BY PORTUS BAXTER, SEATTLE, Wash., June 22 .- (Special.) -A ninth-inning rally, started by James, gave Seattle a brilliant and un-expected victory over the Portland

Coits today, score 3 to 2.

It was one of the fastest and most brilliantly played games of the season. It was as tough for Portland to lose as it was great for Seattle to win. The teams were a tie at the end of the sixth teams were a tie at the end of the sixth with one run each. Portland shoved over one in the seventh and took the lead only to lose it in the last gasp.

Up to the ninth Leonard held Seattle to four singles and one run. For the same distance Gipe held Portland to five hits, but in one inning he contributed a couple of passes which were mixed with two of the five hits and yielded a run. In the third Perrine hit Gipe and popped to McKune. Mills forced Perrine but was safe at first. Mills stole. Duddy hit. Mills scored. Portland Ties in Fifth.

Portland tied in the fifth after one was out. Guigni found a safe spot in right, McKune hit hard between James and Raymond. Bobby made a hard try and Raymond. Bobby made a hard try for the ball but could not reach it. Ray-mond came in behind him and handled the pill perfectly on the short hop and got the runner at first. Guigni, after turning second, kept on for third. The moment Huhn got the ball at first he cut loose for third. The throw was high and wide, which allowed Guigni to score and the high and wide, which allowed Guigni to score and tie.

Portland took the lead in the seventh when Gipe lost control long enough to walk Williams and Guigni after Milligan had poled a single. With the bases full McKune dropped a safe one in short center, scoring Milligan. The bases were still full but Haworth popped to Huhn and in the emergency Gipe struck out Leonard, leaving three on base. Seattle could not do anything with Leonard from the third to the ninth.

James Starts Rally. In the last of the minth Duddy fanned. James hit and Cadman dropped the ball safe in right and James went to third.

OTH INNING RALLY
COSTS COLTS GAME

The metropolitan tennis championship on Saturday, R. Lindley Murray, the Leland Stanford University student, has placed himself under the tutelage of Robert D. Wrenn, chairman of the committee of management of Davis cup matches for America, and it was reported today that the young Californian would try for a place on the American team.

Maurice McLoughlin, the National champion, is of course looked on to head the team. Bundy, the champion's partner in the doubles, also is regarded as on the first line of the defenders with R. Norris Williams II as the third member of the team.

In the event of any of the three players meeting with an accident before the international matches in August, a player as near their equal as possible must be held in reserve. Tennis experts believe that Murray is being stroomed by Wrenn for this place.

porting the team at all, and finally the players held a meeting, alred their grievances, and demanded either that Owner Lichtenhein trade his players or transfer his franchise to some other ofty.

Kitty Bransfield immediately resigned as manager, and Howley's appointment to the pliot's job seems to have calmed the excited men to some extent. Ed Kipper', of Vancouver, is an outfielder on the unfortunate tailend erew.

Howley ought to make good as a manager, for he has had long experience and has as ready a wit and tongue as ever graced the baseball balliwick. Portland secured him from Cieveland in 1912 and Waiter Mack sold him to Philadelphia the following Winter for $3000 cash and players Loan and Stanley.

Walt got married on the money, canned Loan and sold Stanley a few days ago to Spokane for $300 or $400, so he came out fairly well on the transaction, as Dan cest him hardly more than $1500 at the original barter.

Which leads us around to the case of Carl Mays. The big blonde pitcher has finally struck his stride with the Providence Grays and has won four games against three losses.

But Mays' pitching is in a fog along-side his batting. Mays led the Northwest leaguers last season at bat and west leaguers last season at bat and vone cut when winning run scored.

McCredle denies the rumor from the McGredie denies the rumor from the north that he pulled Finney's noise.

"Dozens of players have done worse than I did Wednesday," said the Portland manager, "without anything being done about it. I just told him he was saleep and that he couldn't see when he was awake, and that I didn't think highly of his ancestry.

Nese Not Pulled.

"I didn't come within five feet of him. If I had gone as far as to pull his nose I probably would have knocked his block off. I hardly ever jump on umpires, and I always liked Ed Finney, but that decision Wednesday was the worst I ever saw. It will stick in my crop to my grave."

His pitchers are another source of gloom for McCredle.

"We are leading the league in hitting and in base-stealing, and the fielding is fine, so our present standing must be due to the pitchins. I need some pitchers," said the chief Beaver sadly. Nose Not Pulled.

"Lucky pitchers," specified McCredie.
"I don't care how they do it if they can win some games. They can drop-kick them if they want to, or snap them like marbles. I wanted Walter Slagle, but Omaha beat me to him."

Reiger or Krause will work in tomorrow's game against the Angels, McCredie said.

"I doesn't seem to make much difference who I pick," he added. "I just grab one of them who hasn't worked for a few days and then sit on the bench and pray for him through nine innings."
