

3 PARTIES IN IDAHO ADOPT PROHIBITION

Wets Make Last Stand Before Resolutions Committee, Being Completely Routed.

SOCIALISTS PASS UP ISSUE

Republican and Democratic Platforms Declare for Elimination of Commissions, Progressives Attack Railroads.

BOISE, Idaho, July 1.—(Special).—The anti-liquor forces declared victorious in all three of the state conventions in session here today completely routing the wets. They adopted the strongest kind of planks declaring for constitutional and state-wide prohibition through legislative enactment. The saloon supporters were given the most crushing blow in the history of Idaho politics.

The wets made their last stand before the resolutions committee of the Republican convention and being defeated, practically made no fight on the convention floor. In the Democratic convention they fought hard to block the adoption of a plank declaring prohibition forever prohibiting the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquor in Idaho, but lost. They practically made no opposition in the Progressive convention. The Socialists overlooked the liquor issue and do not refer to it in their platform.

All of the conventions completed their labors today. After jockeying for time in order that no advantage could be secured in the consideration of the platforms, all except the Progressive party lifted the lid from the executive sessions today allowing the public and the press to hear the deliberations of the committees that developed over the planks. The platforms were sealed and filed with the Secretary of State following their adoption.

In brief the Democratic platform calls for constitutional prohibition, the abolition of the State Immigration Commissioner's office, State Board of Public Instruction, Commissioner of Education and the State Insurance Commissioner; radical amendments to the automobile law which each county gets 10 per cent of the tax on automobiles and the state spend the balance on public roads; favor a woman's minimum wage schedule; the sale of public lands in larger quantities; advocates the repeal of the public utilities act, abolishing the commission; recommends the passage of workmen's compensation act; opposes increasing the membership of the Supreme Court.

The Republican convention closed over the adoption of a plank commending the workmen's compensation commission for its platform and the adoption of a plank criticizing the handling of Carey act projects.

Borah is Commended.
The platform contains the following plank: Ratifies changes in the rules of the National Committee and commends the activities of Senator Borah to bring this about; favors rural league system; indorses state administration; recommends amendments to the highway law; pledges for consolidation of state institutions; opposes creation of any new commissions; declares for an increase in the sale of state lands; indorses compensation act for workmen; favors repeal of convenience and necessity clause in the public utilities act; indorses extension of payments on reclamation lands; declares for initiative, referendum and recall legislation; indorses National prohibition, state prohibition by constitutional amendment in the event the Republicans have a two-thirds majority in the Legislature, and if not state-wide prohibition by law.

The Progressive platform was adopted without conflict. It declares for prohibition in both forms; indorses the Public Utilities Commission, condemns the administration of Carey act projects; attacks the railroads for interference in politics and alleged unsatisfactory service; indorses the initiative, referendum and recall; declares for a conserved Legislature.

SALEM, Or., July 1.—(Special).—Completed petitions for an initiative measure providing for the consolidation of the office of State Corporation Commissioner with that of State Insurance Commissioner, for a bill providing for the abolition of capital punishment, for a measure regulating the practice of dentistry and a constitutional amendment providing for a sur tax were filed with Secretary of State Oloott today.

The measure abolishing the office of Corporation Commissioner further provides that the Insurance Commissioner shall, in addition to attending to the duties of what are now two departments, be the fire marshal of the state.

Ralph Watson, Corporation Commissioner, has announced that he will do all he can to defeat the measure. Ernest Kroner and others initiated the bill.

The measure abolishing capital punishment was filed by Paul Turner, of Portland, and that regulating dentists by John T. Cochran, of Portland. "Painless" Eaker is responsible for the dentistry bill, which abolishes the State Dental Examining Board and provides that graduates of reputable schools and persons having licenses to practice dentistry in other states may practice in Oregon.

Another measure for which completed petitions have been filed reduces the salaries of county officials of Hood River County.

compensation law, passed at the last session of the Legislature, became operative today. The first employer's contribution received was a check for $245 from the Bandon Water Company. The company wrote that it desired to be subject to the provisions of the law for one month, and that the city would take over the water plant August 1.

Benjamin Ling, Salem representative of the Western Union Telegraph Company and the American District Telegraph Company, made application for those companies to come under the law. Arrangements were completed for the Tumalo Irrigation project and the City of McMinnville to become subject to the act. Secretary Garnett announced that no reports of accidents in hazardous industries had been made to the Commission today, and that the first reports of injuries to workmen probably would be received Friday.

Declaring that the action would constitute an agreement to indemnify employers against unlawful acts, State Insurance Commissioner Ferguson today notified McCarger, Bates & Lively, of Portland, that he would penalize companies writing policies for the protection of employers against damages for injuries to workmen in cases where the accidents were caused by deliberate intention.

Section 22 of the workmen's compensation act provides that if injury or death results to a workman from deliberate intention of his employer, his dependents may come under the act and also sue for damages. McCarger, Bates & Lively are said to be offering insurance covering such claims. In his

CASH GONE; GOODS TAKEN

Robbers at Buckley, Wash., Succeed on Second Raid; Suspect Held.

TACOMA, Wash., July 1.—(Special).—Burglars tunneled their way Sunday night through a brick wall only to find the cash register of the Shaw department store at Buckley open and empty. They returned Monday night, broke through the same hole, which had been temporarily repaired, loaded a wagon with $1000 worth of merchandise, jewelry and valuable papers and escaped. This morning a man who looked like a lumber pack, walked into the Citizens Bank at Buckley, stepped to the counter and indorsed and presented a check for $708, part of the booty taken from the Shaw store. The cashier called Town Marshal Slattery. The man was arrested and the Marshal said he confessed to a share in the robbery.
