Gas Company to Build Reservoir.

The Portland Gas & Coke Company is preparing to erect a gas reservoir in the Ladd property between East Ninth and East Eleventh streets, south of the Southern Pacific Railway. The company owns the tract between East Ninth and East Eleventh and East Twelfth street south of Division and intended to erect the gas tank on that property, but the property owners objected and succeeded in getting ap ordinance passed which made it impossible to build there, it being pear residences and a church. The Ladd property is outside of the 250 feet requirements of the ordinance. At present a machine is drilling for a foundation for the ordinance. FIVE LAURELHURST LOTS PUR-CHASED BY ARCHBISHOP.

New Church Is to Be Built on Site, Although Temperary Chapel Doubtless First Will Be Erected.

Alexander Christie, archbishop of the diocese of Oregon, concluded a deal with O. W. Taylor yesterday afternoon for the purchase of five lots in the cen-for the purchase of five lots in the center of Laurelhurst, where a new Catholic church is to be erected in the near future. The consideration was $15,000.

The property is situated on a high elevation, immediately north of the residences of Mrs. Harvey W. Scott and Dr. Homer I. Keeney, and bounded by Laddington Court, Coloncy Place and East Thirty-ninth street North. The old Ladd barn stood on the spot before the tract was subdivided. The five lots were originally purchased by O. W. Taylor as a site for a new home, but about six months ago Mr. Taylor bought the residence of Dr. W. A. Wise, at the corner of East Davis street and Floral avenue, in Laurelhurst.

Although the Laurelhurst tract comprises about 446 acres, improved with nearly 500 homes, the projected Cathoelaborate stone edifice can be built.
