PIONEERS AT PICNIC

Candidates for Governor Make Talks at Brownsville.

CROWD GREETED IN CITY

R. A. Booth, Republican Nominee for morrow, Big Day of Meeting of Old Linn County Citizens.

BY ADDISON BENNETT. BROWNSVILLE, Or., June 25.—(Special.) - This is the first day of the 26th annual picnic of the Linn County ploneers, which will continue over tomorrow and Saturday. The weather has been auspicious and the crowd

The country, at least the Oregon country, has been saved and lost and then lost and saved. This was learned from the speeches of the two doctors, towit: Dr. James Withycombe, Republican candidate for Governor, and Dr. C. J. Smith, Democratic candidate for the same office.

Loss or saved, saved or lost, there by a score of 11 to 2. Tomorrow's game between Eugene and Brownsville prom-ises to be exciting.

The annual address will be given to-morrow by Judge H. H. Hewitt, of Albany. Speeches also will be given by S. M. Garland, of Lebanon, and C. P. Bishop, of Salem.

There is sure to be a great number of people here tomorrow, and the programme will be interesting. Saturday will be the big day, and if the weather continues favorable, Coshows Grove, where the meetings are held, will be and bunting.

There is a welcome sign on every hand and a sign of welcome on every countenance, for the Brownsville people are as noted for their hospitality as their environs are for scenic beauty.

LEWISTON, Idaho, June 25.—(Special.)—The Lewiston-Clarkston cherry crop, the largest that has ever been produced here, is now almost ready for the market. Returns now being received on the early shipments indicate that the prices will be more favorable.

Desert Land Board to Contest Federal Ruling on Tumalo Laterals.

BAKER, Or., June 25.—If Sheriff Rand, who four days ago started on the trail of Edward Fisher, wanted in connection with the shooting of ex-Mayor Stewart, of Copperfield, is not heard from soon, search for him will be instituted by his deputies and friends.

The Sheriff, guided by Jay Ballard, a friend and companion of Fisher, is in a wild and desolate country, but there are telephones he should have been able to reach. His long silence has caused fear that possibly he may have met with some mishap.
