

PRINCESS RESCUED DURING "FIRE"

Anna Tierney Glides to Safety From Top "Burning" Building in Festival Spectacle.

30,000 AWED BY SCENE

Realistic Exhibition Given by Firemen of Methods of Work—'More,' Ories Big Crowd in Approval as Drill Ends.

Fire with all its thrills swept the Blumauer-Frank building, Park and Everett streets, last night, while a crowd of more than 30,000 persons gathered on the Everett-street side and literally filled the park squares, extending from Planders street to Davis and to West Park street.

The first alarm was sounded at 8:45 P. M., when the first apparatus raced to the fire from the scene of the conflagration. Sirens shrieked and bells clang a warning. The sky over the west side of the city was lurid with the glow reflected from sheets of flames bursting from the top floor of the building.

All Engine Companies Called. In rapid succession a second and third alarm were sounded, summoning to the scene all five engine companies and Truck 1. Police cordons drawn tightly around a safe area from the building proved true after the first half hour of the fire. No force of men could have held back the thousands pressing in from three sides.

Aerial ladders were warped up rapidly to the roof of the burning building while Captain Grenfell planned the order of his men who were sent scampeling up to the top floor. Engines fired for service took up their positions at hydrants. In four minutes from the time the alarm was turned in water was thrown upon the roof.

Pomper Ladders Seen First Time. For the first time in Portland the use of pomper ladders were witnessed by the crowd when the firemen, by the glare of red fire, for of course, the "burning" was but one of the "illusions" planned by the Fire Association for the entertainment of Rosarians' subjects.

Princess Rescued Twice. Captain Grenfell was first to slip down the lifeline from the seventh floor of the building. Then followed fascinating "glides" by other firemen. The sensation of the night was staged when Miss Anna Tierney, Princess in Queen Thelma's court by vote of the Portland firemen, was rescued from the seventh floor by means of the lifeline, with Captain Grenfell as rescuer.

Another thriller introduced into the evening's spectacle was the shooting of the life line by Captain Grenfell. Standing on the pavement on the Everett-street side, he aimed the rifle of the building with a short-barrel rifle, fired and almost instantly those on the roof caught the shot, pulled up their lives and the order came to take in ladders and "pick up" hose.

Full appreciation of the remarkable demonstration was shown by the crowd when a murmur distinctly meaning "more" went up when the order came to take in ladders and "pick up" hose. The companies taking part in the drill were truck 1, engine 1, engine 2, engine 3 and engine 4. Fire Chief Dowell, although crippled by a sprained arm caused at the burning of the Northwest Door Company's warehouse last week, was present to witness the work of his men.

Casualties—there were none, although a number of "injuries" were reported to the police from the "back" congregated in the park squares. Women became hysterical at the sight of the flames and the fire, snorting engines and the daring deeds of the firemen. A number of ambulances were on hand in the event of accidents.

TILIKUM GANG CAPTURES CITY

Job of Slaves Liberated by Queen Thelma at Ad Club Lunch.

Accompanied by a gang of "slaves" sent from Seattle by "Hubert the First," the most downtrodden of all dads, the Tilikum boys bowed into Portland yesterday to herald the celebration of "Dad's Day" in Seattle, July 18, to advertise Queen Thelma, to pay their reverence to the hospitality of their old friends of the Portland Ad Club.

The liberation of the "Dads" of all the world from their bondage was preached and proclaimed abroad with riotous enthusiasm by the Potlatchers and at the luncheon given in honor of the visitors by the Ad Club, at the Portland Hotel, a formal appeal for freedom was made to Queen Thelma, who with members of her court was also a guest.

Queen Thelma graciously granted freedom to the downtrodden dads while they should be in Portland, whereupon they cast off their chains and put them on Piny Allen, who had been chairman of the entertainment committee during Queen Thelma's reign in Seattle, declaring that he, as the most attractive bachelor in Seattle had endeavored to steal the Queen while she was in the city.

With Mayor El Gill as god-father, the Admen and Tilikum boys celebrated the christening of "Miss Tacoma," the adopted child of the "Potlatch and the Rose," the ceremony of whose wedding was celebrated at the Festival last year.

Mayor Gill gave a short address after the ceremony. Mr. Gill came to Portland with his arm in a sling, having broken it in an accident a short time ago.

Members of the Potlatch party were: C. H. Harris, Jud Yoho, John Bergstrom, Frank Klyner, S. E. Davidson, W. A. Forner, C. S. Powers, William Block, Jr., E. C. Broeze, E. H. Stanley, J. A. Bunce, Harry W. Carroll, George M. Brown, H. A. Broxon, Henry Erben, C. M. Butterworth, C. H. Rose, F. W. Newell, E. H. Gerlach, A. Stusser, M. P. Zindorf, R. A. Plisk, H. Joselyn, F. R. Bayn, James Chehan, M. M. Mattison, A. Nicholson, J. C. Gray, E. E. Anderson, J. O. Seord, F. W. Collins, William James, H. Gill, G. F. Vraden, L. W. Flinger, P. L. Allen, W. K. Siskels, W. J. C. P. M. The ball is open to citizens of Portland and visitors to the Rose Festival. The committee last night made this announcement, to give it the widest publicity, since the tickets issued could not possibly be sent to all. Tickets are on sale and may be obtained from the office of Treasurer, Commercial Club, Oregon, Portland, Multnomah and Benson hotels, the Multnomah Club and the Rosarians' headquarters.

FESTIVAL BALL TONIGHT

Brilliant Affair at Oaks Open to City and Its Visitors.

The only Rose Festival attraction tonight, and one on which the committee has exerted every effort to make the most brilliant entertainment of its kind ever held in Portland, is the Festival ball, which will begin at the Oaks rink at 8:30 P. M. The ball is open to citizens of Portland and visitors to the Rose Festival. The committee last night made this announcement, to give it the widest publicity, since the tickets issued could not possibly be sent to all.

Tickets are on sale and may be obtained from the office of Treasurer, Commercial Club, Oregon, Portland, Multnomah and Benson hotels, the Multnomah Club and the Rosarians' headquarters. The proceeds are to be distributed among four of the principal charities of the city. Governor West and his staff will be present, many representatives from the Vancouver Army post, members of different uniformed delegations to the Festival and the affair will be colorful and brilliancy the great reception to Rex Oregonus held at the Armory last year.

Queen Thelma and her court will be in attendance at the ball, escorted by a special committee of the Rosarians.

OLD TIES ARE RENEWED

WOMAN'S REST-ROOM BRINGS TOGETHER FORMER FRIENDS.

State Societies Arrange Space and Flowers for Each and Book Keeps Record of Year's Visitors.

"Gee, but it's good to meet a friend from your home town." This was the sentiment expressed yesterday by many of the visitors at the committee's first meeting in the Pittcock block, Washington street between West Park and Tenth streets.

The representatives of several state societies of the Greater Portland Plans Association and the State Women's Press Club are among those who are demonstrating hospitality in the beautifully decorated rest room.

Oregon's loveliest roses occupy a prominent place in the decorative scheme, but the sunflowers of Kansas and the golden eschscholtzia of California, and the pennants and emblems of Colorado, Michigan, Indiana, Nebraska and other states add dashes of color and harmonize most effectively.

Texas has a big flag and some historical exhibits loaned by Tom Richardson, corner of the Knassas booth. "My ain't that fine," said an old lady, who lives in Kansas, "but they can't grow the roses there and I am satisfied to stay in Oregon."

Each of the states represented has a booth or corner at the rest room, with a register in which the names of visitors from the state are inscribed. Many old-time friendships are renewed and the rest room is being its worth every moment of the day.

Committees from each state society are in attendance to answer questions and to extend the hospitality of Portland to the out-of-town guests. Punch is served by Mrs. Bertha Taylor Voorhadt, of the Greater Portland Plans Association, assisted by women of the states who are acting as hostesses.

HOUSE TO VOTE IN JULY

mitter, submitted written statements. Mr. Hobson wrote that he desired to have his resolution changed in accordance with the amended resolution he introduced yesterday to meet the question of states' rights.

Hobson Not Pressing Action. "In connection with the question of the date for consideration by the House of this joint resolution," the statement says, "I wish to state that many members of the House, irrespective of party and political affiliations, requested me not to press the resolution for consideration until they had time to give it consideration and time to confer with their constituents. I have respected these reasonable requests and have not requested immediate action and do not require immediate action, but the opponents of the resolution have precipitated the matter and since they have done so and are urging its immediate consideration, I wish to say that I shall not oppose such action and will not request friends of the resolution to interpose obstacles in the way of the adoption of the rule allowing adequate debate with the amendment, proposed above, incorporated in the special rule."

Mr. Dinwiddie, in a statement, said: "While in many ways we would gladly have a record vote, under all the circumstances we intend not to ask special procedure in order to force consideration during the present session, if the Democratic majority, either independently or upon liquor's insistence, want to vote at this session, we shall not oppose. We propose to be ready for a vote any time."

President Wilson Not Consulted. Reports current at the capital that the movement to bring the prohibition question to a vote had been started at least with the consent of President Wilson tonight caused Representative Cantrell, of Kentucky, author of the proposed special rule, to issue this statement:

"I have never had an interview with the President about the Hobson resolution, and I am not acquainted with his personal views. What I have done has been solely upon my own responsibility as a member of the rules committee and Congress."

Two Men Lost in River.

ASTORIA, Or., June 10.—(Special)—A report comes from the mouth of the river that Arno Ward, fisherman employed by the Warren Packing Company, and his boat puller were drowned in Peacock Spit yesterday. The men had dropped anchor on the spit and were cooking a meal when a big breaker struck their boat and capsized.

Captain Riner and the Cape Disappointment life-saving crew hastened to the scene. They recovered the boat and net but could find no trace of the men.

MILLER QUITS RACE RUGH SCALP-TAKE BREAKING OUT

Health Prevents Candidate Trying for Director.

T. W. VREELAND WILL RUN

Dr. Allan Welch Smith and Dr. L. Victoria Hampton Are in Field.

Withdrawing Aspirant Denies Reports of Leanings.

Not many hours after H. B. Miller withdrew yesterday from the race for school director, on the advice of his physician, a petition was circulated urging Thad W. Vreeland, a well-known attorney, to become a candidate. He announced last night that he would accept the indorsement and make the race.

Mr. Vreeland has lived in Portland for 25 years. He was graduated from the University of Oregon law department in 1893 and has practiced in Portland ever since. From 1893 to 1902 he served as Justice of Peace of the East Portland district and as Deputy District Attorney under George J. Cameron from 1903 to 1910.

Mr. Vreeland has for many years been chairman of the board of trustees of the Forbes Presbyterian Church and is president of the Elliot Parent-Teacher Association. Three of his five children are of school age and attend the Elliot School. He has been active in the school garden contests during the past few years.

The petition asking Mr. Vreeland to become a candidate is being signed by a large number of taxpayers.

Elections Due Monday. The election will be held Monday. There are two other candidates, Dr. Allan Welch Smith and Dr. L. Victoria Hampton.

Mr. Miller, in withdrawing his name, issued a statement yesterday refuting the report abroad that he was the Catholic candidate and the candidate solely on the advice of his physician. He withdrew from the race, he says, on the advice of his physician, Dr. A. S. Nichols.

Mr. Miller suffered a nervous breakdown several years ago, from which he has not fully recovered.

"On the advice of my physician, Dr. A. S. Nichols, I have been compelled to withdraw from the race," he said.

"My well-known position is against the domination of any religious sect in school or other public matters. It is manifestly unfair and unjust, therefore, to have circulated and encouraged these false rumors. I deprecate most sincerely to inject religious prejudice into public school matters, and consider those guilty of it as doing a serious injury to public welfare. Concerning the second report again, I have to say that I have never discussed with any member of the board any plans or purposes of the kind, and was never asked by anyone to make any pledge whatever in relation thereto.

"If my health had permitted, I should have been pleased with any opportunity to serve the public in an honest effort to assist in making the public school system of Portland one of the best in the country."

Washington will participate, Colonel R. H. Wilson in command. July 15-25, joint camp at Gearhart, Or. Headquarters, First Tenth Battalion of the Twenty-first Infantry and the organized militia of Oregon and Idaho will participate, commanded by Colonel Young in charge of the First Tenth Battalion and Colonel John F. Morrison in charge of the Second Tenth Battalion.

AUDITORS OPEN SESSION

WASHINGTON OFFICIALS HOLD CONVENTION AT VANCOUVER.

W. F. Lovering Says State Could Save $500,000 Annually by Removal of Scrap Boundies Paid.

—VANCOUVER, Wash., June 10.—(Special)—The 19th annual convention of the County Auditors of the State of Washington opened here today. The president of the Association of County Auditors, D. N. Gellatly, of Wenatchee, Wash., was not present, owing to a death in his family. L. M. Howell, Secretary of State, was elected presiding officer and C. A. Burr, of Thurston County, secretary.

Henry Cress, Mayor of Vancouver, made the address of welcome. Alexander Helander, of the State Bureau of Inspection, talked on the disbursement of road funds. W. F. Lovering, Auditor of Pierce County, made suggestions as to how state money could be conserved. He favored doing away with paying bounty for the scalps of wild animals, which he said, would effect an annual saving of $50,000.

About 34 of the 39 counties are represented and in addition to the Auditors present are several state officials, including Mr. Howell, C. W. Clausen, State Auditor, Mr. Fischer, of the Bureau of Inspection; A. S. Rinehart, of the Weights and Measures Department; and Frank Spain, expert accountant of Yakima County.

"I found an advertisement of Cuticura Soap and Ointment in a magazine and I sent for a sample and bought some more Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I would use them every night before going to bed and before breakfast. I used them for three months and I was entirely well." (Signed) Miss Trislie Dennis, June 26, 1913.

$30,000 IN GEMS GONE

TRUSTED CLERK TRACED BY TRAIL THROUGH CAFES.

Bag of Jewels at One Time in Course of Night of Joy Riding Reported Neglected in Garage.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 10.—Albert S. Samuels, president of the Samuels Jewelry Company, reported to the police today the theft of $30,000 worth of unmounted diamonds from the company's store. He accuses a trusted clerk, Joseph Fischer, of the theft. Fischer, he says, has disappeared. A warrant for the arrest of Fischer was issued late today.

According to detectives, Fischer entered the store Tuesday evening, swept everything valuable in sight into a traveling bag, spent the night joyriding about San Francisco with a woman and rode by automobile early today to San Jose, where he is believed to have boarded a train for the southern part of the state.

Fischer's movements Tuesday night have been traced from cafe to cafe, say the police. At one time, it is said, he carelessly flung the bag of jewelry into a garage office and left it there two hours.

Fischer, according to the police, is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania and a son of Mrs. Herman Fischer, of Philadelphia, wealthy widow of a former newspaper proprietor of that city.

Everett Recalls Mayor. EVERETT, Wash., June 10.—Mayor Christiansen and Commissioner of Public Works Thompson were recalled in Tuesday's special municipal election. The majority against Christiansen was 271 and that against Thompson was 233. They were charged with failure to suppress vice and failure to levy a special tax against public service corporations as provided by the charter.

Only $5 a month? Believe, Bill, that Irresisto is the real thing. The music is fit for Queens and kings and I'll tell every old Clubber to get one.

It's some class—sixteen dances and eight other selections included free.

This is sufficiency.

Bill and the Irresisto certainly proved the real thing in the parade yesterday. The multitude was carried away by the exquisite music and vocal selections rendered as the beautiful new model talking machine, termed the Irresisto, was floating by. Hundreds of spectators, when they found it obtainable for only $5 a month, immediately decided to get one at the big Eilers Music House, Broadway at Alder.

One of the most beautiful of the many new houses in Irvington is the ten-room house built, designed and owned by H. E. Stemer, on a quarter block at East 22d and Klickitat streets on Broadway carline. The above picture gives only a slight idea of the beauty and attractiveness of this house, which, with its large veranda and massive brick columns, makes a most striking architectural feature. The living-room is a large, airy room with Italian onyx face. The walls of this large room are covered with imported Austrian Tekko, with a plaster cove in lighting effect. This room is equipped with two semi-indirect Alabaster bowls, which give a soft and brilliant light. The walls of the dining-room are covered with imported English Tapestry, the cornice being decorated with ornamental plaster. A beautiful eight-candle candelabra fixture in silver, with wall lights to match, adds much to this room in mahogany and old ivory. The library is finished in oak, with its floor in silver gray and aluminum. The frieze is of imported Japanese Grass cloth, hand decorated. The mantel is in oak and tile, and a built-in desk and bookcase completes the harmony of this room. Separating the living-room from the dining-room and library are large French doors in mahogany and bevel plate. The kitchen is a model of convenience. The breakfast room is decorated in water colors, and is one of the most attractive rooms in the entire house. Two spacious, tiled bathrooms and five lavatories connected with the bedrooms, all of which have hardwood floors, complete a short description of this house, which must be seen to be appreciated. It has an attractive porte-cochere entrance for auto, with large garage and disappearing gas tank and pump. If purchased this week, papering will be executed to order of owner. Price $16,000.
