WASHINGTON, July 7 .- After Paul M. Warburg had requested the President today to withdraw his nomination as a member of the Federal Reserve Board, the President made a strong in the collision. effort to induce Mr. Warburg to reconsider. It was reported tonight in circles close to the White House that Mr. Warburg was wavering and that there was a possiblifty of his changing his mind.

In the course of the afternoon Mr Warburg and the President's secretary, Mr. Tumulty, talked over the telephone, and Mr. Warburg then expressed his determination not to take the place. Later President Wilson telegraphed, urging him strongly to reconsider his

Promise of Confirmation Given.

Despite opposition to Mr. Warburg in the Senate, friends of the President have assured him that the New York banker's nomination can be confirmed. The President himself is said to believe that he will have a hard time finding another man as familiar with foreign banking conditions who will accept the Members of the Senate banking committee were inclined today to consider that Mr. Warburg had finally eliminated himself by his telegram to Chairman Hitchcock declining to appear and submit to questioning by the committee In this message, made public soon after the announcement from the White House of the request for the withdrawal of the nomination, Mr. Warburg said he felt the action of the committee in holding up his appointment and one today a pair of life preservers profether while three were confirmed fered by Lieutenant Samuel Preston, Today Gurdit Singh. the wealthy act of Congress. Mr. Miller submit would impair his usefulness as a memher of the Reserve Board.

Objection Made to Being Singled Out Mr. Warburg's telegram to Senator

"I acknowledge receipt of your telegram of yesterday inviting me to appear before your committee. I cannot comply with this request, because, feeling that action of the committee last Thursday in withholding action regarding my name, while favorably reporting the names of three of the nominees, created a situation which might impair my usefulness as a member of the Federal Reserve Board. I wrote the President on Friday respectfully requesting the withdrawal of my nomi-

"Furthermore, while I should have been glad to appear before your committee if it had deemed a conference with all the nominees necessary to guide its action, I feel that I should not do so after one other nominee and myself had been singled out for examination, inasmuch as my willingness to serve on the Federal Reserve Board was based on the hope that the Senate would appreciate my motives in accepting the office and would unreservedly extend to me that full support and confidence which should be enjoyed by all the members of the Board if it is to effectively fulfill its mission."

It was said at the Capitol that if the nomination were not withdrawn the committee in all probability would insist on the appearance of the banker for examination concerning his business affairs and those of his firm, Kuhn, Loeb & Co.

BOY DIES WITH BROTHER

Youth, 17, Drowns in Vain Effort to Save Lad of 12.

TACOMA, Wash., July 7 .- (Special.)-John M. Clintoch, 17 years old, drowned, with his 12-year-old brother, George, late last night in Henderson Bay after a vain effort to rescue the boy. The accident occurred near Burley, 16 miles from Tacoma. A large crowd saw the tragedy but could give no aid.

The McClintoch boys and Jessie and Melvin Morgan, 17 and 16 years old, were out in a gasoline launch when the tank exploded. The boat was set on fire and all forced to jump into the water. The Morgan brothers swam to shore. The bodies of the McClintoch boys were recovered.

CLIFFORD BASSETT LOSES LIFE NEAR MORRISON BRIDGE.

Sarah Moran Swims to Safety on Raft After Rowing Craft Is Spun Over and Over.

Caught between the steamer Georgie S. Burton and a tow of logs, a rowboat in which Clifford Bassett and Miss Sarah Moran were riding capsized about 9:30 o'clock last night between the Morrison and Hawthorne-street bridges and Mr. Bassett was drowned Miss Moran escaped by diving away from the logs and swimming back, later climbing aboard the raft, from which she was rescued 10 or 15 minutes later by Captain Charles Amos, of the Standard boathouse. Mr. Bassett, who was unable to swim, was dragged be neath the log tow almost instantly and Miss Moran's efforts to reach him were futile. His body had not been recov ered at an early hour this morning.

Mr. Bassett was 29 years old and for six weeks had lived at the Venable Hotel. He was salesmanager for the National Hospital Association. Miss Moran is 19 years old and is employed in the business office of The Oregonian. Miss Moran lives at 856 Haight street. According to Miss Moran Mr. Bassett had started across the river for the Kellogg boathouse and did not see the log tow or any lights. Miss Moran insisted that the raft carried no lights. The boat was turned over and over

Miss Moran attributes her escape to the fact that she could swim. Today the logs of the raft under which the body of Bassett went will be They have been here over a month, and separated by the boom men in hopes of finding the body.
