

ARNOLD DALY QUILTS CLUB AFTER PRANK

Bessie Abbott, in Man's Attire, Introduced as Newly Discovered "Tenor."

OLD PRECEDENT BROKEN

Players' Organization Shocked by Breaking of Rule That Has Prevailed Since Founding by Edwin Booth Years Ago.

NEW YORK, June 17.—(Special)—Arnold Daly is no longer a member of the Players' Club. He resigned because he was called to account for having smuggled Bessie Abbott, the singer, into one of the club's smokers last winter and because he refused to explain to the satisfaction of the board of directors why he had broken a precedent which had endured since Edwin Booth founded the club, years ago.

Daly was not expelled, although he is out. Furthermore, he did offer an explanation, but he ended his lines which ran something like this: "If my explanation is not sufficient, I have the honor to tender my resignation, to take effect forthwith."

Resignation Is Accepted.
The resignation was accepted unanimously by the directors.

Women are sometimes allowed in the Players' historic clubhouse in Gramercy Square. Every year the club has an anniversary celebration, and all members are invited to bring their friends of the other sex. Except on that occasion and on two occasions of special invitation no woman ever before had been inside the sacred portal.

Directors Make Investigation.
The first Saturday night of each month is given over to a smoker by the club. No one but members may attend except such men as are invited by the chairman, and he must not invite women. In January Daly was elected chairman of the smoker and that night, according to members of the board of directors, he brought as his guest a young person whom he introduced as Signor Bessie Abbott, a tenor who had been discovered by an impresario, but not yet revealed.

"Signor Abbott" took a pleasing part in the entertainment. He sang, to the great enjoyment of the members. He was clothed in becoming evening clothes, which were tight in spots, but it was not until the end of the evening that he was discovered. "Signor Abbott" was not what he appeared to be.

Next day there was gossip in the clubhouse that a woman had been smuggled into the smoker in men's clothes. It was said that the woman was Bessie Abbott, the opera singer. The talk came to the ears of the directors and they decided to investigate.

P. F. Mackay, one of the directors, said today: "These smokers are not for women. No woman ever had attended one until Daly brought Miss Abbott to that one."

PIONEERS ARE GATHERING

The principal address of the meeting will be delivered by Grant B. Dimick, of Oregon City, this afternoon. All business sessions will be held at the Masonic Temple, West Park and Yamhill streets.

Occasion Is for "Get Together."
But the reunion is not an occasion for business. It is intended to bring the "oldtimers" together, to give them opportunity of living over again the good old days when Oregon was young, when the hostile Indian constantly threatened the life and safety of the white residents and when the Atlantic Coast was farther off than the furthest corners of the earth today.

What promises to be one of the most enjoyable events of the day will be the annual dinner at the Armory at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

Meeker Lectures Tonight.
One of the interesting events in connection with the reunion will be the lecture at the Baker Theater this evening by Ezra Meeker, the pioneer wearing the official badge of the society will be admitted free between 6 and 7 o'clock this evening. Motion picture films will illustrate the talk. Mr. Meeker's famous team of oxen was used in securing these films, which will show many views of the identical trail over which the pioneers passed in reaching Oregon.

The annual election of officers will be held at the meeting this evening.

the Baker Theater on Sixth street, near Morrison, and see the moving pictures of the Oregon trail, by Ezra Meeker, also Rose Festival scenes, and remain an hour. Admission free to pioneers, by courtesy of the theater managers.

The business meeting will begin at the Masonic Temple at 7:30 o'clock, to hear reports of committees, elect officers for the ensuing year and transact any other necessary business. Then will follow the usual campfire program: Ex-President Robert A. Miller, 1824, will preside. Five-minute introductory address. A representative of the "Unimproved Order of Red Men," in an impassioned "wa-wa" will protest against the habit of "Boston men" in poaching upon aboriginal preserves.

Contralto solo, Mrs. Mabel Baker Layfield, of Chicago, accompanist, Mrs. Hallie Baker Allen; chinkook dialogue between representatives of the "Unimproved Order of Red Men," and the average age of each pioneer was 69 years.

Such being the case it will be seen that many of the pioneers are in advanced years. On this ground an appeal is made to owners of automobiles to assist these deserving people in going from the Masonic Temple, south-west corner of West Park and Yamhill streets, to the Armory. All who will volunteer for this kindly service are requested to report to Nathan E. Bird, chairman of the day, Pacific phone, Main 1944, before 11 o'clock today.

Those who respond are requested to call at the Masonic Temple at 4 P. M. At 6 P. M. the pioneers will go to the Baker Theater and at 7 P. M. to the Masonic Temple.

Six Hundred Register.
At closing hour at the secretary's office this evening six hundred pioneers had registered. With the addition of those who are expected on the early morning trains from all directions, it is believed that the number in attendance will be as great as last year.

While the death roll of pioneers has been large in the aggregate, it will be observed that the number of members of the Association has been relatively small, and that will be more than made up by the addition of new members—persons who had the right to join long ago, but did not do so for reasons only known to themselves.

NOTED BRIGAND ESCAPES

"WHITE WOLF" WITH 1000 FOLLOWERS, BREAKS CORDON.

General Chao With 5000 Men Makes Hot Pursuit—Uprising at Kan Su Reported by Missionaries.

PEKIN, June 17.—"White Wolf," the notorious Chinese brigand, together with 1000 of his followers, today broke through the circle of regular troops which had surrounded him on Lily Mountain, 100 miles to the south of Lanzhou, since June 4.

General Chao, with 5000 regular troops, followed the brigand in hot pursuit. "White Wolf" after devastating the provinces of Nan and Shen Si, on June 4, attacked Tao Chow, in the extreme south of Kan Su, and after robbing the inhabitants, burned the town to the ground. He and his followers were surrounded afterward by the regular troops.

NEW YORK, June 17.—The Christian and Missionary Alliance of New York today received a dispatch from its headquarters in Central China, saying: "Kan Su stations revolted. All destroyed. Missionaries safe. There is not much cause for anxiety."

COLONEL IS TOLD HE MUST REST LARYNX

Decree of Throat Specialist Prevents Entry into Political Campaign.

ORDER WILL BE OBEYED

Colonel Breakfasts With Bishop of London and Lunches With Other Notables—Career as Geographer Is Ended.

LONDON, June 17.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt is suffering from a affection of the larynx as a direct result of the hardships he endured in his recent Brazilian trip, which will effectually prevent him from taking part as an orator in the political campaign in the United States this fall and compel him to exercise the greatest care for some months to come.

"This is my answer to those who wanted me to go into a campaign," said Colonel Roosevelt today in describing the condition of his throat. "If anyone expected me to do so, I cannot now."

Specialist Points Out Disability.
The announcement of the ex-President's disability was made after he had paid a visit to Sir St. Clair Thomson, professor of laryngology and physical diseases of the nose and throat in Kings College Hospital, a specialist whom he had consulted when he was in London in 1911.

The ex-President, accepting the situation cheerfully, announced today that he would obey the doctor's orders.

Colonel Roosevelt was the guest at breakfast of the Bishop of London, to whom he expressed great interest in his work in the East End of London. The Colonel remarked: "I am little interested in dogmatic theology, but am very much interested in its practical application."

Work as Geographer Is Done.
Afterward the Colonel visited the National Gallery and then lunched with Arthur J. Balfour, former Unionist Premier; Professor Gilbert Murray, regius professor of Greek at Oxford University; Professor John Bury, regius professor of modern history at Cambridge University, and Colonel Radcliffe, the noted lion hunter.

In conversation with several newspaper men, Colonel Roosevelt was asked if he intended to continue his work as a geographer, to which he replied that he had finished with it.

When reference was made to the indemnity of $25,000,000 to be paid by the United States to Colombia, Colonel Roosevelt said he would much rather see the money spent on a Panama Expedition.

The Colonel dined privately in the evening.

Statements Denied in Advance.
Concluding an audience with newspaper reporters, Colonel Roosevelt said emphatically, emphasizing his declaration with familiar beatings of the right hand on the left: "If any statement on a political subject purporting to come from me should be sent from the ship by wireless, you may put it down as a fabrication. I will make none."

The Colonel may, however, make an occasional speech to small gatherings in the course of the season.

Sir St. Clair Thomson, when asked for a statement, said that professional ethics prevented him from discussing his patient's affairs.
