Yesterday's Results. nd—Fortland 1, Venice 0. Francisco — Sacramento 11, San At Los Angeles - Los Angeles S, Oak-nd 2.

It was a beautiful game to see. Portland won the third game of the series yesterday afternoon on the local field, when Harry Krause held Ventce to four hits. The score was Portland 1, Venice 0.

The interesting periods were when Harry Krause pulled himself out of the holes, hand over hand.

It looked for a brief moment as ff Venice might have a chance to win or tie the score in the ninth, when Krause walked Hosp, batting for Elliott Meloan ran for Hosp and was disposed of when White forced him at second, but Harry put another on first with a walk, That, with only one down, gave Port-land another real thrill.

Everybody Is Aroused.

Everybody Is Aroused.

Leard made a vicious liner of one of Krause's offerings and everybody got up. The ball just salled, fairly high, but pretty fast and Speas had to make time. But he got it. That left one more chance for a thrill and it was disposed of when Kane was put out at first.

But in the majority of the innings Krause had the Venetians doing his bidding. In the first he fanned a couple of them. Seven more, scattered through the several innings, hit nothing but he several innings, hit nothing but Then just to make things more interresting, he also walked six men and hit kane. Possibly those things, combined, help to make Harry the popular boy that he is, for like a trip in the "figure eight," you get the thrills, yet are pretty sure of getting out all right.

RECORD UPSTEAM

Pastest Performance of Kind Ever Recorded in America Made by Craft Owned by Canton Man in Mississippi Races.

PEORIA, III., July 5 .- All American speedboat records fell today, the sec ond day of the regatta of the Mississippi Valley Association, when Kitty Hawk VI, owned by H. H. Timken, of Canton, Ohio, covered a down-stream mile in 1:06, or at a speed of 54.54 miles an hour. The previous record for a down-stream run was held by Baby Reliance III, driven by James aging 52.9 miles an hour, round trip, the fastest performance of the kind over recorded in America.

J. Ryan, of Cincinnati, at Davenport. Iowa, two years ago, when he covered the distance at a 53.7 gait.

The Kitty Hawk then ran an upstream and a down-stream mile, averaging 52.9 miles an hour, round trip, the kind.

The first heat of the class event brought out nine starters. In scoring down, just as the gun was fired for a start, A. J. No. 2, owned and driven by N. J. Kenny, of Peoria, was caught in the swirl behind Spot and Warren Groat and capsized. The drivers were rescued and the boat raised later. Spot. Groat and capsined. The diverse were rescued and the boat raised later. Spot. owned by Thomas J. Tracy, of New York City, took a long lead in this ruce, forced for the first three laps by Warren Groat, owned by W. T. Warren. of Chicago, to a pace which figured 38.4 miles an hour. Securing a com-fortable lead, however, his speed was Wolff, Defeated on Fluke, Says He Can Win.

Owner of Speedbear Which Lost to Oregon Kid II Avers He Would Triumph in Race to 'inlah. BY ROSCOE FAWCETT. STORIA, Or., July 1,- (Special.)-A Daredevil John Wolff's speedbost lost the Coast free-for-all championship today by a fluke, but the Portland whard declares his 25-foot Oregon Wolf IV can turn 48 miles au hour and that she can defeat the Oregon Kid II any time they finish. "A blinding sunset completely oblit-crated one of the buoys opposite the flagship," said Engineer Wolff tonight, explaining the second visitation of the

"We could not see it and so ran by twice without turning it correctly.

"However, the Wolf was far ahead of the Kid, and my honest belief is that my boat can run away from the Kid any old time." "Do you think the Wolf is as fast as your former designs?" the writer asked "You bet," he shot back, wiping the "You bet." he shot back, wiping the grime off his weather-heaten features. "This boat can turn 48 miles any time I let her out. I think the Wolf IV could trim the Kid I, and it is my opinion that the Kid II is not as fast as the first Ramies hydrollans." first Rainler hydroplane."

Wolff attributed the slow time in the first heat Thursday to a combination of nasty water and a watchful waiting "I did not open her up until the fifth lap, content to be in the lead, but when I did throw everything open we began to literally run away from Bmith's entry."

Wolff lost this heat through the breaking of a feed pipe at the 25d mile. SCORE TO FIGHT FOR SC5,100
