against Higginbotham. On the other hand, Portland found three Oak pitchers easy, and the locals woh the second of the week — a free-hitting affair which ended 11 to 2.

Six of these tallies were earned by the Beavers, and the philanthropic Oaks donated the other five. Middleton and Cook were the chief donors.

Middleton get his fingers on the Middleton got his fingers on the damp side of one of Pruiett's "spitters" in the rambunctious fourth inning and everthrew third so far that he had the spectators in the grandstand ducking. Two or three runs waddled across on the heave, and Cooke helped in a couple more of the seven by erratic

Oaks' Captain Ousted. The Oak captain finally fell back upon his vocal organs for assistance, and for his pains Umpire Phyle ordered him off the sward in the eighth. Cook's chief kick was over a stolen-base decision at second base on Bill

Perhaps he was right and perhaps not. At any rate it counted for Bill, and three stolen bases during the melee boosted Rodgers' base-stealing far in the lead over rival Coast League dryads. While the Oaks nicked Higginbotham for 10 hits, as against 14 from the combined deliveries of Prulett, Chris-tian and Ramey, they didn't seem to be able to circumnavigate the Double plays and Doane were thiefly responsible for the skimp in the run

Doane's role in the interesting drama was unusual and worthy of some comment as well as commendation. Due to his nimble headwork the Oaks emerged with the unique record of having poled two bang-up doubles in one inning without scoring.

Doane bluffed a prospective catch of Kaylor's slam high against the right field fence in the eighth, and held Middleton on second base so long that the best he could do was third after the

No space during Festival week for details except to say that the Oaks led. 2-0, until the fateful fourth when Portland whaled out six hits and scored seven of the 11 tallies. Those cencerned were Ryan, Rodgers and Fisher

Also Pruiett hit one and walked one and gave way to Christian after two were out. Manager Tyler stopped the Beavers short but stuck to his task only three innings, as Quinlan batted for him in the eighth. Ramey finished. It was ladies' day, and a crowd of Today's game will commence at 3 o'clock and a double-header will be played Sunday commencing at 2 o'clock.

Brown was invincible as a matter of fact after the first inning, when three runs got across. He struck out seven, but his three walks were blotches on his good work and costly.
