

Wool Public Sale

Shankio Wools Taken at Strong Prices.

RANGE 15 1/4 TO 18 3/8 CENTS

Clips Are of Poorer Quality Than Those Offered at Big Sale of Two Weeks Ago—Eastern Markets Are Firm.

The last public wool sale of the season in Oregon was held yesterday at Shankio. There are about 500,000 pounds of wool left scattered throughout the state, mostly in small lots, and the next week or 10 days will see these remnants of the 1914 Oregon clip picked up and the season brought to an end.

The market has lost none of its firmness, as was shown by the prices paid at Shankio yesterday. The quality of these wools was not equal to those offered at the big sale of the first sale. The wools were not equal in quality to those sold before.

The principal lots sold were Rex Arwin's, 17,520 pounds to Green at 17 1/2 cents; J. J. Connelly, 17,000 pounds to Livingston at 18 1/2 cents; E. J. Humphrey, 18,500 pounds to Koshland, 18 1/2 cents; R. H. Kopy, 15,500 pounds to Livingston at 18 1/2 cents; Angus McInnis, 8,120 pounds to Green at 15 1/2 cents; R. McDonald, 19,977 pounds to Green at 17 1/2 cents; Prineville Land & Livestock Company, 90,535 pounds to Burke and Koshland at 16 1/2 cents.

There were several small lots of one and two weeks wool to Livingston at 18 cents. There is not much likelihood of a reaction in foreign wool prices this Summer.

Wool most readily to a substantial advance in medium crossbreds at the next series of auctions in London, which opens July 7. Mail orders from Boston say:

It is hinted that the recent movement in Fourth American low quarters and New Zealand 44s and 46s was prompted by the apprehension of such a turn at the coming sales. The scarcity of desirable wools abroad is evidenced in the fact that the Continent. It is said that French and other combing mills have been obliged to stop partially because of the lack of supplies.

Reports from the other side state that Bradford still is buying freely of both fine and crossbred wools. Dealers who have been abroad from this center somewhat confirm these reports by saying that topmakers in Bradford are likely to be keen competitors for desirable wools at least through the July sales in London. These dealers assert that large contracts for tops in some cases still have months to run and that the makers must proceed to some extent, though doing the business at a loss. They say that the demand to meet such obligations is persistent and heavy.

Although it appears as though no likelihood of lower values in London is held forth for conservatism, though reports from London say that the adjustment of yarn and fabrics to a level commensurate with the conditions in very slow. The present conditions in Australia, moreover, are as bullish as those in England. Recent purchases in Brisbane and Sydney have been fully on a parity with English distributing points. The next sale at Brisbane will be held June 16 and Sydney will have another eight days later.

WASCO COUNTY HOES BRING 15 1/2 CENTS

Orders on Market for Contracts But Growers Hesitant.

The Meers & Houser crop of 70 bales of Tych Valley hogs was bought yesterday by T. A. Livesley & Co. at 14 1/2 cents. Several buyers were in the market for contracts at 15 cents, but growers will not sell.

California advices noted the sale by Hinkley & Campbell of 100 bales at Santa Rosa, and added there were orders for spots at 14 and 14 1/2 cents, but growers are holding out for more money.

A Sasa letter reported that the new plant shows an uneven run of vine, and is backward about 10 days. Aphid has made its appearance and growers are busy spraying. Yards that had a strong blue attack last year are most backward. The Sasa market was quiet, but owing to the small stocks there has been no decline. Medium and best grades were quiet at 100 cents, but prices in Austria were equal to 110 to 120 shillings per hundredweight.

EARLY MILLING WHEAT CONTRACTING

Limited Business in Forty-four and Turkey Red—Barley Cables Easier.

A limited amount of wheat contracting was reported yesterday. The buying was of forty-four and milling Turkey on the Coast basis of 80 and 81 cents. It was for early delivery, and only small amounts were secured. There was no pressure to contract business on either side of the market.

Trade in barley and oats was quiet. Barley cables from Europe were weaker. Weekly foreign wheat shipments were as follows:

WORSTED MILLS ARE BUSY

Promises of Great Harvests is Most Important Factor in Business.

NEW YORK, June 19.—Dun's review will say tomorrow: Confidence remains unshaken and while conditions are not wholly satisfactory, yet the volume of trade is very steady.

Worsted mills are busy and some manufacturers of woolens are actively engaged in raw wool. On the whole business in raw wool continues backward and generally unsatisfactory, although evidence of improvement are not entirely lacking.

Conflicting reports are received as to condition of the iron and steel trade, but the situation has, nevertheless, improved.

WHOLESALE TRADE IS LOOKING UP Retail Distribution Is on Larger Scale—Collections Easier.

NEW YORK, June 19.—Bradstreet's will say tomorrow: Excellent all-around crop advices continue to extend the circle of optimism which is being given at a greater rate than actual buying.

But over a large area distribution at retail is better, wholesale trade is looking up, demand for iron and steel is increasing and conditions are somewhat easier, though on West coast railroads is increasing and heavy sales of wheat for export are being reported.

For the week: Bank clearings, $3,139,190,000; a decrease of $4,300,000; gold exports, $6,228,429; wheat exports, $6,655,000; against $6,228,429 last year; failures, 549, against 255.
