

JACK JOHNSON AND MORAN FIGHT TODAY

Negro Heavyweight Champion Is 3-to-1 Favorite on Eve of Title Battle.

WHITE MAN IN FINE FORM

Physicians Declare Pittsburg Boxer Is Physically Perfect and Followers Are Confident.

WORLD'S HEAVYWEIGHT KING TITLE AT STAKE TONIGHT.

Principals—Champion Jack Johnson, negro, and Frank Moran, white. Place—At Paris, France. Time—Tonight at 10:30 o'clock Paris time, which is 5:30 P. M. Eastern time or about 2:30 P. M. Pacific time. Betting—Odds are favoring Johnson 3 to 1. Outlook—Champion and challenger look physically perfect, with Moran's marvelous improvement in last few months enough to make fans guess receipts will be $100,000 or more, in indication of this sum the poor of France will receive 10 per cent. Referee—George Carpentier, French champion.

PARIS, June 26.—Jack Johnson, world's heavyweight champion pugilist, and Frank Moran, of Pittsburg, who hopes to wrest the title from the big negro, were early to bed tonight for a restful sleep before their 20-round bout in the amphitheater of the Velodrome d'Hiver tomorrow night.

Each man today declared himself physically fit for the fray and each was highly optimistic that victory would rest with him. Experts who have watched them in training bore out the assertion of the fighter that they were well prepared for the battle. In the betting tonight Johnson was a 3-to-1 favorite.

Moran Picks Wild Flowers.

Moran had only light exercise this morning and spent the remainder of the forenoon loitering about his quarters at Meriel-on-the-Oise and in picking wild flowers in the nearby woods. This morning he came into the city for an examination by physicians, who declared him to be physically perfect. The doctors expressed great admiration over the marvelous muscular development of the white man and the regularity of the action of his heart and lungs.

Moran's Gains Consistent.

Everybody in Moran's camp was cheerful tonight and confident that he would win. Their confidence, they put was due to the constant improvement Moran had shown during his training. In offensive and defensive work, hard hitting and ability to take punishment Willie Lewis, the American middleweight, who has been helping to condition Moran, in order to toughen the challenger, stand with hands at his sides and with legs braced while Lewis rained blows to his jaw trying to knock him down. Johnson also has trained assiduously if not quite so strenuously. He began his work two weeks earlier than Moran and has been careful not to overdo it. He said today that he was prepared to tempt himself to the tactics of Moran.

Under the Rules, Hitting in Clinches Will be Permitted.

The advance sale of seats indicates there will be a great crowd at the Velodrome d'Hiver when the fight starts at 10:30 o'clock tomorrow night. It is understood that many women have purchased tickets, some of whom never miss an important boxing match in Paris.

Charity to Benefit.

The poor of Paris will realize a good sum as the result of the contest, as it is calculated that the receipts will reach at least $100,000, and in addition to the law, 10 per cent is added to the price of each ticket for the benefit of the poor.

No Better Date Could Have Been Selected for the Fight, as it occurs at the principal sporting event of the year, and in the height of the tourist season, when many Americans and other foreigners are in Paris.

The selection of Georges Carpentier, the French champion, as referee, is also considered likely to draw large following, as he is an idol among the Parisians.

KANSAS CITY WOMEN LOSE

Joe Swain, middleweight Northwest champion, has come to Aberdeen to make his home and, with Tom Sharkey, a new local heavyweight fighter rapidly rising to the front, Aberdeen has become a mecca of fighters, despite the fact that boxing matches are prohibited on the Harbor by Prosecuting Attorney J. E. Stewart.

AMATEUR ATHLETICS

THE Washington Park Juniors playground ball team defeated the Lakeview squad, 20 to 19, yesterday on the winners' grounds. P. Collins won the game in the ninth inning with a three-run homer. Collins also knocked three homers, as did his teammate, Lynch. Keen, Keppenger and Wilder worked for the Lakeview team, opposed by Dennis, Wright and Lynch.

The Piedmont Maroons will hook up with the Archer-Wiggins Weonas on the Vancouver grounds tomorrow afternoon. This game will tend to decide who is in the running for the city championship. The contest will start promptly at 2:30 o'clock. Morris will work for the Weonas with Moehler doing the twirling for the Maroons.

Pinkerton "Pink" Day, former manager of the Tillamooks, is now handling the Cascade Locks nine. Day is a playing manager and several members of his squad are well known locally.

While playing tennis with several companions on the Irvington Club courts, George Adams, son of Mayor Wardell, slipped and fell on his arm in such a manner as to fracture it.

For games with the Meier & Frank baseball team write manager Hammer, in care of the Meier & Frank store.

Do you try to do those you are dubbed by?

JACK JOHNSON'S EYES LOOK MUCH AS JEFFRIES DID AT RENO, BUT BOTH HE AND MORAN LOOK FIT.

PARIS, France, June 26.—Jack Johnson looks to be in magnificent condition—outside—for his fight with Frank Moran. The question is: What sort of condition is the inside Johnson? Is he as good as he looks, or will he cave in as did Jeffries?

Frank Moran is certainly in good condition. He's magnificently muscled; he can run like a quarter horse after horse after horse and the whole question to be decided tomorrow is: "Has Johnson gone back so far that Moran can beat him?"

So far as outward appearance goes, it is my opinion there is not a hair to choose between the men. It is what is inside the man that counts. Johnson is grayer than he used to be. His face shows that he is older—in years and experience as well—than he was when he fought Jeffries. His magnificently muscled body is smooth and supple as ever. There are no great pockets of fat to bother him, and while he has undoubtedly put on weight, it is not enough to

BEAUTIES OF STAGE, AND STARS, BOOKED

Theatrical Attractions on Way to Portland Include Old and New Successes.

FORBES-ROBERTSON COMES

Dramas of Purpose, Fun and Scenic Opportunity, With Players of Note and Notoriety, Music and Dances En Route.

BY LEONE CASS BAER.

No one can cavil at the theatrical bookings made for the Hellig for the new season. Some of the best known and biggest stars are coming to this coast and to Portland, while all the comedy and drama successes of a past season are scheduled for a presentation here.

Calvin Hellig has given to the public a list of the bookings and it reads most promising. Two productions are to be given this Summer, "The Road to Happiness," next week, and "The Tentmaker," booked for August 2. After these the regular season holds off its opening until September, when it starts off with a list of notable and noteworthy presentations.

"The Road to Happiness" brings William Hodge, star, "Omar, the Tentmaker," is one of the big spectacular scenic productions of last season of the "Kismet" type of play. Guy Bates Post plays the title role.

Forbes-Robertson opens the new season in Shakespearean repertoire. It is only when the great Shakespeare will see Sir Johnstone Forbes-Robertson this season, inasmuch as only a month ago he finished his farewell appearance in New York and sailed for his English home with his wife, the talented Gertrude Elliott.

Fanny Ward, the comedienne, in "Madame Butterfly," and "The Yellow Ticket," will be next on the list of Hellig bookings. Fanny Ward is an international stage beauty, the divorced wife of Sam Lewis, the diamond merchant of London.

"Too Many Cooks" follows Miss Ward. This is sent by William Brady. It is one of the biggest comedy hits of last year, and records the triumphant of Frank Crane, author, star and director of the play.

William Crane, dean of American comedians, following "The New Henrietta," in which he occurs with Thomas Ross. In this comedy Douglas Fairbanks was replaced by Mr. Ross. But Mr. Ross is to visit Portland. He comes in "He Comes Up Smiling," a new comedy, written by Byron Ongley.

John Mason again booked. At Woods, who will send us also "The Yellow Ticket" and "Ferryboat" as sponsor for "He Comes Up Smiling." In "The Yellow Ticket" we will see John Mason, Florence Reed, John Barrymore and Emmet Corrigan. At the same time, the cast is sent out. Michael Morton wrote this play. "Potash and Perlmutter" comes later in the season. As every reader of the Oregonian knows, this is a three-piece garment, made out of Montague Glass' stories. Barney Bernard and Alexander Carr created the roles of Potash and Perlmutter. In a new musical comedy will be followed by "High Jinks," with the over plump comedienne Stella Mayhew in the lead role.

Then arrives the National Grand Opera Company. Later in the season a week of Gilbert and Sullivan promises to be one of the big delights. John Drew with Ethel Barrymore in "Victorian Sardon's celebrated comedy 'A Scrap of Paper,' will be the next. The cast includes beside the distinguished Drew and his niece, the latter of whom we have not seen in years, Mary Boland, Richard Dix, Ernest Gladstone and Charles Dalton.

Music Not Forgotten. "When Dreams Come True" is a musical play follows, and then comes the "In Old Kentucky," without which no season could be held complete. "The Girl in the Dress" is a splendid dramatic production comes next, and then we are to have Arnold Bennett's "Millstones." Nat Goodwin in "Never Say Die" is a comedy built for Willie Collier, is booked for Portland with the current Mrs. Goodwin playing opposite her husband. Professionally she is Marie Perlmutter.

"A Pair of Sixes," written by Edward Pepley who wrote also "Prince Chap" and "The Littlest Rebel," is a delightful farce that will arrive in midseason. "Nearly Married," a comedy, will be followed by Christie MacDonald in a new opera.

Billie Burke-Ziegfeld is to visit us. Whether she will bring "Jerry," her latest play, a comedy by Catherine Chisholm, or whether she will be a Ziegfeld attraction heralds do not say. The lovely Billie was a Frohman star until she suddenly wed Mr. Ziegfeld. Her one-time husband, and this may make some difference in her plans. But in one role or another she will play here.

"Seven Keys to Baldpate," a Cohan and Harris attraction, is billed. So, too, is "The Garden of Allah," a gorgeous spectacular production. Maude Adams will come and, as we know, Mr. Wardell, Miss Adams' play is not announced, although it is thought that she will not bring her latest production, "The Legend of Lenora," a J. I. Wardell play, which was considered not big enough for her when she played it in New York.

Mr. Wardell will bring a revival of "The Auctioneer." When David Belasco decided to revive "The Auctioneer" last year, little did he dream that its reception by present-day theater-goers would be so overwhelming, but after Mr. Wardell had crowded the Belasco Theater, New York, for 12 weeks, and later, when he successfully shattered all dramatic records, and even topped his own previous high-water mark for receipts in Chicago, St. Louis, Detroit, Cincinnati, Pittsburg and other cities along the route, it was decided to give the rest of the country a chance to see this noted artist as the lovely old Hebrew in this Hester-street classic.

Starting at Norfolk, Va., early in October, the route that is now being laid out by Mr. Belasco will take his popular star through the principal cities of the South and on out to the Pacific Coast, where "The Auctioneer" has not been played for more than 12 years, and then at a time when Mr. Wardell's following was in the first stages of its growth.

Practically the same cast that supported Mr. Wardell in this place during the past year has been re-engaged by Mr. Belasco for next season's tour. "Kitty Mackaye," one of the late winter successes, will be shown by Molly McIntyre, whom we saw as the first "Bunty," created the title role in "Kitty Mackaye." David Belasco's son-in-law, William Elliott, Cincinnati, and Catherine Chisholm Cutting wrote it.

Ruth St. Denis, dancer of the East, is one of the season's attractions, and another is Natalie Alt in Adelaide. Return engagements will include "Peg o' My Heart," the Hartley Manners comedy; "The Tenth Muse," in which Charlotte Walker starred; "The Bird of Paradise," and "Everywoman," the beautiful morality play. Besides these there will be additional productions booked as the season advances.

Oregon and Idaho Guardsmen and Vancouver Barracks Regulars Included.

PLAY AND WORK WILL MIX

United States Army Men Will Proceed Militiamen—Comforts of All Branches Carefully Worked Out—Many Recruit.

The biggest military encampment ever held in Oregon will begin at Gearhart July 13 and continue ten days. Official orders for the encampment and a complete programme of the features were issued yesterday by Adjutant General Finzer, of the Oregon National Guard.

There will be about 2000 National Guardsmen from Oregon and Idaho and 500 regulars from the Twenty-first infantry in the camp on the plains north of Gearhart. Every preparation has been made for the mobilizing of the troops and the establishment of a good camp with all possible comforts and conveniences. The programme provides interesting events for each day, the principal features to be maneuvers, drills and military performances of all kinds.

Men Furnished Everything.

The Guardsmen will be furnished with clothing, transportation, blankets, meals and all other necessities free of charge and will be paid for their services. The guard officers will receive the same pay as officers of similar rank in the Regular Army and privates will be paid from $1.25 to $2.50 a day. Inasmuch as the programme is so complete with interesting events and because the encampment offers so exceptional an opportunity for an interesting and inexpensive vacation a large number of recruits is expected to join the Guard before the time for departure. Arrangements have been made for recruiting at the Armory on Tenth street.

The camp will be in command of Colonel J. F. Morrison, of the Regular Army. The troops and camp will be the Third Regiment, Oregon National Guard, the second Idaho Infantry, the Twenty-first Infantry of Regulars from Vancouver Barracks, Troop A Cavalry, of the Oregon National Guard, and a battery of field artillery.

There will also be a number of reviews, inspections, parades and a series of band concerts. Military church services will be held on Sunday.

Tempting Menus Planned.

Arrangements for the meals of the men have been completed and tempting bills of fare are promised. Each company will have two experienced cooks. Officers' messes by regiments. The mess of the Third Regiment, Oregon National Guard, will be in charge of Chaplain Gilbert.

SIMPLER LAW IS URGED

MARION COUNTY REPUBLICANS DRAFT NEW REGISTRATION BILL.

Proposed Legislation Would Reduce Cost of Elections and Minimize Work of Enrolling State's Voters.

SALEM, Or., June 26.—(Special.)—A form of law designed to simplify registration, prepared by a committee appointed by the Republican Club of Marion County, will be submitted to the Republican county central committee, which meets here tomorrow. It is the intention of the club to have the measure introduced in the Legislature at the next session.

The committee was composed of Max Geary, county clerk of Marion County; E. Hofer and James Heltzer, the latter a member of the last Legislature. Mr. Gehlar for more than six years has made a study of registration methods. He believes that the expense can be reduced at least 50 per cent. The members of the committee say that if the law should not be satisfactory for large cities, counties of more than 100,000 inhabitants could have laws passed suitable to their needs. The draft provides for permanent registration.

Fewer judges would be required at the polls and a simplified voting list would accelerate voting at least 50 per cent. Electors would register for any election after the first Monday in January, 1916, and would not have to register again so long as they remain in the same precinct and vote at least one general or primary election or other election held in the county, if an elector moves to another precinct or desires to change from one political party to another, or fails to vote, he may register again by furnishing the necessary information to the County Clerk, Notary Public or Justice of the Peace and by signing an affidavit provided in the law.

BUYERS WEEK IS FIXED

SECOND ANNUAL EXCURSION FOR COUNTRY MERCHANTS ARRANGED.

Luncheons, Dinners, Smokers, Theater Parties and Auto Trips Planned for Entertainment of Guests.

The programme for the second annual "Buyers week," which will be held under the auspices of the Jobbers' and Manufacturers' Association of Portland, was worked out at a meeting of the executive committee of the association held at the Commercial Club yesterday. The dates of the buyers' week will be from Monday, August 10, to Saturday, August 15, inclusive. Headquarters will be open during the week at the Commercial Club, which will lead in the entertainment of the visiting merchants. It is thought that attendance of out-of-town merchants will be more than twice as great as at the first buyers' week last year. Each day the visiting merchants are to be entertained at luncheon at some one of the big manufacturing concerns
