FIVE THOURAND SLIDES TO TEACH CHILDREN.—Under the direction of Miss Alicia M. Zierden, a pictorial lantern slide bureau which will furnish information for school children on a large variety of subjects has been opened in Portland. The temporary headquarters are room 635 of the County Courthouse. The bureau is supported by public contributions. It now has more than 5000 slides, depicting scenes of forest, field, city, mines, factories and general tours of travel and information in every country in the world. Some subjects touched on are geography, ancient and modern his-

and information in every country in the world. Some subjects touched on are geography, ancient and modern history, astronomy, geology, blology, botany, painting, sculpture, music, mining, agriculture, dairying and manufactures. The trustees of the bureau are Samuel Hill, Theodore B. Wilcox, Henrietta E. Failing, G. F. Johnson and A. S. Benson.

FAITHFUL HORSES TO BE SOLD.—Five big horses, which have drawn the street-cleaning machines of the city through the streets for the last 15 years, are to be sold at public auction this afternoon at 2 o'clock. The horses, while still in good condition, are said to have outlived their usefulness in the strenuous street-cleaning service. They are all about 18 years old and are the oldest animals in the city service. The sale will be held at East Seventh and Alder streets, S. Kahn Lands in Jail.—Mrs. George

S. Kahn Lands in Jail.—Mrs. George F. Boehn's story impressed Municipal Judge Stevenson as being the more truthful, when S. Kahn, a tamale vender, caused her appearance in court to answer to a charge of using profane language. When she learned the nature of the charge against her, Mrs.
Boehn filed a counter charge against the tamale man. She was released, but Kahn was locked up in jail through
