HOUSE PASSES MEASURE

Bill for Trading Oregon School Lands for Federal Tracts, Requested by Governor West,

Fails to Pass. OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washington, June 15.—The House of Representatives today passed Congressman Sinnott's bill amending the homestead law by providing that homesteaders may divide their five months' leave of absence each year into two periods if they so elect, provided they reside on their homestead seven months in each year. As the law now stands the leave of absence must be taken during five consecutive months.

Mr. Sinnott also secured the passage of the Senate bill providing for an exchange of forest lands in the Ochoop Forest Reserve.
