ZIMMERMAN STILL SOUGHT BY M'GRAW

Matty Says O'Day's Demand for Two Players in Return Is Block to Deal.

PITCHERS ARE IMPROVING

Demarce of New York Seems to Have Old Form and Luck Again and Marquard Will Soon Be

I have long known and frequently hinted that "Mac" would be glad to get Zimmerman for his club, especially since Shafer deserted and left the team short of infielders. But O'Dea wanted short of infielders. But O'Dea wanted Fletcher and Burns for Zimmerman, two of the best men on the New York team. The little left fielder has been leading the club at bat and is fast as a flash, so that he fits smoothly into McGraw's scoring machinery.

"Hank' must think I'm clear crazy," remarked McGraw after he heard the proposition. "I wouldn't give up Fletcher and Burns for any two men on the Chicago team," McGraw and O'Day are not very cordial to each other, anyway, on account of old days. If Fletcher was turned over McGraw would lose a star infielder, rated by ballplayers as one of the best shortstops in the league. They regard him stops in the league. They regard him more highly than the fans do because they realize more exactly from actual contact the ground he covers and the games he breaks up with the bat. McGraw has no infielders to spare now, so he would be foolish to pass along Fletch for Zim, beside losing a very valuable outfielder in the trade O'Day proposed, George Burns.

Dieker Still On. McGraw is still dickering for Zimmerman, however, who is very anxious to Join the Giants, because nearly all ballplayers have a secret ambition to come to New York, and because he lives in the Bronx and so would be near his home. Any time a player's name is mentioned in connection with a trade to New York he becomes excited.

Flying Fairy was next with old Donald MacDonald sixth and Lahoe, who broke down during the race, hopelessly last.

The value of the handicap to the winner this year was not quite $4000, while ner this year was not quite $4000, while in 1908, when Celt won, the prize amounted to $19,750.

The time, 2:08, for the race today was slow, but this can be partly ac-counted for by lack of pace being made during the first half of the journey.
