

INDIAN CHILDREN SCORGED, CHARGE

Superintendent of School Accused of Permitting Atrocious Cruelties.

40 AFFIDAVITS ARE FILED

Formal Complaint Follows Investigation of Burning of California School in Revenge for Alleged Ill Treatment.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 18.—Charges of cruelty to Indian children, misuse of money belonging to Indians and other severe complaints have been filed against Thomas B. Wilson, superintendent of the Round Valley Reservation Indian School, of Mendocino County, California, it was learned here today.

The charges have been forwarded to the Bureau of Indian Affairs at Washington by a San Francisco attorney representing the Indian board of cooperation.

Included in the charges is Omar Bates, a clerk under Wilson, who is said to have flogged Indian children. Bates has already resigned his position and Wilson is said to have made preparations to quit his position July 1.

It is alleged that Wilson permitted the flogging of the Indian boys and girls, wrongfully retained their money and leased Indian lands to favorites without competitive bids. They affirm that the Indian boys were scourged with lashes until blood ran down their backs, that an Indian woman was knocked down and one of her teeth was broken by Bates and that children were often sick for weeks from ill usage.

An investigation was made by Superintendent Ashbury, of the Carson Indian Reservation, Nevada, after the Indian school had been burned down January 30, presumably by Indian boys in revenge for harsh treatment. The school has since been closed. There are more than 150 Indians at Round Valley.

OPEN-AIR FUND STARTED

Meeting Held and Donations Reach $130, Need Is $1000.

Plans for a systematic canvass of the city in the interest of the boys' and girls' open-air fund were made at a meeting of the Recreation League at the Hazelwood yesterday. The league expects to raise $1000 by the end of June. A. E. Wood is preparing a prospectus and plans the details and purposes of the movement.

The money raised will pay about half the expense of the outings. The remainder will be raised by the boys who participate in the outings. The following donations have been received: Ben Selling, $50; L. Samuel, $10; anonymous, $70; total, $130. Among those who attended the meeting yesterday were: Mrs. Ida Lowenberg, of the Neighborhood Club; Valentine Prichard, of the People's Institute; A. E. Wood, Archibald Clark, Marian Howe, Paul Adams, A. C. Newell, Arthur Hauck, Ray Small, George D. Smith, of Reed College, and George Axtell, of Reed College.

STAND IS ON LIVE ISSUE

grams announced by the party at its last convention.

Primary Rule Urged.

The platform would also have a voter from participating in any primary other than that of the party to which he has declared his preference.

Democrats Are Condemned.

The Democratic National party was condemned for what was styled "the repeated violation of pledged faith with the people," "for the enactment of a sectional tariff, which has depressed and prostrated business, and for giving the people a tariff that has not reduced the cost of living, but which has reduced the wages of workingmen, closed factories, crippled every line of industry and forced prosperity to give way to ever-increasing poverty and distress."

Republican Triumph Seen.

The platform predicts a Republican triumph this fall by calling attention to the big Republican gains in all recent elections. Attention was called to the fact that all progressive legislation on the statute books has been put there by Republican states in a recent year.

Washington Republican Representation in the United States Senate and House was Commended.

Charles F. Lund, of Spokane, was permanent chairman of the convention; John H. Powell, of Seattle, temporary chairman; Sam R. Sumner, of Wenatchee, secretary, and George J. Stewart, of Okanogan County, assistant secretary. James McNealey, of Pierce County, was chairman of the platform committee.

Every County Represented.

The credentials committee reported that every county had a full delegation on hand. As many counties sent delegates with only half a vote, there were about 600 seated in the convention coming from the forty-two parts of the state. The full quota of one-vote delegates was 470. Some delegations traveled 36 hours to be present at the party deliberations. One woman, Mrs. Hall, from Spokane County, came with a baby in her arms. About 25 women delegates were present.

The proceedings were watched closely by representatives of the Progressive party, including Lorenzo Dow, National committeeman, and R. A. B. Young, county secretary of the party, and State Senator Walter S. Davis.

Conciliatory Letters Read.

The letters read from Washington's four Republican representatives to Congress were conciliatory to the "departed brothers," and at no time during the entire convention was a word of disparagement spoken against those who left the party in 1912.

"Let this convention declare clearly and definitely for the needs of the hour," wrote Senator Wesley L. Jones. "Let us sink all personal ambitions and keep in view only the good of the people, which means the party's good. Do this and those of one faith and one belief will sink minor differences and go forth to a great victory."

Democratic Policies Scored.

Senator Jones scored the Democratic policies. He declared: "Vaccination, child labor and chaos mark our foreign policy."

"Would-be leaders may say we will not get together," he continued. "They speak of principles, but they do not mean to keep in view only the good of the people, which means the party's good. Do this and those of one faith and one belief will sink minor differences and go forth to a great victory."

The banquet was given by the local "Greeters" Association last night to members of the organization en route to their homes in the East from their National convention at Los Angeles.

Fourteen Eastern cities represented are: Detroit, Chicago, Galesburg, Ill.; Rochester, Minn.; Oklahoma City; Fann, Ill.; Indianapolis, Denver, Peoria, Peru, Ill.; Des Moines, Wheeling, El Paso and St. Louis. Representatives also were present from Seattle and San Francisco.

The banquet came as the "cap sheaf" feature of a full day's entertainment for the 80 men and women, many of whom hold responsible clerical or managerial positions with some of the large hotels of the country.

Banquet-Room Decorated. Manager Carl Stanley had the crystal room of the Benson decorated for the occasion. The space between the long "horseshoe" made by the tables was transformed into a miniature "sunkin garden," with American Beauty roses rising above the edges of the tables all around. A bank of palms and ferns ran down the middle, greenery and flowering plants filling in between the circles and the central elevation.

"I have never seen a room more beautifully decorated," said David Olmsted, manager of the Hotel Planters at Chicago, and chairman of the board of governors of the Greeters of America.

Clarence H. Shaffer, past president of the Portland Greeters, was toastmaster. He welcomed the visitors.

"Bill" Hanley, of Burns, responded to the toast, "The Pacific Highway," in favor of good roads.

Toast on "Woman" Repeated. Colonel F. A. Sears, of the Hotel Kahler, Rochester, Minn., by special request answered to the toast, "Woman," with which he made one of the hits at the Los Angeles convention.

C. C. Chapman, who represented the Portland Commercial Club, responded to "Portland Hospitality," telling of the delight that Portland takes in entertaining the "stranger within her gates."

"Greeterdom" was the subject to which R. H. Hawkes, of Chicago, secretary-treasurer of the National organization, responded.

"The Future of the Greeters" was predicted by Mr. Olmsted.

Welcome Talks Are Made. Harvey O'Bryan, representing the Portland Ad. Club, was the speaker of the evening. He was given the floor by the visitors to understand that Portland was happy to have them as guests and was eager to have them come again. H. W. McLaughlin, of the Ad. Club, expressed similar sentiments.

On arriving in Portland yesterday morning roses were given the party by the Portland Commercial Club, represented by M. E. Smead. Breakfast was served at the Perkins, where the tables and room were decorated with flowers. The visitors were taken by the hotel managers of Portland yesterday with an automobile sight-seeing tour, which ended at the Automobile Club, where luncheon was served.

The banquet last night was followed by a launch trip at the Oaks. The visitors left for Seattle at 11 P. M.

PASTORS CONDEMN FILM

"THE HOUSE OF BONDAGE" SEEN BY FOUR ST. JOHN'S MINISTERS.

"Movie Teachers Evil It Seeks to Denounce," Says Report Made at Request of Church Congregation.

ST. JOHN'S, Or., June 18.—(Special.)—The ministers met today and condemned "The House of Bondage," moving picture, which was refused permission to be shown in Portland, and which is being shown in the skating rink of this place with the approval of Mayor Vincent and the members of the Council.

At the request of the congregations of several churches a committee investigated. It is composed of Rev. W. Edwin Ingalls, of the Methodist; Rev. James A. Good, of the United Evangelical; Rev. T. Borden, of the Baptist, and Rev. S. G. Roper, of the Free Methodist.

The committee visited the skating rink and saw the picture. Today they made their report. The report says that the picture instead of teaching purity has the opposite effect and teaches evils it purports to make odious.

"However," says the report, "we recognize that much of the opposition to the picture has been used to advertise it. We do not see how the subject of the picture could have been handled more delicately or in a more modest way. But it teaches the evil that the picture is a slap at Protestantism. The suggestions are immoral in the picture."

"After seeing the picture at the skating rink we decided today to urge the Council to appoint a board of censors with full power to pass on and exclude all such pictures and vaudeville shows in this place if they are immoral and suggestive of evil."

Two boys were caught last night in the act of climbing over a high window in the side of the Mallory Stables, 101 Eleventh street, North, where two popcorn wagons are housed. The boys told E. J. Cranfield, foreman of the stables, that they had lost a ball and were just trying to find it.

Both have been before the juvenile court. They will be reported to the juvenile authorities.

MAN AT HELM ACCUSES QUARTERMASTER SAYS ILL-FATED VESSEL STEERED BADLY.

Officers of Liner Deny Statement. Charges of Cowardice Against Some of Crews Unfounded.

QUEBEC, June 18.—Assertions by James Francis Galway, a quartermaster, that the Empress of Ireland did not steer well, that her wheel "flamed" only a few hours before the collision which sent her to the bottom of the St. Lawrence River, and a denial of these statements by officers of the lost Canadian Pacific liner, were the cardinal points in the testimony heard today by the Dominion commission investigating the wreck.

It was announced today that a contract to salvage the Empress had been let. It is believed two months will be required to complete this work. It has not yet been decided whether an attempt will be made to raise the sunken hull after the bodies and valuable cargo have been removed.

Galway underwent a severe cross-examination at the hands of Lord Mersey and Butler Aspinwall, representing the owners of the Empress, but he stuck to his story. It was intimated that an attempt had been made to get him out of the country without testifying. This was denied by Canadian Pacific officials.

At the end of the afternoon session Lord Mersey initiated a conference between the attorneys in the case. Following this it was announced that it had been determined that the charges of cowardice made against some of the crews of both ships were unfounded.

FELICE LYNE "ESCAPES"

Niece of Dr. and Mrs. F. E. Moore Cancels Booking on Ship Lost.

Word was received in Portland yesterday by Dr. and Mrs. F. E. Moore that their niece, Miss Felice Lyne, the opera singer, barely escaped taking passage on the Empress of Ireland, which was wrecked on the morning of May 29. Miss Lyne and her party had booked for a port side stateroom, the engagements having been made six weeks ahead. Urgent and repeated calls for her to hurry to London, however, caused Miss Lyne to cancel the passage on the Empress of Ireland and take a vessel which left a few days earlier.

Miss Lyne has just taken part in a benefit performance in Paris for the Empress survivors and the families of the victims. She played the part Oscar in "Un Ballo in Maschera" and asked that she might contribute her services in the volunteer company in gratitude for her escape.

Miss Lyne was a member of the Quinlan Grand Opera Company, which recently toured the Pacific Coast in concluding a world tour.

HEADACHE AND DIZZINESS

Headache is never a disease. It is always a symptom. Applications, powders and tablets that drug the headache into quiescence are treating the symptoms, not the disease, always a useless proceeding and often harmful.

When headache is associated with some dizziness it is usually the result of nervous exhaustion and will continue as long as the person who is overworked allows the debility to continue. It rapidly disappears when rest and the proper tonic is taken.

Nervous exhaustion, the cause of such headaches and dizziness, results from a strain on the nerves with which the rebuilding work of the blood is unable to keep pace. The best tonic for such a condition is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

These pills build up the blood and strengthen the nerves. With this treatment, unless the overwork worry, or whatever has caused the nervous breakdown, is persisted in, the headaches, dizziness, nervousness and irritability that characterize neurasthenia rapidly disappear.

The Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y., will send free on request a helpful little book on the home treatment of nervous disorders. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are obtainable at any drug store.—Adv.

NEW UNION IS PLANNED

SECEDED MINERS WOULD IGNORE ALL OTHER ORDERS.

NEWS WILL BE CEASED—Butte Committee to Supervise Repealers.—W. W. Apostle Heads Work.

BUTTE, Mont., June 18.—Miners in revolt against the Western Federation of Miners took the first steps today to organize an independent union without affiliation with any other body. The plan of organization will be disclosed at a general mass meeting to be held Sunday.

The executive committee of 15 of the insurgents who called today's meeting and had it under control reported to the insurgent miners that the card system which prevailed at the mines had been voted out of existence. A motion was carried to have the stories of the reporters of the newspapers passed on by a committee of the insurgents before the stories were printed.

The committee named by the meeting to examine the report of the newspapermen is headed by James E. Bradley, who is recognized in Butte as one of the leaders of the local organization of the Industrial Workers of the World.

Early in the day men interested in the factional troubles of the miners had fought about a compromise. At the meeting, however, no talk of compromise was made and each speaker, when the subject of a new union was before the meeting, advised acting independently of the older organized labor bodies.

The executive committee read to the insurgents extracts from papers found in the files of the local union which was dynamited. Two of the letters related to a plan for insurance which had been voted down in 1912. One letter, evidently from an insurance company, assured one official of the union $250 a month in event the insurance proposal carried and during the lifetime of the contract. Two other members of the union, according to the letter, received offers of $125 monthly under like conditions.

After the meeting men who had been active in efforts to bring peace in the miners' union refused to comment, except to say that they would continue their efforts. The insurgents of the day shift of miners met tonight.
