The Oregonian's Home-Industry Campaign

Buy at home—Help to develop Oregon by keeping your money at home. To this end, The Oregonian has inaugurated this Home Industry campaign and offers

Six Cash Prizes Each Month for Labels

collected from the articles advertised on this page. Because a number of people have turned in great quantities of Home Industry labels of one kind, it has been decided advisable to change slightly the method of counting—so VARIETY OF LABELS WILL COUNT AS 50 PER CENT.

First Prize $10 in Gold
Second Prize $5 in Gold

Third Prize $2 in Silver
Three Prizes $1 Each

All labels must be in The Oregonian Office by 6 P. M. on the last Friday of each month.

POLK ROADS ARE OILED

DALLAS AND INDEPENDENCE COMMERCIAL CLUBS AID COUNTY.

Stretches of 18 Miles Treated and Way to Salem Is in Good Condition Entire Distance.

INDEPENDENCE, Or., July 5.—(Special.)—Oiling of all the main roads of Polk County was completed last week. The road oiling began when the two and one-half-mile stretch between here and Monmouth was oiled last year. Realizing the value of this work, the County Court offered to put up dollar for dollar with any club, individual or community to oil the roads of this county. The Dallas Commercial Club took up the proposal and raised money to oil six miles east on the Salem road. This city then oiled six miles north to the point where the road meets the Salem-Dallas road. A committee composed of W. V. Fuller and A. Muir, of the Dallas Commercial Club, and President Macy, secretary Cooper and E. M. Young, of the Independence Club, met a committee from the Salem Club and made arrangements to oil the remaining six miles to Salem. Since that time the main roads out of Dallas and Falls City have been oiled, the roads from Monmouth north and south, leading to this city, and three miles south of this city have all been oiled. The oil makes them as level as a water-bound macadam. The roads will probably be oiled until the county hard-surfaces the roads.

STRAWBERRIES SELL WELL

Klickitat Growers Receive $50,000 for Crop, One Car Bringing $1921. GOLDENDALE, Wash. July 5.—(Special.)—Klickitat strawberry growers have had a most successful season. Growers in the White Salmon district have received upwards of $50,000 for their crop and claim the Northwest record for proceeds from a single carload of the fruit when brought $1921. Strawberry growers in the vicinity of Goldendale found a ready market locally for all of their fruit at $1.50 a crate.

HOPMEN PLAN MEETING

CAMPAIGN AGAINST "DRY" STATE CONTINUED AT ST. PAUL.

Great Value of Hop Industry to State Will Be Outlined by Association President. Prohibition Penalty Discussed. SALEM, Or., July 5.—(Special.)—The hop dealers of the state are arranging for a big meeting in St. Paul Saturday, when defensive plans in the crusade for state-wide prohibition will be outlined. At numerous well-attended meetings the growers have pointed out that prohibition would put an end to an industry that yields about $6,000,000 annually to the people. "Will the voting of Oregon 'dry' tend to increase business stability when an industry employing 50,000 people annually and bringing a revenue of $6,000,000 into Oregon is automatically swept into the discard?" will be the subject of an address by A. J. Ray, president of the Hopgrowers and Dealers' Association. Other speakers will analyze statements made by speakers for prohibition and attempt to show that the state cannot afford to destroy one of its greatest industries.

Speaking today of a report that even if the amendment to make the state "dry" should be passed, it would not be effective because it provides no penalty for violations, W. M. Trindle, one of the leaders in the prohibition movement, said: "If the amendment is passed it will be the duty of the Legislature to see that it is enforced and to provide a penalty for its violation. If the 'wets' should have a majority in the Legislature they might refuse to back up the amendment, and it would then be necessary to provide for its enforcement with an initiative measure. However, even should the Legislature be 'wet' I believe it would have sufficient respect for the will of the people to pass an act providing a penalty."

Chautauqua in 1915 Assured. SALEM, Or., July 5.—(Special.)—At the close of the Chautauqua meeting last night President Epley announced that a sufficient number of season tickets had been sold to guarantee a meeting next year. He also announced he was certain it would be permanent.

THEATER BURNS ON FOURTH

$10,000 Fire at South Bend Originates in Operating Room.

SOUTH BEND, Wash., July 5.—(Special.)—This city was visited by a fire that will entail a loss of $10,000. During the height of the celebration here yesterday afternoon fire caught in the operating room of the Dime Theater and quickly swept to the upper floor occupied by the Hotel Cassels annex. George Reizner, proprietor of the theater, lost $3900. Foster & McIntosh, owners of the building, estimate their loss at $5000. Other individual losses will reach $1000. Roy Green, operator of the moving-picture machine, had his hands and arms badly burned. Neither the owners of the building nor the tenants carried any insurance.

Burglar Is Sentenced. GOLDENDALE, Wash., July 5.—(Special.)—Leon W. Kelley pleaded guilty to a grand larceny charge in the Superior Court yesterday, and was sentenced by Judge Darch to an indeterminate sentence of from one to 15 years in the State Reformatory at Monroe, Wash. Kelley was caught in the act of looting the section-house on the North Bank road at Carley station in May and was shot in the back by the section foreman while attempting to escape. The bullet passed clear through his body, and it was thought at the time that he would die. Kelley is 26 years old.

Lewis River Unusually Low. WOODLAND, Wash., July 5.—(Special.)—The Lewis River at this point stands only 3 1/2 feet on the gauge, and is the lowest at this time of year that has ever been known. None of the bottom dairymen have had to move out this year on account of high water. On account of the lack of water there has not been the usual run of salmon. The fishing in Lake Merrill has been the best this season that has been known for several years.

Now Tommy Grigg was wanting A brand new linen suit. He wanted white, his ma said "No" Which led to this dispute.

Why, Tommy, think—The washing! "Why Ma, where have you been? Just call the Palace Laundry!" His mother then gave in.
