NEW POSTAL STATION LOCATED.—A new postoffice station located at East Twenty-eighth street and the Sacred, will be open for business July 1. This station will take the place of the Rose City Park station, which will close on June 30.

REV. PATRICK GREGORY LEAVES.—Rev. Father Gregory, O. F. M., of the Sacred Heart parish, left Tuesday night for a four months' trip to and through Europe. He will pass ten days in New York and leave for Europe July 8.

FORMER HOOD RIVER RESIDENT DIES.—Mrs. Irene E. Ollinger, for 20 years a resident of Hood River and for the last three months a resident of Portland, died Tuesday night at the Ollinger home, 402 East Forty-fifth street North.

MANUFACTURERS' PROTESTS UNHEARD.—Over the protest of proprietors of factories on East Eighth street City Commissioner Dieck has recommended to the City Council the revocation of the permit for the maintenance of a sidetrack by the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company along that street from Hawthorne avenue to Salmon street.

MODERN DANCES SHOWN.—Professor Ringler has returned from New York, with the latest steps taught by the Castles, Sebastian, Maurice and other leading dance artists; also, the standard steps adopted at the Cleveland National convention of dancing masters.

THIRD-STREET PROPOSAL REJECTED.—Claiming that they have simply lighted Third street by means of the arches on intersections and that the regular city street arc lights are no longer needed, property owners on Third street yesterday asked the Council to remove the arches and apply the cost of maintaining them to the fund for the maintenance of the arches now in service.

GUARD RAILS CAUSE TROUBLE.—For the benefit of traffic over the Morrison-street bridge, the City Council has recommended to Commissioner Dieck the reworking of the structure at once. It was reported that yesterday a large hole developed in the bridge, making traffic unsafe.

PROFESSOR HORNBERG LECTURES AT FAIRVIEW.—Prof. J. B. Hornberg, of the Oregon Agricultural College, will lecture tomorrow night on "Oregon Literature, Letters and Newspapers" in Smith's Memorial Presbyterian Church at Fairview. He will use many stereoscopic views. The lecture will be under the auspices of the Fairview Grange.

WILLIARD C. HENDERICKSON DIES.—Williard C. Hendrickson died at his home, 562 Vancouver avenue, Tuesday, aged 70. He is survived by three sisters, Mrs. H. Getchman of California; Mrs. Cora Core, of Los Angeles; Mrs. M. Burns, of Portland, and one brother, Elwood Hendrickson, of Seattle.

KANSAS TO GATHER.—The regular monthly meeting of the Oregon Kansas Society will be held Saturday at Manchester Hall, Fifth and Oak streets. Several matters of business interest to members will be taken up. There will be a short programme and a social. Kansas generally are invited to attend.

TAX TALK SCHEDULED.—Roger R. Simmt will tell of the aims and work of the Taxpayers' League of which he is president at 11 o'clock, Moore's Restaurant, 148 Fifth street, before the Oregon Single Tax Association. This meeting will be open to the public.

SURETY COMPANY MUST PAY.—Mrs. Beattie Smith may recover from the National Surety Company, of New York, $1500 burglar insurance for the jewelry stolen from her by George Boaz in the Stelwyn Apartments, January 23, according to an order made by Circuit Judge Anderson yesterday.

LADIES' AUXILIARY MEETS.—The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Sellwood Y. M. C. A. held a business and social meeting yesterday afternoon. After the business session Miss Evelyn Spencer, a Portland graduate of the Oregon Agricultural College, delivered an address on domestic science.

PIPELINE TO BE REPAIRED.—The old Bull Run pipeline, between Gresham and the Talbot place, a distance of about one mile, will be repaired. This stretch has given great trouble. There is some element in the soil which eats holes in the pipe. It was thought to be caused by electric action of some sort, but later the cause has been ascribed to a character of the soil around the pipe which produces chemical action.

NEW PASTOR ARRIVES.—Rev. Lovick P. Law, who admitted the trouble as pastor of the First Methodist Church South, at Union avenue and Multnomah street, has arrived and will begin his duties tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. The property owners raised a fund of $1000 for the work and the city appropriated $500. The $1000 fund was turned over to the city for expenditure. It is claimed by the city that all the money but about $65 was spent.

MANY BOOK SALEM PASSENGER.—Reservations coming in at the Commercial Club for the excursion to the Salem Cherry Festival will be held Saturday, indicate that between 250 and 300 men and women will go on the Commercial Club and Rosarian special. The train will leave from the North Bank depot at 12 o'clock Saturday and will reach Salem at 2 o'clock. The Rosarian band will accompany the party. Luncheon will be served on the train. The round trip ticket will cost $3.

WARRANT OUT FOR ATTORNEY.—William A. Sheenfield, an attorney who had offices in the Buchanan building, is wanted on a charge of larceny by bailiffs of $175 from Mrs. E. Flood, of Hillsdale, Or. A warrant was served out for his arrest yesterday. Sheenfield is said to have gone to Alaska recently, leaving his wife and children here. Criminals have reached the District Attorney's office indicating that Sheenfield may be guilty of other breaches of trust.

Mrs. IRENE E. OLLINGER DEAD.—Mrs. Irene E. Ollinger, daughter of a pioneer family, died at the family home, 402 East Forty-fifth street North, Tuesday night. Funeral services will be held at Dunning's chapel at 3 P. M. today. Mrs. Ollinger was the wife of E. S. Ollinger, formerly of Hood River. She was born in Albany, Or., in 1859. She is survived by her husband and five children, Millie, Winfield, Hazel, Harry and Mary.

DEWEY CLUB JOINS LEAGUE.—The Dewey Rural Improvement Club yesterday was admitted to membership in the Oregon Development League, in which there are about 130 commercial bodies of this state. The Dewey Club was organized only a short time ago. Dewey is situated in Yamhill County a short distance from Wapato. W. C. Fleet is president of the club and T. R. Rose, secretary.

BRIDGE THROUGH UNMADE.—Believing that the Union-avenue bridge over Sullivan's Gulch is in an unsafe condition, H. W. Holmes, chief of the city's bureau of highways and bridges, has recommended to Commissioner Dieck the reworking of the structure at once. It was reported that yesterday a large hole developed in the bridge, making traffic unsafe.

SANDY RIVER BRIDGE BIDS IN.—Twelve bids were opened by the County of Clatsop yesterday for the construction of the Sandy River bridge, near the Portland Automobile clubhouse. The lowest bid, of the Construction Company, is about $2000 over the estimate. All the bidders, except the Illinois Steel Bridge Company, of Spokane, are Portland concerns.

NEWSBOYS IN COURT FOR GAMBLING.—Five newsboys in Clatsop County yesterday appeared in court for charges of gambling. The oldest was 13 years old and the youngest 11. "Tom" Galt, 12, was charged with no money in sight, boldly challenged one of the boys. Probation Officer McIntosh proved enough to cause Judge Galtman to commit the boys to the county jail. If the boys disobey their mothers in the future they will be sent to the Frazer Detention Home.

ACTING UPON THE ADVICE OF CITY ATTORNEY LA ROCHE, the City Commission will take up for consideration within a few days the adoption of a new relief and pension fund system for the police department to take the place of that created by the State Legislature and voided by the Supreme Court. City Attorney LaRoche says the Council has the power to create a relief and pension system and appropriate city money to be defrayed by the Council.

AT PRESENT the police are operating under the old system, which is said to be inadequate. The relief, it is said, is insufficient and the means of raising money for the relief fund is inadequate. The Council at a meeting yesterday instructed City Attorney LaRoche to consider the preparation of a new system for submission to the Council.

PAROLED MAN UP AGAIN. E. B. Jaynes Admits He Violated Terms of His Release. E. B. Jaynes, who passed several worthless checks a year ago and was sentenced by Circuit Judge Kavanaugh to two years in the penitentiary and paroled on bond, yesterday admitted that he would pay back the money and remain sober, was before the court to be again yesterday.

MISSION BOARDS PLAN RALLY.—The women's missionary boards of the Congregational churches will hold their annual rally at Pilgrim Church, Shawyer street and Mission avenue, tomorrow from 5:45 A. M. to 5:30 P. M. Luncheon will be served at noon at the church. Women interested in missionary work are invited.

ATORNEY IS SENTENCED.—John B. Ryan, attorney, was sentenced by Circuit Judge Anderson to six months in the County Jail for non-support of his two minor children, Vincent and Etiener. The court, however, paroled him on condition that he pay $20 a month into the Juvenile Court for their support.

LEGAL LIQUOR SELLING CHARGED.—Charged with selling liquor in an unlicensed grog, Samuel Rooley, a dishwasher, 20 years old, was arrested in a restaurant at 8 North Third street, by Patrolmen Miller and Holbrook yesterday.

WOMEN'S LEAGUE TO MEET.—The meeting of the Women's Liberal League of Oregon will take place tomorrow at 3 P. M. in the Swiss Hall, Third and Jefferson streets. All women are invited. Refreshments will be served.

TRIAL DOCKET TO BE CALLED.—Circuit Judge Davis will call his trial docket at 2:30 A. M. Saturday, considering the kind of trouble or traffic result in many vehicles refusing to use the bridge.

CHARITIES TO RAISE $3500. Work Gains 75 Per Cent Over Contributions for Past Year. Plans for a campaign to raise $3500 needed in the general relief department of the Associated Charities, the legal aid department and the employment bureau until October 31, the case of the work will be laid at a meeting of the finance committee of the Associated Charities at the Merchants National Bank at 3 o'clock today, on the call of W. P. Jones.

MEMBERS OF THE committee are W. P. Jones, R. S. Howard, J. N. Fieschner, E. R. Corbett and J. L. Moler. The work of the Associated Charities has made an increase of 100 per cent over that of last year, while the increase of contributions to support the work has been only 25 per cent.

UNEQUALED CLEARANCE. All Spring Suits and Coats Must Go! We have divided our remaining Spring stock of Wool Suits and Silk and Wool Coats into three lots and will clear them out without regard to cost—Blues and Blacks included. Seventy-five per cent of these are suitable to wear into the Fall season. This clearance is at least three weeks ahead of the usual time, giving everyone an opportunity to select a high-class Coat or Suit while there is still ample time to wear it. This carefully selected stock is too well known to require comment. Portland's well-dressed women know Holiday quality and style.
