Discussion of Parent's Birth Admitted, but Alleged Criticism of America Is Said to Be Without Any Foundation.

In a second deposition made at Chicago, Ill., and filed in Portland yesterday, Mrs. Felicie Modjeski, whom Ralph Modjeski, a prominent bridge and civil engineer of this city, is suing for divorce, denies every charge made by her husband and makes cross-allega-

Mr. Modjeski's application for divorce was based principally upon seven trips taken by his wife to Europe, against his consent. In the deposition filed here yesterday, Mrs. Modjeski de-clares that, although she did take seven trips to Europe, they were taken with her husband's consent and, she says, he made six trips across the Atlantic him-

Mrs. Modjeski did not deny her husband's charge that she told the children that he was of illegitimate birth, but "Whatever this affiant told the children of the birth of said Ralph Modjeski was the truth and was told to the children with the knowledge and consent of said Ralph Modjeski, and because of circumstances arising which made it advisable to inform the chil-

Propinguity Is Asserted.

She devoted several pages of the affidavit in attempting to defend herself against the assertion made by her husband that she hated the United States and its people and wanted her children educated abroad.

"Affiant and said Ralph Modjeski were born in Poland," she deposed, "and were cousins previous to mar-riage, affiant's aunt being said Ralph Modjeski's mother. That said affiant's aunt and said Ralph Modjeski's mother is wealthy and could well afford to make Ralph Modjeski presents of small sums of money which he deposed were made because of affisht's alleged ex-cessive spending of money; that said statement was untrue, as said Ralph Modjeski well knows, affiant never spending money to excess, and said presents were expended upon himself except when affiant and said Ralph Modjeski made their first trip to Eu-

She also denied that she told Mr. Modjeski she would not return to this Modjeski she would not return to this country when she made the trip in June, 1910, to Poland and from which trip she has just returned to Chicago. She repeats her charge that on two different occasions Modjeski sent a messenger to Europe offering her first $26,000 and then $80,000 if she would pany through the agency of the Pana-

An amended complaint was filed yesterday, immediately upon the return to Portland of Mr. Modjeski from Chicago, where he answered the petition of Mrs. Modjeski for $5000 suit money. Several minor changes are made and an additional charge that Mrs. Modjeski once threatened to take his life.

It is understood that the Cook County, Illinois, courts have not yet given a decision on Mrs. Modjeski's petition for the $5000 suit money. Grif-fith, Leiter & Allen are Mrs. Modjeski's attorneys.

RUSSIAN DANCERS FEATURE OF BILL AT PANTAGES

IMPERIAL BASY TROUPE WHO ARE MAKING FIRST APPEARANCE IN PORTLAND.

Russia stands pre-eminent as a producer of masters and mistresses of the terpsichorean art, because dancing in the land of the Steppes is a national institution, and the children find that to trip the light fantastic is among the kindergarten lessons.

So says Alexander Easy, manager of the Imperial Basy troupe of Russian dancers, who are making their first appearance at Pantages this week. Seven in all, the dancers present many new and sensational steps, several of the members of the company receiving their education in the same operatic organizations that produced Pavlowa, Mordkin and the other noted Russian dancers.

Prominent temperance workers of Portland entertained yesterday at luncheon at the Commercial Club in honor of Mrs. Lillian Mitchner, president of the Kansas Woman's Christian Temperance Union.

"They think that a tunnel under the Willamette River would cost less than a good steel bridge.

"Insofar as I could judge while on my trip, the Middle West is the hardest hit in business," said Mr. King. "The farther East I went the better business seemed to be. During the past four weeks, business has improved the post and the po everywhere. Coming back to Portland after an extended absence I can notice a betterment in the local conditions."

NEIGHBORHOD ROW AIRED

Court Dismisses Charge When Nature of Case Is Revealed.

A neighborhood row was carried into District Judge Jones' court yesterday and promptly dismissed. The court refused to have anything to do with family squabbles.

Otto Engalee was arrested on a charge of assault and battery on a warrant sworn out by Mra. Amelia Vorda. Mrs. Vorda charges that Engalee, who lives next door, threw rocks at her and because of a high board fence she was unable to defend herself or to return the attack.

Engalee says that at various times, Mrs. Vorda attacked him and applied a horse whip until he built the fence. Now he can stand behind and throw rocks at her. Judge Jones threw the case out of court.

Valley report the same conditions. It is believed the hay crop will be from 15 to 20 per cent below early estimates, but, on the other hand, grainraisers are jubilant over conditions, as the grain harvest yet is far away and the rains have been coming in the best farmers have been compelled to use dry-farming methods almost entirely.

Some grain fields have been fiattened by waterspouts, but these are only in limited areas and the general condition of the growing grain erop is rated as far above the average.

LIGHT SENTENCE GIVEN MAN FOR PUBLISHING FALSE STATEMENT

Judge Morrow Declares That Subsci quent Violators of Law of 1864 Will Fare Far Worse.

O. F. Darling, president of the Investors' Building & Trust Company, was fined $100 by Circuit Judge Morrow yesterday. Darling was convicted on a charge of publishing a false financial statement of his company, "The defendant was convicted for a violation of a statute enacted in 1884," said Judge Morrow in passing sentence yesterday, "that was half a century ago. Since then no effort was made to prosecute violations and there were many, and then suddenly to indict this to prosecute violations and there were many, and then suddenly to indict this man on a charge of committing a misdemeanor that everybody else was doing, on a law which had not been enforced, is not just. I am going to fine Darling $100, but it need not be taken as a criterion for those who follow in his wake. The next case of this nature which comes before this court will receive a much heavier sen-
