

SMART dinner party, a dance for the younger set, the announce- MATRON WHO WILL ENTERTAIN TODAY AND CHARMING GIRL WHOSE ENGAGEMENT IS ANNOUNCED.

ment of two engagements, two pretty weddings and an informal teathese were some of the festivities that made yesterday socially interesting. Mrs. Martin Gay Lombard was the dinner hostess, and her honored guests were Joseph Redding and Captain A. Baker, of San Francisco. This morning Mr. Lombard, with the Callfornians will leave on a motor trip to San Francisco. They will go to attend the Bohemian Club jinks, which will be the Bohemian Club jinks, which will be held in the famed Bohemian Grove. In musical circles, in society, in club-dom, Joseph Redding is immensely pop-ular in San Francisco. He has writ-ten music for the jinks, and will take an active part in the production that will be offered for the diversion of the interaction Baker is a man of will be offered for the diversion of the clubmen. Captain Baker is a man of brilliant attainments, and so the short visit of these two men among Port-Iand society folk has been an occasion of interest. Dinners at the Country Club and numerous outings have marked their stay. Mr. Lombard will be Mr. Redding's guest in his camp in Recheming Grove.

be Mr. Redding's guest in his camp in Bohemian Grove. Miss Dorothy Ramsdell's tea yester-day was made the occasion for the an-nouncement of the engagement of her honored guest, Miss Kina McKelvey, to Dr. Thomas Walter Ross. The H. D. Ramsdell residence was decorated ar-tistically, and a number of the younger set called and showered the bride-clast with good wishes set called and showered the bride-elect with good wishes. The engagement of Miss Marie Mc-Dougall to Casimir Campbell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel F. Campbell, of this city, was announced to a small circle of friends, at a tea given yes-terday afternoon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander D. Mc-Dougail. The wedding will take place on September 2.

The home of Mrs. Henry Russell Al-bee will be the scene of a delightful musical and tea this afternoon. The affair is planned for the benefit of the Laurelhurst Clubhouse fund. All of the women of the Laurelhurst district are taking an active interest in the success of the afternoon. Begin-ning at 2:30 o'clock an excellent proning at 2:30 o'clock an excellent pro-gramme will be given. Among the artists who will contribute numbers will be Miss Elizabeth Eugenia Wood-bury, George Hotchkiss Street, Walde-mar Lind and Mrs. Ione T. Wells Mrs. J. O. Humphrey has charge of the pro-gramme. Among those who will assist in receiving will be Mrs. L. H. Max-well, Mrs. J. C. English, Mrs. E. H. Anthony, Mrs. H. F. McCutchan, Mrs. Robert McBride. All friends of the Laureihurst women will be welcomed.

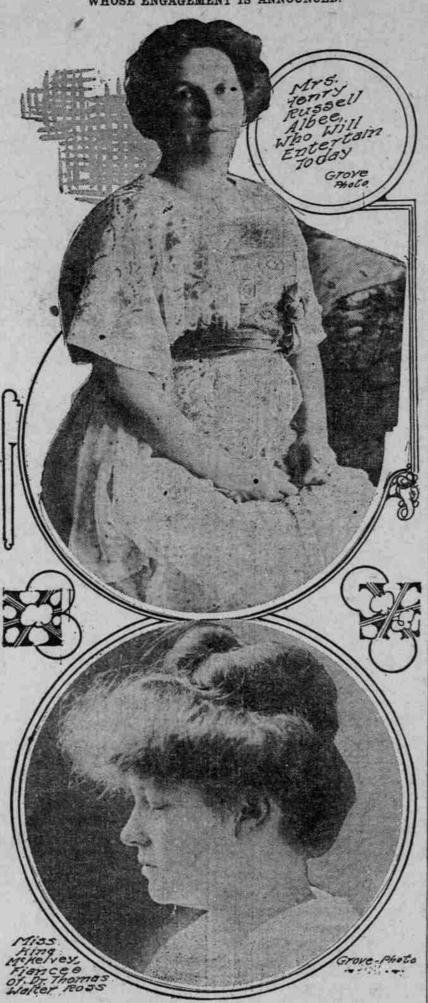

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Cook, accom-panled by Mr. and Mrs. E. Christensen, will leave today for a ten days' motor trip. They will visit the beaches and principal points of interest. . .

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Biles and Mr. and Mrs. F. Ewing Martin, of Colum-bus, O., have returned from a visit at Cloud Cap Inn, where they passed several days. . . .

Mrs. Moulton, Miss Dorothy Moulton and Miss Clea Nickerson left yesterday for an outing in the country near The Dalles. . . .

Mrs. George H. Hill, her daughter. Mrs. Beatrice Gadsby, and Jack Gads-by returned home yesterday after sev-eral weeks at Eugene and the McKenzie River. . . .

Mrs. Alice L. Harder and her two children, Helen and John, are visiting Mrs. A. B. Croasman. They have come to be with Miss Lillian Croasman, Mrs.

baby. No one likes to visit in the home of friends who have a new baby without taking a present of some sort to that all-important person. And by the time everyone has given Sir Baby some trifle, he is likely to have enough duplicates to start a miniature departduplicates to start a miniature depart-ment store. One of the conceits for a baby who is old enough to hold a spoon and feed himself is a food pusher, which comes in a set with a spoon. It is a silver piece with a handle like a spoon or fork, but having in place of a bowl a silver bar several inches long with which the small person pushes food on to his spoon. It teaches him not to use his fingers and enables him to keep his food within the limits of the plate instead of decorating the table linen with it.

with it. A novel bottle holder for the baby who likes to toss his bottle to the floor, when he has finished with it is a de-light to mothers. It is a metal frame which can be attached to the arm of a high chair or carriage, and from which hangs a sort of cage-like case for the bottle. This holder swings in any di-rection, and when the bottle is fast-ened in, baby can drink to his heart's content, and, try as he may, he cannot throw it away. with it.

content, and, try as he may, he cannot throw it away. Silver cups are given to children for christening gifts, as well as small-sized loving cups appropriately en-graved. Mugs of a heavy English dec-orated china make useful presents for bables of 2 and 3 years. Ivory sets, consisting of comb, brush, powder box and puff, soap box, rattle and teething ring are arranged in silk-powder box and puff, soap box, rattle and teething ring are arranged in silk-lined baskets. • There are, of course, no end of bootees and toys, silver rattles and silver chimes, rubber animals and house balls which can be selected for little ones, but nowadays it is the custom to give a baby some remembrance which can be engraved and kept until he is old enough to know he had friends when he was a small morsel of humanity.-he was a small morsel of humanity.--Copyright, 1914, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.

Divorced Life Helen Hessong Fuessle.

(Copyright-The Adams Newspaper Service.

The Folly of Marriage. BARKER lighted a cigar and list-ened with interest to Marlan's sprightly discussion of men's folly of marriage. They were seated in a sequestered corner of the restaurant in Chinatown, next to a window which afforded a view of the night scene on the busy, polyglot street below. "You have a very differen point of view than that of most women," said Barker. "Women don't often regard men as the sufferers in marriage. They usually regard men as the brutes and women as the martyrs. You in-terest me."

and women as the martyrs. You in-terest me." "Why shouldn't the truth be inter-esting?" demanded Marian. "The wave of feminism which is sweeping the world is helping women to see the "What to do with the caller who will ruth." DARBARA DOYD. People Who Will Neither Go Nor Stay. I T IS a problem isn't it to know just what to do with the caller who will any strong medicine without first as-certaining what effect, if any, it would have upon the heart. Will you kindly tall me whether I may take this prep-aration of iodine for golter without danger of affecting the heart unfavtruth.

Barker. "Romance simply clouds the vision and makes us see things in fantastic, unreal proportions," replied Marian wickedly. "It is a drug dispensed by poets for the purpose of ensnaring the

the man.

Bill's gone. Mrs. Bill's gone, too. They left on yesterday's North Coast Limited for Seattle, to get ready for the big Potlatch affair there next week, and it's a safe bet that Bill Spivens will manage to let everyone in Seattle know about the merits of the Irresisto with the 16 free dance selections and the free dance instruction and the other accessories free, all for $5 a month at the big Eilers Music House at Third and University.

years. It is a condition that has re-mained unchanged, so far as I can judge, for 12 years, and I now believe

"Chinatown is getting noisy. Shall we go?" (Tomorrow-On the Bowery.) (Tomorrow-On the Bowery.) SNAPSHOTS that the physician who made the exam-ination at that time over-estimated its seriousness. Yet I am unwilling to take BARBARA BOYD

"Yes, but isn't all this feminism af-fixing a shipping-tag to romance and rushing it to parts unknown?" asked Barker. "Romance simply clouds the vision and makes us see things in fantastic, unreal proportions," replied Marian wickedly. "It is a drug dispensed by poets for the purpose of ensnaring the unreal proportions," replied Marian.

"No uspeak with the wisdom of one who has entirely escaped the snarer prodded the Bostonian.
"No, I have fortunately been able to extricate myself from the snare. It's a wonderful thing to be known to claimed the other.
"An yet you're just a girl." excitable due to the the other.
"And yet you're just a girl." excitable due to the start of the snares. The addition of the start of the snare of the snares. The snare sit is snort-live to solve the snares.
"No. I have never taken advice of the the snares. It's more satisfactory to look back upon that sort of thing than to look for ward to going through with it."
"An dret you're just a girl." excitable due to the snares. Tt's a wonderful thing to be fin love," said the man with fires smolder.
"T don't know. I fancy that love is a sraid, is usually found in marriage."
"T should hate to think that," arguet the man.
"T don't know it." said
"T don't think it: I know it." said
"T don't think it: I know it." said stolidly announces the hour of our ap-pointment, or hubby calls wrathfully 2. More than 90 per cent of deafner "I don't think it; I know it," said 2. More than 90 per cent of deafness

Boyden Shoes Hanan Shoes Grand Special Sale

In order to close out our Men's, Women's and Children's Low-Cut Shoes, Colonials and Pumps, we will sell them at a reduction of 10% On top of this we give

double S. & H. Green

Trading Stamps with each cash purchase on these

Harder's sister, during her visit in Portland, Miss Croasman will arrive tomorrow . . .

Mrs. Cullers and Miss Letta Cullers, of Pittsburg, are visiting W. H. Cull-ers, of East Twenty-second street

Miss Edith Fears, of Boston, is the guest of her brother, George Fears, of North Twenty-second street.

. . .

Th Miss Floye and Dae Clodfelter, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Clod-felter, of Wasco, Or., recently passed a few days as guests of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Eastman at the Upshur Apartments, en route to their home from college at Monmouth. Miss Dae is a talented violinist, and both girls have been popular during the Winter. having taken prominent parts in all the college theatricals and entertain-

At a pretty home ceremony last night, Miss Lillian B. Woodson be-came the bride of Leslie E. Thatcher. The service was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Bondurant, the Rev. J. H. Boyd officiating.

The only attendant was pretty little Margaret Pauline Bondurant, a cousin of the bride. The rooms were deco-Social Union will be an afternoon ses-Tated lavishly with roses and ferns. The ceremony was performed beneath a canopy of smilax and white roses. In the living-room pink and green sion only, held at the Oaks, and closing with a picnic supper in the evening with the husbands of the members as guests. prevailed, white and green were used in decorating the bride's table and dining-room. Ices were served in the in decorating the bride's table and dining-room. Ices were served in the den, Miss Elizabeth Stanley and Miss Julie Murphy presiding. Miss Bonnie Blanche Forrest was stationed at the punchbowl. Miss Evelyn Condon re-tational and Miss ived in the hall and Miss Hazel Cole Edward Cantwell, of Washington, D. ceived in the hall and Miss Hazel Cole Edward Cantwell, of Washington, D. and Miss Anabel Wells assisted. The girls were all gowned in white. The bride was lovely in her going-away suit, an imported model of blue cloth. Not be afternoon. Mr. Cantwell is National secretary of the Lettercarriers' Association. Her bouquet was a shower of bride's roses and orchids. Mrs. Bondurant wore a handsome gown of gray silk crepe. The flower girl was attired in wore a handsome gown of gray silk crepe. The flower girl was attired in a dainty French frock. After the wedding supper the couple departed for a fortnight's stay at the beaches. After August 1 they will be at home at the St. Clair Apartments. Mrs. Stearns, a reception will be given this afernoon at the First Christian Church by the missionery societies of the Portland Christian churches. Mrs. Stearns is general secretary of the Christian Woman's Board of Missions, of Indianapolis, Ind. John E. Daly, son of City Commis-sioner William H. Daly, and Miss Mabel Nellie Jensen, daughter of Mrs. A. J. Jensen, were married last night at a betty home wedding at the residence Mr. and Mrs. Daly. Rev. Bernard Bass, of the Rodney-Avenue Chris-will remain 10 days and Mrs. Jones of Mr. and Mrs. Daly. Rev. Bernard W. Bass, of the Rodney-Avenue Chris-tian Church, read the service in the presence of a few friends and relatives of the young couple. The bride was charming in a robe of cream char-meuse trimmed with Irish point lace and pearls. She wore a long tulle vell and carried bride's roses and illies the walley Miss Lucy Daly, maile visit to Seattle. WHAT of the valley. Miss Lucy Daly, maid-of-honor, was becomingly gowned in pink dreps de chine and carried pink carnations. Millard Williams attended the bridegroom. Mrs. Daly was dis-tinguished in blue silk and lace. The rooms were decorated ip roses and ferns. After a supper, Mr. and Mrs. Daly departed for a trip to the Puget N Last Summer there was a gasp of Sound cities.

Among the recent arrivals at the Sol Duc Hot Springs Hotel, in the heart of the Olympic Mountains, Washington, are Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Thompson and Miss Vivian Cooley, of Portland. Miss Vivian Cooley, of Portland. Among the recent arrivals at the Sol to the tight-fitting waist with darts and seams. The actual use of velvet did not cause The Ladies' Social Union of the First The Ladies' Social Union of the First Methodist Episcopal (Taylor-street) Church met at the home of Mrs. Martha J. Patton, on Portland Heights, Tues-because one expected to wear velvet somewhere or somehow about the cosday aftern

. . .

. . . In honor of Mrs. McDaniel Stearns,

ANNE RITTENHOUSE

Much Net State of the state of the

it behooves us to pay attention to a fashion that possibly can only interest us from a speculative point of view.

An Old Fashion Revived. When we exclaim at the novelty of a black velvet basque in Summer, we should hark back to other decades and there we should find the same fash-ion cheerfully accepted even in the far South. There was a time when plque and golden brown velvet were combined, the trimming consisting of large pearl buttons of a superior quality. pearl buttons of a superior quality. When we go to the origin of the velvet waist with the large rose as an accessory, and the full skirt of trans-parent white fabric beneath, we find it is Spanish, and surely there is enough hot weather in that land for a protest to be made, so, possibly, we will waive the discomfort of such a fashion and regard it benignly now, then cheerfully accept it when the cold weather comes.

weather comes.

There is not much of this new velvet basque, for it is not cut on the lines of the original Poiret model. It is more of a jumper than a waist. It shows col-lar and sleeves of the white fabric, and is rarely closed in the front. When It is not combined with white, then deep cream is chosen, that tint that is supposed to be given by age, but is

Skirts of Lace and Organdie

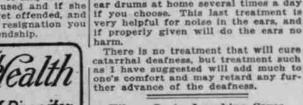

Skirts of Lace and Organdie. The use of that attractive old-fash-ioned fabric called organdle came upon the world as a surprise. It first ap-peared in collars, then blouses, now as skirts to be trimmed with flounces of lace. The new kind organdle is a very soft weave and sometimes lends itself to pleating, and over this foundation a long tunic of lace is superimposed. Sometimes two or three ruffles are used instead. astonishment when Paul Poiret showed a black velvet basque with a ruffled used instead

And, by the way, one must not forget the large rose, brilliantly colored, which is never placed where the world expects it, but far out of the ordinary. The very newest idea in Paris is to pl it near the neck or at the back of the

waist FOR THE BABY.

ay afternoon. In the absence of the president, Mrg. tume in the cold season. But here more presents than a bride, it is a and Black andle Skirt With Flounce of Lace Hikers Go to Josephine Caves.

Golter and Deafness. MRS. M. B. J. writes: "There is a front, that I think is the beginning of golter, Two years ago my daughter had golter, and was cured by taking a soluble iodine preparation, prescribed soluble iodine preparation, prescribed by a physician. Naturally, I would like to try the same remedy, but hesitate -Adv.

as

the Sun sure to rise

You can't always make everything "just so." Sometimes you will get in more shortening than usual; or make the batter a little thin; or it may not be convenient to put a cake in the oven the moment it is mixed; or your oven may not bake evenly and it is necessary to turn the pan around—none of these little uncertainties make the slightest ence in results if you use

This modern, double-raise baking powder has unusual strength and is absolutely certain to raise your biscuits, cakes and pastry light and feathery. It generates an abundance of leavening gas both in the mix-ing bowl and in the oven. The raising is sustained until the dough is ked through. cool

Housewives who use K C never have "bad iuck" with their baking. K C at our risk. Your grocer will refund your money if you are Try not pleased in every way.

SILK

will remain 10 days and Mrs. Jones will make a longer stay. Miss Josephine Jentegald, daughter of Mrs. Mary Jentegald, of 515 Todd street, was married to Thomas Casey Tuesday evening at 1338 East Nine-teenth street. They left for a short visit to Seattle.