

REMNANT OF BUTTE
UNION IS STRONG

Seceders Hold Separate Meeting and Order Referendum on Showing Cards.

MAYOR CLOSES SALOONS

No Compromise With Seceders, Is Slogan of Those Who Remain in Union — Mayor, However, Predicts Settlement.

BUTTE, Mont., June 16.—Opposing factions of the Butte local No. 1, Western Federation of Miners, held separate meetings here tonight. The meeting of the conservatives, now referred to as the remnant of the Western Federation, was attended by 21 men. The seceders from the union had in the neighborhood of 40 at their meeting, according to the conservative.

The conservatives had as their chairman Joe Harkins, vice-president of the Butte local, and John C. Lowney, member of the executive committee of the Western Federation of Miners, took a prominent part. The meeting place of the conservatives, a blacksmith shop of one of the local mines, had been announced to the miners.

Seceders Announce Referendum. The seceders announced that the polls would be open from 10 A. M. until midnight tomorrow to vote on the question of showing cards before miners can enter the mines. The refusal of the miners to show their cards was one of the causes of the riots on Saturday last.

Although the streets were crowded tonight, the city was quiet. At least 500 gathered in front of Carpenters Union Hall to see if the conservatives were going to meet there, although it was announced there positively would be no compromise with the seceders.

Man Who Took Funds Known. It was reported that the identity of the man who obtained the union's funds after the riots was determined Saturday has been ascertained. He has not been arrested. It is thought that he is keeping under cover for fear that if he appears the funds will be attached by conservatives of the union.

Mayor Duncan announced tonight that he had been in conference with leaders representing both factions of the Butte miners' union and from assurances he had received from them felt justified in saying that he was highly hopeful a compromise agreement would be reached.

Leaders of the two factions agreed to meet with the Mayor and set a date when a joint conference will be held. The Mayor says that he hopes that both factions agree upon a provisional set of officers and that new elections be called and that the union begin all over again.

Mayor Reassures Wilson. Mayor Duncan expressed confidence that there would be no further trouble and asserted that the local authorities were well able to care for the situation, which the Mayor declared not threatening.

The Mayor addressed the following telegram to President Wilson and the Montana delegation in Congress tonight: "There is no condition in Butte at the present time that necessitates or will justify the bringing of troops. No property interests are menaced and the authorities of this city feel confident that they have matters well in hand. The working classes of Butte are law-abiding and peace-loving. The only difficulty that exists at present concerns factional differences inside the miners' union."

The recent disturbances cannot be attributed to these factions and the responsible elements in both factions have organized for the purpose of preventing further disturbances and have assured the city authorities that they will heartily co-operate in the preservation of peace.

"At the time I am meeting with success in bringing about cooperation between responsible representatives of the two factions and am sanguine that a basis of agreement will be arrived at that will be just and equitable to both sides. Under the circumstances, to bring in troops of any sort, whether state or regular, would be little less than a crime and only could be suggested and desired by persons interested in keeping alive bad feeling."

Governor Urges Precautions. Governor Stewart, after his return to Helena, telegraphed tonight to the Butte Miner as follows: "I gave orders for the militia to be in readiness, and I telegraphed President Wilson requesting that troops be sent either to Fort Harrison or Fort Missoula, so, if the need arises, the Federal soldiers can be put into Butte along with the militia."

"Everything was quiet in Butte when I left. The stranger passing through would not realize there had been any trouble there. I hope the calmness will continue. I believe it will, but at the same time I feel that contingencies should be guarded against."

"It is not the danger to the property of the mining companies that I fear if rioting occurs, but to the property of individuals and stores and the general public. If trouble comes damage will be done in the heart of the city. There is no disposition on the part of either faction to interfere with the mines. Neither the mines nor the mine owners are in any way involved in the present situation, and both elements among the miners are desirous of retaining the good will of the employer."

Members Weary of Old Union. The seceders in their statement issued at midnight reviewed the causes of dissatisfaction in the miners' union. They accused the officers of employing convicts to deport miners who objected to the officers' rulings. They also alleged that sick and death benefits have not been paid. Ninety per cent of the local union, according to the seceders, are in the crusade to establish a new organization.

The statement closes by saying there is no intention of involving the mine-owners in the present trouble.

BOY KEEPS LONG VIGIL

2-YEAR-OLD LAD WATCHES OVER BROTHER WHO SHOT SELF. Four-Year-Old Victim of Loaded Gun Falls Trigger—Parents Away at Time, Visiting Sick Kin.

TACOMA, Wash., June 16.—(Special.)—Terror stricken, 2-year-old Stanley Gilmore stood a lone death watch for eight hours yesterday and last night over the lifeless body of his 4-year-old brother, Hubert, who accidentally shot himself while their parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Gilmore, of Wilkeson, were in Tacoma. When the mother and father returned home they found little Stanley lying on the floor by the side of the bed, on which he had lifted his brother, whom he found dead at noon. He was in a nervous collapse. The boys had been left alone after the Gilmore were hastily called to Tacoma to see Mrs. Gilmore's sister and her sick baby, who are in a hospital. The boys were playing about the house, when Stanley, the older, left for a few minutes, according to his story told to his parents. When he came back he found little Hubert lying on the floor dead, with a revolver by his side. He pulled his little brother onto the bed and then covered on the floor by his side, afraid to move or to run away and tell anyone. For eight hours the child watched.

The gun was of .32 caliber and belonged to Mr. Gilmore, who said he did not know it was loaded. Mr. Gilmore is superintendent of a stone quarry in Wilkeson.

CHARITIES ARE STUDIED

EMILY FARLEY, OF HONOLULU, IN PORTLAND FOR POINTERS.

Other Cities Also to Be Visited to Obtain Information Previous to Re-organizing Hawaiian System.

Mrs. Emily Farley, of Honolulu, is in Portland this week investigating the system of the associated charities with a view to recommendations for the proposed reorganization of the charities in Honolulu in which she has served for the past year. She is on her way to Boston, where she will devote some time to philanthropic study. On her way she will stop in all of the principal cities and study the methods of their associated charities. She will remain in Portland until Saturday, after which she will leave for Seattle, and thence will go to Minneapolis.

bureau to prepare pamphlets for the mothers on instruction for the children; approved state laws making mandatory the report of venereal diseases, and approved the abatement and injunction law in suppression of immoral resorts.

One of the features of the session today was the story of the "devil baby" of Hull House, told by Miss Jane Addams, in connection with her plea that clubwomen extend the hand of fellowship to immigrant women, especially the older women. Miss Addams said that the origin of fairy stories seems to have been with primitive women who approached them to influence to gentler ways their brutal lords and masters.

Story Believed by Many. "There was of course no devil baby, but such currency did the story have that for six weeks the ordinary activities of Hull House were almost suspended while we explained to hundreds of ignorant inquirers that it was all a fairy story," said Miss Addams. "Finally we traced the tale to an Italian version was that a Christian girl married an atheist, who, after attacking his wife, tore down a sacred picture and declared that he would rather have a devil in the house than his wife. And when a child was born, he ran the story, 'It was a child with horns and hoofs and tail complete.'"

"Jewish version differed but little," continued Miss Addams. "It concerned a father whose wife had borne him seven daughters, and on the approach of the eighth, he swore he would rather have a devil in the house than another daughter. And the story, like that of the Italians, concluded with the birth of the devil baby. In both cases the frightened parents had brought the imp to Hull House."

Miss Addams explained that the stories, like the old fairy stories, originated in the primitive minds of women who desired to influence their men folk or their daughters. The sacrifice of the Italian version, or the brutality of the Jewish, the speaker said, entailed the rebirth of a devil child. The detectives found that immigrant mothers were trying to persuade their children against unorthodoxy, or doubtful conduct, by threatening them with impish progeny.

POISONED BY THE GRIP

The grip is no respecter of persons. No age or station of life is exempt from it. The grip is not a fatal disease but it leaves its victim in such a debilitated condition that one of our foremost medical writers has been led to say, "It is a disease especially adapted to health for years after an attack." It is a common thing to hear people date various ailments from an attack of influenza.

The condition of those who have had the grip is one that calls for a tole for the blood. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are especially adapted to meet this need, as they purify and enrich the blood, tone up the nerves and give vigor, strength and health to the debilitated system.

"The grip left me without any vitality whatever," says one who has found relief, "and I lost all appetite and ambition. It was reduced in weight and was frequently confined to bed for two days or more. My friends thought I was going into consumption. I owe my recovery to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and cheerfully recommend them." The details of this case and a chapter on the proper treatment of the grip and its after-effects will be found in the booklet "Building Up the Blood" which will be sent free on request by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

Secretary V. F. Manning, of the Associated Charities, is assisting her in every way possible to procure any information she may require upon the methods of the charities in Portland.

Miss Farley says that in the past year the problems of unemployment and housing have been the most serious things with which the charities had to deal. Natives are not so much a burden upon the charities as immigrants, mostly Spanish, Portuguese and Russian, since there are no organizations except the Associated Charities in Honolulu that are capable of handling their cases. The reorganization of the Honolulu Charities probably will contemplate consolidation of the various charitable organizations, with the Associated Charities to act as a central clearing-house.

GOVERNMENT IS ATTACKED

Unionists Want Nationalist Volunteers Suppressed.

LONDON, June 16.—Some of the strongest supporters of the Ulster volunteers, including Andrew Bonar Law, Lord Robert Cecil and Leopold Charles Amery, attacked the government tonight in the House of Commons for its failure to suppress the Nationalist volunteers. They asserted that the government should have been checked in the beginning.

Augustin Birrell, Chief Secretary for Ireland, said that the Nationalists were increasing by 15,000 weekly, but their purpose was purely defensive.

Simple Way to End Dandruff

Stop Falling Hair and Itching Scalp

There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once and to do this, just get about four ounces of retary, rub it on from any drug store (this is all you will need) apply it at night when retiring, use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dislodge and destroy every sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.
