Two Districts Consolidated.

ST. HELENS, Or., June 17.—(Special.)—The electors of School Districts Nos. 2 and 3 met in joint session last night and voted for consolidation of the two districts. This is the result of the consolidation last February of the two towns, Houlton, now West St. Helens, and St. Helens. The two school districts hereafter will be known as District No. 2. Charles Graham, of West St. Helens, was elected as the new director, and Miss Aleck Quick, of St. Helens, as school clerk.

NEW ROADWAY IS ASSURED

St. Johns Council Accepts Port of Portland Proposal.

ST. JOHNS, Or., June 17.—(Special.)—The Council last night by resolution accepted the offer of $2500 from the Portland of Portland to aid in building a roadway from the drydock to Willamette boulevard. This roadway, which will be built on the right of way given by A. M. Stearns, will make the Western Coopersage Company site accessible. The sum of $1000 was ordered paid on the auto truck for the fire department. Cost of the truck and mounting it with apparatus will be $2850. Contract for the hard-surface improvement of Willamette boulevard from Richmond to Burlington streets was awarded to V. W. Mason.

Cowlitz County W. C. T. U. Meets.

WOODLAND, Wash., June 17.—(Special.)—The 11th annual convention of the Cowlitz County W. C. T. U. met here Tuesday for two days. Many subjects of importance were discussed by various members, and annual reports were made by the different officers for the past year. A banquet was held at the Hotel Martin at which Mrs. Katie Bosorth was toastmaster, and speeches by different members were made. About 100 delegates were in attendance from Cowlitz County, and a number of visitors from outside points.

GILLNETTERS PAY FINES

Astoria Men Caught Violating Fish Laws and Are Arrested.

ASTORIA, Or., June 17.—(Special.)—At 1 o'clock on last Sunday morning Robert Townsend, a gillnetter, was arrested by Deputy Wardens Rathbun and Larson as he was fishing in what is known as the Eureka drift in violation of the Sunday closed-period law. At about 10 o'clock on Monday evening the same officers arrested John Laurent, another gillnetter, near Eagle Cliff, on a charge of fishing without having a state license. Both men pleaded guilty yesterday in the Justice Court at Clatskanie and each was fined $50, which they paid.
