Much rivalry developed in athletics. The tennis tournament was spirited. The singles were won by R. L. Sabin, Jr., of Reed College, who was awarded the Lippy Cup from Seattle. The Honeyman Cup, for the doubles, also went to Reed College, being carried off by Messrs. Webster and Sabin.

Four teams formed a baseball league, the teams representing the faculty, Puget Sound, the Willamette Valley and the Inland Empire. The Puget Sound boys won first honors. Portland Y. M. C. A. won the volley-ball championship. The track meet honors went to Oregon Agricultural College, through the work of Messrs. Hopwood and Cole.

Hopwood, who holds the Pacific Coast record in the two-mile event, won the "wreck race." This was a race from the camp to a wreck on the beach and return, a distance of about four miles.

CURES CONSTIPATION.

If you are troubled with a deranged stomach, constipation or indigestion, the daily use of Roman Meal Bread will give you permanent relief.

Roman Meal Bread is made of Roman Meal, a health food which was invented and is made by a physician, from entire hard Winter wheat and rye ground whole upon a buhr stone mill. A portion of fermentable starch is removed, but the coarser brans and dark tissue building parts are all retained. This is combined with Flaxose, a secret preparation by which pure ground flax is parily digested and deprived entirely of its disagreeable oder and taste. It is not medicated and has not the most distant relation to a drug, yet it cures If you are troubled with a deranged
