

to Evans things were no longer so easy for the organ-grinders. True, Evans allowed Venice two more, in the sev-enth and eighth, but they were not the enth and eighth, but they were not the result of a disastrous pace. The first inning runs were made by Carlisle, Kane and Litschi. Carlisle placed on a walk, went to third on Kane's hit and was brought in by the hit part of the Litschi melee. Kane followed around and went past third when Ryan's throw to third went awry, and Litschi followed him up, getting in when West made the hurried and bad throw to Fisher.

McArdle was responsible for the two runs in the seventh and eighth. His first double was made into adamain by Carliale's hit. In the next he brought in Litachi with one just like it. Portland's other runs came about through hits. Speas, Lober and Fisher brought in the one in the fourth, and a walk resulted in Fisher scoring in the third. A good ladles' day crowd was out.
