Dubonnet cocktalls, and hurry them along."

hurry them along."

Marian's objections to an appetizer, overridden by the suave-tongued publisher who had expressed his desire to tion may be started and hastened by adding a little fresh yeast, spread on a small piece of toast.

Dried cherries (1)—Stone and spread in thin layers on platters, sprinkle with sugar and dry in a slow oven, the hot sun, or a fruit drier.

Dried cherries (2)—Stew the stoned of the stone of the st

The members of the Multnomah chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution are busy making plans for the celebration of Flag day. They are asking the co-operation of schools, stores and the public in general. In the churches Sunday a patriotic hymn will be a part of the service.

An interesting collection of art sourcest from various foreign lands will be on exhibition June 18 at the Metaphysical Library, Main street and Carvings, pottery, table covers, prints

Sun, or a fruit drier.

Dried cherries (2) — Stew the stoned cherries (3) — Stew the stoned cherries (4) — Stew the stoned cross-currents of the city's (14 — Stew the stoned cherries (4) — Stew the stoned cherries (4 curiosity about that sort of thing, and, as long as it goes, I have no objection to feeding it to them. Nothing too raw, of course; but something a triffe suggestive now and then, if cleverly handled, goes with a bang. I'm talking to you frankly, Miss Winthrop, because I want to give you an idea. A publisher has got to keep his eye on the public and hand 'em what they want."

with a feeling of revulsion Marian shrunk from the other's language. She despised the sort of thing he described. She had never been able to see any justification in printing that kind of "A new slant on the old triangle plot always gets by, if cleverly done," the publisher continued. "There are enough divorcees and women who expect to be divorcees before long, in this country, to make a good divorce story a rattling seller on the news stands. Try your hand at it, why don't you?"

"I should think you'd hate to poison the minds of your readers with stuff like that," she replied.

"Lord, you're a regular little prude, aren't you?" rejoined the publisher. He smiled at her through narrowed eyelids. "A new slant on the old triangle plot

"Not at all," returned Marian, dis-claiming the characterization. "But I should think you'd prefer to appeal to people's best, instead of worst, in-"The Cheering Hour could hardly be called a Sunday school publication," said the publisher. "I haven't got the money to try to make Americans a race of angels. I'm leaving that to the philanthropists. My policy is to give people what they want. I'll cater to people what they want. In cater to the morbid curiosity as long as it pays. Why not?" he added in a tone that indicated a vague mental search for justification for his policy. "Try your hand at it," he repeated. "If you can turn out the stuff we want, we can do husiness." can do business."

"Pil try," Marian steeled herself to answer, without realizing at the time that scores of American hack-writers write the sort of thing they hate for the sole reason that they can sell it, and because they need the money des-pensely.

Dittle Discussions Love Marriage BY BARBARA BOYD.

"HAVE some candy," said the neighbor, as the woman from across the street came in to borrow some mustard. "What delicious chocoates," exclaimed the woman from across the street, as she nibbled the sweet. Where did you get them?" "My husband brings them to me," smiled the neighbor. "He knows I am especially fond of them and so every little while he brings home a box as a surprise." The woman from across the street keen enough before marriage to remember your tastes and all that, but they promptly forget such matters as oon as the knot is tied."

"Harry is just the same now as he was before we were married," said the neighbor, happily. "In fact, I think he is more thoughtful. He understands A seeker what she expected massage me even better than he did then, and to do for her. She thought a mo- so he has even more ways to do nice ment, then in surprise said, "I don't things for me. And I will say he cer-"It certainly would be nice if all

Hoyt.

A social was given Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs.
I. W. Gray. 2501 Fifty-eighth street.
Southeast, to Ben Butler Post and the Southeast, to Ben Butler Post and the whole of Mr. and Mrs.
I. Worden, Mr. and Mrs. H. I. Worden, Mrs. Caroke, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Ogilvie, Mrs. Caroke, Mrs. Caro

The second object of massage is to promote healthy circulation. Subbins brings the blood to the surface and keeps impurities continually in motion, this permitting the body to cast them of the contraint of the property of the contraint of the c sure to ask him if he remembers how much he liked it them. Sometimes you have to prod people a bit to get them Then the two women smiled at each other understandingly, and the woman from across the street took her mustard

New Photo Plays Open

Columbia

BY far the biggest attraction on the bill opening yesterday at the Columbia was the Rose Festival pictures, showing the river pageant of Tuesday, the arrival of Queen Thelma, each day.

"Silent Sandy," a Reliance comedy.

$19.50 White Chinchilla Balmacaan Coats

-Another shipment of these popular White Balmacaans just received — and we offer them as a announced in Portland!

Coat for Summer wear.

Rose Festival Week special at the lowest price yet —Made of very fine all-wool white chinchilla, in typical English Balmacaan style, with Balmacaan sleeves, flare skirt, patch pockets. The jauntiest

-Coats that sold regularly at the first of the sea-son for $19.50. This specially-purchased lot on sale, beginning today, $11.35.

"Prettiest Waists in Town"---$1.29

300 Natural Hair Switches Marked About 1/2

-An extraordinary Rose Festival Week sale of fine, naturally wavy Human Hair Switches, in all the most desirable shades—Every switch guaranteed absolutely sanitary and splendid quality. Sale on Main Floor - Mail Orders Filled.

$4.00 German Hair Switches, 2-oz., 24-inch, $1.95 marked, special. $1.95 $10.00 German Hair Switches, 3-oz., 34-inch, marked special,

$4.95 $25.00 French Convent Hair Switches, 3-oz.,

34-in., marked special,

special,

new and wanted shade-Emporium special,

Petticoats

-every

$12.00

parents, the father an imbecile. After many years the physician's daughter and the son of the insane man, now of wealthy parents, love each other. Retribution follows.

are never missed.

25

This bill will run the remainder of the the situation that ends in a romance A comedy with competition in it is "The Tango in Tuckerville." The "lady" manicurists of New York create a havoc in the Tuckerville sewing bee. The husbands go to the manicurists, so a tango teacher is engaged and only men under 25 years are permitted at dances. The bill will continue until Sunday.

PROFESSIONAL NURSE

Plant Juice Has Helped This Portland Lady After All Other Remedies Failed. Mrs. Annie L. Hill, who is at present

housekeeper for the Gilbert Hotel, corner of Third and Taylor streets, this city, has something to say that will interest her friends. Mrs. Hill graduated as a trained nurse at the age of 21, and served as student five years under Dr. J. M. Tolan, of San Francisco. Sha Dr. J. M. Tolan, of San Francisco. formerly lived in Spokane, Wash., for fifteen years. She has many friends in Portland and elsewhere who will be interested in the following statement from her. She says: "When I commenced to use Plant Juice I was pretty well discouraged. I had tried so many things without re-sults that I did not expect much relief from anything. It was like catching at the proverbial straw. I was suffer-ing from catarrh, and it had become ing from catarrh, and it had become so bad that my whole system was affected. I was told that nothing would help me. My hearing was so bad that I could only hear by the greatest effort. My kidneys were in bad shape, and I suffered from severe pains across my back, also in my forehead just above my eyes. There was also pain in the back of my next. the back of my neck. I am a graduate nurse and followed my profession until my hearing became so bad I had to give it up. The change that has been brought about in my condition by Plant Juice is simply wonderful. The terrible pain in the back of my neck and across my forehead is entirely gone, my hearing is much improved, so much so that I often think I must be mistaken when I hear what people say. Plant Juice has helped my entire system, my nerves are stronger, I sleep well and wake up rested and am feeling fine in every Plant Juice has done for others what it will do for you. All it needs is a trial. For sale at The Owl Drug Company's Stores.—Adv. Piano figures talk. A player piano, latest in design and containing every "The Ethics of the Profession" con-cerns a physician's wife and the son tion of music, for $385; $10 month of his boyhood friend.

"My Lady Raffles," with Dorothy Kelley in the leading role, is a comedy.

Burglars and a pearl necklace figure in week). 10th street and Stark.

Cut the Cost of Living!

fresh, home-baked cake, a loaf of brown or nut-bread, rescues any meal from the commonplace, and more expensive things

With K C, the double acting baking powder, good results are doubly certain. There's economy too, in the cost of K C.

A plate of hot biscuits or muffins, a

We Give J. W. Green Trading

Our Colonials and Pumps have the style and wearing quality that every well-dressed woman should know about. Their superior fitting quality is attested to by thousands of discriminating customers.

Moderately priced in all leathers, $4.00 and up.

Rosenthal's

Bet, Wash, and Alder

129 Tenth St.

delightful treat for every Rose FRESH TODAY

to All Parts of the World. Wall's Sweet Shop

291% Morrison Street, Marshall 3123.

