Candidate Joe Bernstein, Aged 15 for District Attorney, Promises to Make All Mexicans Salute American Flag.

The lobbles of the Yeon building, particularly that on the ninth floor, were swarming with excited young politicians yesterday afternoon from o'clock until late in the evening. The in juvenile politics, attendant upon the opening of campaign head-quarters for the annual election of the quarters for the annual election of the junior government administration, centers about room 918, which has been donated by Mr. Yeon, equipped with telephones by the Pacific Telephone Company and furnished by Dorr E. Kessey. Interest in the election is general among the boys throughout the city. Ten candidates already are in the field, with twice as many more to be announced before the end of the week.

Many of the ambittous young candifield, with twice as many more to be announced before the end of the week. Many of the ambitious young candidates are planning ingenious campaigns and some have already begun "stumping" the city. Among the latter is Joe Bernstein, aged 15, of the Shattuck School, who has his "hat in the ring" for the office of district attorney. Joe has already made speaches before both the junior and senior orders of Moose, before his schoolmates in his own school and at a number of other places.
