Score—Portland 8, Oakland 0. West let Oakland off with five hits, and in no inning did he let many more than three Oaks face him. His quickest inning was the seventh, when Guest, Mitze and Malarkey were put out with four balls,

On the other hand, Portland pasted Malarkey for 10 good hits, three of them for extra bases. Bancroft put over a run with a three-bagger and Derrick scored runs twice with double-

And none of them was a questionable hit. Every one simply sailed right out to the fence. The palm goes to these two swatters without reserve.

Beavers Never Endangered. Oakland never endangered the Beavers The hits in every instance came when there was little chance of following them up, or at a time when two of the Oaks were already down.

Portland's first contribution was in the third. Lober fanned, but Fisher was safe when Gardner gummed up one near first. West helped along with a hit through short, a scratchy one, but it advanced Fisher. Bancroft forced West and then Derrick's first hit brought Fisher in. Bancroft and Derrick pulled a double Bancroft Gets Triple. In the fifth Portland brought in two more. Fisher singled and was advanced one by West. Then Bancroft met the sphere squarely, and it kept on travel-ing right out to the fence, bringing in another and landing Dave on third.

Malarkey was getting nervous and Derrick added to his woe by bringing n Bancroft with a double. Then he, Der rick got one more with a wild pitch. Derrick was headed off at home on Rodgers' drive down the third base line. That made five of them, with Oakland still struggling valiantly but vainly.
In the eighth Portland fans received a sort of final part of satisfaction when ically the same rotation of the batting order brought in the final three.

Ramey Goes to Rescue. Fisher singled and made good when bounced high off to the side. Derrick doubled, scoring Bancroft, and was later brought in by Rodgers, Ramey was put in by Oakland in the ighth. Fisher got a hit off him, but was the only one to giaze him. The VICTORIA, B. C., June 12 .- (Special.) Portland and Victoria divided honors in today's two games. "Tiny" Leonard shut out the Bees in the afternoon, while the Colts scored 4 runs, and the locals won a free hitting argument in the evening 9 to 6. Asley Pope twirled a sterling game for the Capitals against Leonard, but for the first time since returning home the revivified Capitals had an off day in the field, and they made a present of three runs to the visitors in the fourth inning.

Not that that made a great deal of difference, for they could not hit Leon-ard, and Melchior's home run in the opening period was enough to give Portland the game. In the farcical fourth, two fielding errors and a passed ball were capped by the ridiculous spectacle of Runner Milligan being caught off third and then coming home with Delmas hot on his trail and no one at the plate to take the throw. Hoffman had chased the runner back towards third.

Coltrin's wonderful work at short and Lamb's spectacular pickup of a ground-er back of the pitcher were other fea-event and the attempt was disastrous. Both he and Driscoll were batted out of the box in the evening. The Portland man was given an early lead, but he received a terrible lacing in the fifth and was taken out after six runs had been scored. The Bees filled the bases three times in that session. Driscoll lasted just two-thirds of an inning longer, he being relieved in the sixth, when two long hits made the visitors when two long hits made the visitors

Defiance, third of the cup candidates, will then be in fine shape for the contest. She was unable to participate today.

Good Feeling Prevails.

Although all the contests have been gamely fought, the best of feeling prevailed between the two crews and just after the finish today the Vanitie's white-jacketed tars lined the rail of the bronze yacht and cheered the Resolute. The foremast hands on the winner gave back a lusty chorus. The Resolute left at once for Bristol, R. I., for minor alteration; the Vanitie went to City Island for repairs. No sharper contest for the windward berth at the start has been seen off Sandy Hook than the struggle between the boats today. When the starting signal came both yachts rushed across the line on the starboard tack only two seconds apart. It was a beat to the first mark in a gradually decreasing breeze and smooth sea, and the Resoute began to pull away, as she had done before in the windward legs.

Captain Dennis, of the Vanitie, made desperate efforts to keep up, but the Herreshoff production was too able on the wind to be overhauled. By the time the first mark was reached Resolute was reached Resolute was reached as the control of the lute was nearly a mile ahead. Vanitie Picks Up Few Seconds The next 20 miles was broad off the wind. The yachts sailed the 10 miles to the second mark without any seeming difference in their relative posiions, although careful timing showed that the Vanitie had picked up a few seconds. Becoming desperate on the last leg, Captain Dennis hauled out his fib topsail but it was too late Vanitie gained about a minute but she was half a mile astern when the Resolute reached the lightship and the noisy finish. In the last hour of the race the breeze lightened considerably and the two yachts were standing alnest straight when they crossed the ne. Summary, seventh cup class: Start, 11 A.
