BY ROSCOE FAWCETT. With a road record of seven wins and eight defeats the Portland Pacific Coast champs return home today to open an eight-game series with Venice. Owing to the long jump from Los Angeles the opening setto hardly will commence before 3:30 o'clock. It ought to be a hummer once under headway, however, for Manager McCredie is figuring on using Southpaw Evans, and it is almost a cinch that Hap Hogan will trot out the old fat boy, Roy Hitt.

While Hitt has been almost invincible of late. Samson lost his magic by a simple tonsorial act on his toupee, and, it is not at all improbable that the Beavers will hold some sort of an autopsy continued and hefore it ended Mullaney.

of late. Samson lost his magic by a simple tonsorial act on his toupee, and, it is not at all improbable that the Beavers will hold some sort of an autopsy over Southpaw Hitt late today.

It may take dynamite, but even so, some of our old time sluggers are going great guns again, and that is a most encouraging sign.

Last week Los Angeles outhit us .313 to .235. Look at these figures for the regular outfit, however: Doane .385. Bancroft .345, Lober .333, Kores .320, and Rodgers .308. No complaint against that quintet.

against that quintet.

Buddy Ryan, too, will be back in harness today after 10 days' layoff, and, likely will supplant Bill Speas this week, at least against right handers. Speas always starts late. This year he was particularly unfortunate in being "beaned" by Tom Hughes just when he was commencing to show signs of life and it put him back just that much longer.
Against the Angels last week Speas batted only .160.

Evans, who will work for the Beavers, lost four consecutive starts for Portland before he won a game. The New Orleans southpaw chalked up number one against the Angels and his game gave us the edge, four games to three.

Horoscoping the impending series isn't a joyful procedure from a Portland viewpoint. So far this year the Tigers have combed us in eight out of 13 engagements. Furthermore, as they are coming north on the crest of a long winning streak, it's going to take herculean efforts to stem their assault without considerable loss of men.

The week, however, will give the Beavers a rare opportunity to close the gap between themselvs and the league leaders. We might as well know now. If they again fall it's going to be hard siedding to head the Hoganites.

Hap's slaves are now seven full games to the front of Portland and three and one-half games ahead of the runner-up.

runner-up. W. McCredle, president of the W. W. McCredie, president of the Portland clubs, is getting rather im-patient as concerns his high priced Buf-falo twirler, Larry Pape.

Portland paid $1000 for Pape and then forked over $2000 more in salary before Pape could be forced to report several weeks after the start of the so far Pape has figured in two box scores and has been badly bumped on both occasions. At the rate of $400 a month salary, each bumping has cost the McCredies in all about $550, which is rather costly skidding.

is rather costly skidding.

However, Pape has always been a consistent winner and down the home stretch who knows but what he will be the deciding factor.

Speck Harkness hasn't done much more for Venice and yet Hap Hogen expects great things from Speck later on in the campaigning.

SPOKANE, Wash., June 29 .- (Special.)-Wagner's home-run drive over the left-field fence, his third for the over the same spot, brought victory to Spokane after two were out and no one on in the last half of the ninth today, and ended one of the most exciting games of the season.

Score: Spokane, 6; Portland, 5. An unusual mishap took away some of the thrills of the psychological wallop. Left Fielder Caliahan, who had been spearing everything in his territory all afternoon, dashed madly back for the long drive and crashed full tilt into the fence. His head struck the barrier and he dropped to the ground like he had been struck with a sledge.

Milligan, his teammate, was first to his rescue and a dozen ballplayers and spectators hurried out to the corner of the field, but the boy soon recovered consciousness and was able to walk to a streetcar.

Spokane overcame a 5-to-1 lead by solid hitting, unaided by a fielding miscue. Stanley was driven from the mound by his old teammates before the game was half over. Ariett, who replaced him, pitched fine ball, yielding only four hits and no runs in four and two-thirds innings. He came with runners on second and third and only one out in the fifth and disposed of the next two batters neatly. One of Portland's hits was fluky and Wagner almost speared another, knocking the ball down but being unable to recover it. o a streetcar.

was fluky and Wagner ball down but being unable to recover it.

The Indians kept pecking away at Salveson, one, two and four hits to the inning. With two on, only one out in the eighth, Williams yanked Salveson and submitted Frambach. Two more hits enabled Spokane to tie the sorie and the game was won in the ninth, as above told. Score:

AD WOLGAST BREAKS HIS ARM;

RIVERS MAY FIGHT "SUB" ON JULY 4.

LOS ANGELLES, June 18. Au Weigast broke his arm today, thus halting the Rivers-Weigast match which was to have taken place here on July 4. He will be forced to remain idle two or three months before he can fight aguin. The break was in the radius bone, the larger of the two bones in the forearm. It occurred in the last round of a three-round sparring match with Freddle Andrews at Wolgast's training camp-According to his trainers Wolgast used a right uppercut, the blow landing squarely on Andrews' elbow. Dr. W. A. Preston examined the arm and after an X-ray examination de-clared it was a clean break. It is expected a sub will be named tomorrow to enter the ring against Joe

Rivers on Saturday.
