Thompson was arrested on two warrants, one charging obtaining money under false pretenses, and the other charging larceny. The first was sworn to by Frank Zumwalt, of Newberg, who alleges that on May 27 he shipped four cases of eggs to R. L. Baker & Co. and did not receive any returns. The second complaint is signed by George Martin, of Tualatin, who says that on June 30 he sent two dressed hogs to the same concern in Portland and never was paid for them.
