PARTY CENSURES SENATOR

Progressives Denounce 'Inattention' of Jones and Praise Poindexter.

SOUTH BEND, Wash., June 11 .-(Special.)—At a well attended conference of Progressives of this county held here today, resolutions were adopted censuring United States Senator Jones and Congressman Albert Johnson for their failure to see that Willapa Harbor received its $100,000 appropriation in the river and harbors bill.

Praise for Senator Poindexter and Congressmen Falconer and Bryan for their attention to this county and harbor was given. The Progressives de-clared in favor of placing a full county ticket in the field and reaffirmed allegiance to the state and National platforms of 1912. Ole Hanson, Pro-gressive candidate for United States Senator, addressed the gathering. Tonight a banquet was served.

COQUILLE, Or., June 11.—(Special.)
—Coquille will be added to the cities in Oregon that are dry July 1. For two weeks prior to June 1, a committee of temperance workers circulated petitions requesting the Council to refuse to grant new licenses after July 1, when the old ones expire. A week ago the petitions were filed containing nearly 500 names, a majority of the voters of the town. A special meeting was called for last night to consider the petition and act on the four applications for licenses from the saloons now tions for licenses from the saloons now leaped across one street and made a steady march until it had burned every building within its reach.

SALEM, Or., June 11.—(Special.)— Dr. James Withycombe, Republican nominee for Governor, as guest of honor at a banquet of the Salem Com-mercial Club at the Marion Hotel last night, was given an enthusiastic re-ception. The applause continued sev-eral minutes after Dr. Withycombe was introduced by the toastmaster, and while he made no reference to the race for the Governorship in his short address, he was applauded throughout. The theme discussed at the banquet was the relation of the farmer and the Commercial Club and the good that cen be done the country communities by the city organizations. Dr. Withy-combe said that the commercial clubs and the farmers' organizations were accomplishing a great deal in build-ing up the state. Salem, he declared, was surrounded by 1,000,000 acres of the best soil, which was capable of support-ing a population of more than 2,000,-

You must encourage agriculture,' said the speaker. "There is no par-ticular need to worry about manufac turers. They will come. The co-operation of the business men and the farmers is necessary to bring about the desired results."

Dr. Withycombe said he had a plan for the building of permanent roads through the co-operation of the state, counties and districts which he ex-pected to develop later.
