

MODJESKIS PREPARE CROSS ALLEGATIONS

Echo of Divorce Case Filed
Here Is Heard From Cook
County, Illinois, Court.

$5000 IS ASKED BY WIFE

Hearing in East Is Today—Husband, in Depositions Received Here
Yesterday, Denies in Toto.
Hard Battle Predicted.

The depositions of Ralph Modjeski and his wife, Mrs. Felice Modjeski, whom Mr. Modjeski is suing for divorce, were filed in the District Court here yesterday, to relate the marital record of the Modjeskis in much detail. The case will be one of the hardest ever contested in Multnomah County, according to local legal opinion.

The side issues of the case now are being fought out in the Cook County, Ill., courts. Mrs. Modjeski having returned to Chicago, Elmer E. Smith and Mr. Modjeski having gone there to meet her. According to the original document, filed at Chicago, a copy of which was received in Portland yesterday, Mrs. Modjeski asks the Cook County courts to all the $6000 suit money from her husband, so that she may put it in proper trust.

Mr. Modjeski further asserts that Mr. Modjeski sent a messenger to Europe, after she presumably had left for good, and offered, through the messenger, to pay her $50,000 if she would not contest the divorce proceedings.

She was about to bring this, she says, she refused and later another messenger brought her an offer of $30,000.

Mr. Modjeski makes emphatic denial of each charge made by his wife.

He branded the assertion that she sent her any money for "settlement" as wholly false and untrue. He alleges that his wife frequently told their children that he was of illegitimate birth and that he had embezzled trust funds belonging to them.

Mr. Modjeski further alleges that his wife took seven trips to Europe, her native land, since their marriage in New York City, December 28, 1888, remaining away several months at a time.

He said she frequently had declared a hatred of the United States and people, and had failed to return to her husband. Modjeski stated that he clashed with his wife on the subject of the children's education at various times; that she wanted to educate the children in Europe, while he wanted them educated in American schools.

Mrs. Modjeski's petition for $5000 suit money is set for hearing at Chancery today.

HIGHWAY WORK HELD UP

Columbia Link Delayed by Fight Between Partners in Firm.

Completion of the Columbia County link in the Columbia River highway from Hood River to the Coast is being delayed, writes T. K. Gekas, John Marandas and Thomas Dooney, partners under the firm name of the Gekas & Marandas Contracting Company, are in litigation among themselves.

Gekas & Marandas contracted to do the grading on the highway for the Consolidated Construction Company of Portland. A disagreement between the two grew, and Marandas, assisted by Dooney, took possession of the company, its contract, tools, books and laborers, forcibly leaving Gekas "out in the cold," according to the latter.

Gekas filed suit yesterday in the Circuit Court to have the partnership dissolved and to force an accounting.

MASTODON TOOTH DISCOVERED DEEP IN CEMENT GRAVEL
E. C. Hanson, of Scholls, Washington County, found a mastodon tooth on June 21, about one mile above Butteville, on the bank of the Willamette River, imbedded in cement gravel 30 feet below the general level of the surrounding country. The tooth is one and one-half inches by nine and one-half inches by three and one-half inches. It weighed three and one-half pounds and is in good state of preservation. The tooth may be seen at the rooms of the Oregon Historical Society, 207 Second street, just south of Taylor.

GERLINGER GETS $2500

ALIENATION CHARGES CLOSED BEFORE $200,000 SUIT IS HEARD.

Lloyd Frank Agrees to Negotiations Because of Other Names Said Be Involved in Action.

The $200,000 suit of E. E. Gerlinger against Lloyd Frank was settled for an amount said to have been $2500 just before the case came to trial before Judge McGinn yesterday morning.

Negotiations for the settlement were carried on between Charles W. Fulton, representing Mr. Gerlinger, and Bert E. Haney, representing Mr. Frank. They took place in the office of John M. Gearin, also of Mr. Frank's counsel.

At 8:30 o'clock the agreement was reached to settle the case out of court. The $200,000 suit of the settlement, according to Mr. Frank's attorney, was paid in cash.

Mr. Gerlinger is the divorced husband of Gertrude Gerlinger, who sued Mr. Frank recently for alleged breach of promise. After a sensational trial she was awarded $1,000 a month.

Mr. Gerlinger's suit was on the verge of a settlement of his wife's affection. Attorneys for the defense had 27 witnesses subpoenaed and depositions from 17 others. They were prepared to trace the life history of Mr. Gerlinger and of Mrs. Gerlinger from 1904 to the present time.

Other persons, some prominent, are said to have been involved, also. In fact, this is the reason given by Mr. Frank's attorneys for their willingness to settle.

FRUIT AGENCY ORGANIZED

Realty Company Formed With Capital of $20,000.

Articles of incorporation for the first branch member of the newly-organized Western Oregon Fruit Distributors' Association were filed yesterday in County Clerk Coffey's office for the Western Oregon Fruit Distributors' Association.

The Incorporators, J. O. Holt, S. I. Pratt, G. F. Fargo, H. E. Cross, H. Franklin, Charles A. Brundage and L. T. Rennick, were members of the board of directors of the parent organization, the Western Oregon Fruit Distributors' Association. The Western association is capitalized at $500. The Western Oregon Gas Company has adopted a ruling to the effect that only local organizations will be admitted to membership.

Parker, Richards & Fountaine, of North Yakima, Wash., filed the articles.

Articles were filed yesterday for the Irvington Real Estate Company, capitalized at $100,000. Hawley E. Gardner, Alfred C. Olson and John Van Zandt.

Supplementary articles were filed to change the name of the Hester Store Front Manufacturing Company to the Van Waters-Cook Manufacturing Company, and the W. C. Noon Bag Company to the Noon Bag Company.

The Electrolytic Gas Company has been conducting a quiet probe since last December.

Prosecution will follow whenever private sharks have violated the law.

A money lender and loan shark has been obtained. A money lender in one case found had charged 45 per cent interest. The grand jury will act probably next week on several cases where the evidence is reported to be strong against a loan shark.
