

VOTE FOR JUDGESHIP
TE, SAYS McNARY

Benson's Lead of 7 Votes Offset by Recheck in Yamhill and Wasco Counties.

ENTIRE RECOUNT IS URGED

Telegrams Received Tell of More Changes Which Counteract Multnomah's 40-Vote Mistake in Favor of Judge Benson.

SALEM, Or., June 11.—(Special.)—Justice McNary late tonight received a telegram from Baker County saying Judge Benson had been credited with one vote too many there. If this is true in connection with other reports received by Justice McNary tonight, he leads Judge Benson by one vote.

SALEM, Or., June 11.—(Special.)—Charles L. McNary, Justice of the Supreme Court, and Henry L. Benson, Circuit Judge of the Thirteenth District, are tied for the Republican nomination for Justice of the Supreme Court, according to information received by Justice McNary tonight. Expert accountants of Judge Benson yesterday discovered a mistake of 29 votes in the official count in Judge Benson's favor in Multnomah County. Justice McNary tonight received telegrams that a mistake of two votes had been made in Judge McNary's favor in Yamhill County and a mistake in his favor of five votes in Multnomah County. This reduces the plurality of seven announced this morning in favor of Judge Benson to a tie.

"I received a telegram from an official source in Yamhill County tonight," said Justice McNary, "that a rechecking of the count there showed I had gained two votes. The chairman of the Republican central committee of Wasco County wired me tonight that he had discovered five votes there, in my favor."

Recount Suggested by Benson. Before receiving the telegrams from Yamhill and Wasco Counties, Justice McNary wired Judge Benson, who is in Portland, that he would like a friendly contest requiring a recount of the ballots in Multnomah County, and, if advisable, in other counties.

Justice McNary said that the mistake discovered by Judge Benson's experts in Multnomah County and the mistake discovered in Yamhill County indicated that there might be other mistakes, and that he thought it but right that an attempt be made to determine if there are any more errors in the count.

Judge McNary's telegram to Judge Benson follows: "Am informed by the press that experts employed by you have discovered an error in the votes in Multnomah County. If this be true, I propose a friendly contest involving the recount of the ballots in Multnomah County and such other counties as you desire with a recount of the tally sheets of each county in the state."

Reasons for Recount Told. After receiving the telegram from Yamhill County, Justice McNary issued the following statement: "Relying upon the article in The Morning Oregonian of this date, I assumed that Judge Benson would communicate with me concerning the alleged discrepancies in Multnomah County. But not having heard from him I felt on account of the closeness of the vote, that it was advisable to send him the telegram which I did."

"A further incentive is a report which I received from the County Clerk of Yamhill County to the effect that Judge Benson had been credited with two votes in excess of those he actually received."

"In view of the size of the vote, its closeness, as well as the apparent discrepancies discovered in the returns from some of the counties, I feel that an attempt should be made to ascertain if there are any more errors in the count."

ERROR REPORTED BY COFFEY
Clerk Tells Secretary of State of Change in Vote Here.

County Clerk Coffey yesterday notified Secretary of State Oloott of the changes he had made in the official vote for Supreme Court Justices. These changes were made here on a recount which show that Judge Benson has defeated Justice McNary for the nomination for Supreme Court Justice by seven votes instead of Justice McNary defeating Judge Benson by 13 votes.

The mistake in the count for Justice McNary was in Precinct 78, in which he was credited with 54 votes instead of 54. This reduces Justice McNary's total from 13,241 to 13,221 and gives Benson a lead of seven.

Another error found gives Circuit Judge Cleeton 10 more votes for Supreme Court Justice. The change in his vote is in Precinct 24. He should have had 88 votes instead of 78. This makes Judge Cleeton's count 14,747 instead of 14,737. He, however, did not need the extra 10 votes for his nomination.

POLICEMAN IS DISMISSED

Corvallis Council Thought to Blame Officer for Jail Delivery.

CORVALLIS, Or., June 11.—(Special.)—The City Council last night elected Henry Robinson, a new man, night policeman. Robinson takes the place of James Emery, who has been night policeman for a number of years. No charges were presented against Emery, and no reason was given him for the election at this time, but it is rumored that a jail delivery of a week ago has been laid to him.

A local prisoner, held for giving liquor to minors, disappeared one night from the jail, the door having been opened with a key. The key had been kept in a hiding place in the chief of police's office, and it was supposed no one but the chief of police and the night policeman knew of it. The escaped prisoner was recaptured and swore that he had been liberated, and intimated that his liberator was the night policeman. The officer, however, denied the accusation and secured legal counsel to prove his innocence. This is believed to have been the last of the election of his successor last night.

LA GRANDE GIRL SUES RANCHER ON BREACH OF PROMISE CHARGE.

Jealousy Thought to Be Motive Back of Action Brought by Miss Alice Moore Against George Pierce.

LA GRANDE, Or., June 11.—(Special.)—An action for $30,000 damages for alleged breach of promise has been brought by Alice Moore against George Pierce, prominent cattle man and rancher.

The complaint alleges that the defendant promised to marry the plaintiff before April 15, 1909; that she frequently urged Mr. Pierce to fulfill his promise, but he postponed it repeatedly. It further alleges that on or about October 15, 1911, another promise was made to marry on January 1, 1913, but that when the time came for the ceremony Mr. Pierce declined to go through with it.

Both have had trouble recently, in which jealousy is thought to have played a leading part. This breach of amicable relations is believed to have led to the present action.

RECALL ELECTION DAY SET

Centralia Paper Suspends After Waging War on Officials.

CENTRALIA, Wash., June 11.—(Special.)—Mabel Lee, City Clerk, has set July 21 as the date for holding the recall election against Mayor Thompson and Commissioners Sears and Kerr. In anticipation of the election registration is brisk and a big vote is expected. The city business men have organized an Anti-Recall League and have entered into an active campaign on behalf of the commissioners.

The Daily Star, whose editor, Victor Jackson, has been most instrumental in the forcing of the recall issue against the commission, did not publish yesterday and today through financial difficulties. The paper, which is Democratic in politics, started about a year ago by Jackson went to Olympia today presumably for the purpose of procuring funds to keep him going.

New Building Ordered at Lebam.

CENTRALIA, Wash., June 11.—(Special.)—Postmaster Adams, at Lebam, has just awarded a contract for the erection of a two-story business block, being the first of the new buildings to rise on the site of the recent fire that almost wiped out the town. The shingle mill destroyed in the recent fire is also being rebuilt.

R. R. Staub Has No Opposition for New Commander—300 Couples Attend Gorgeous Grand Ball.

Automobile Tour Today.

ABERDEEN, Wash., June 11.—(Special.)—Welcome, after a big street parade, with speeches of greeting by Major O. R. Austin and Judge C. H. Phillips, the seventh annual convention of the United Spanish War Veterans of the Department of Washington and Alaska, opened at the Pythian Hall here for a four-day session this morning. Upwards of 250 delegates were in the city by noon, and 100 more came on the evening train. Many of the Sound veterans are coming in automobiles. About 40 of the delegates are women members of the Ladies' Auxiliary.

Election of officers and choice of the 1915 convention city, both of which probably will come before the convention tomorrow morning, are arousing considerable speculation. Centralia stands the best chance. In fact, it has no opposition just now, although some Eastern Washington city may contest the honor. The larger part of the Eastern Washington delegates did not arrive until late in the afternoon. The vice-commander F. B. Tichenor and R. C. Cunningham appear to be leading candidates; for Junior vice-commander, William A. Mullins, of Tacoma, and S. B. Reaney, of Everett, are running a neck-and-neck race. R. R. Staub has no opposition for commander.

Mrs. Rhoda Moss, of Tacoma, is as yet unopposed for the presidency of the Women's Auxiliary.

The biggest event of the day was the grand ball and reception at Electric Park, which drew a crowd of 300 couples. The hall was gorgeously decorated in patriotic colors and an orchestra of 15 pieces furnished the music. Many of the most prominent people on the harbor acted as patronesses.
