All is in readiness for the 23d annual rowing regatta of the North Pacific Association of Amateur Oarsmen, which begins this afternoon at 3 o'clock, and will be continued tomorrow afternoon. The athletes from the Vancouver Rowing Club and the Victoria Athletic Association arrived in Portland yesterday morning at #:45, and were met by a delegation from the local boat club headed by H. E. Judge, president; W. J. Patton, vice-president, and "Dick" Hart, coach. The Canadians are a formidable looking lot of sunburned youths, and are confident of winning their portion of the rowing events.

The visitors took their shells up the The visitors took their shells up the river to the regatta course and were out for trial spins during the day.

The first event of the day will be the junior single sculling race, one and a half miles. David Cooper, of the Portland Howing Club, is the favorite. His opponents will be A. V. Wood, of Vancouver, and H. Bendrodt, of Victoria. The classic of the day will be the junior four-cared race, which will commence at 3:30. The Victoria crew looks strong. So confident are the Victorians of winning this event they brought only one heavyweight four, which is expected to take today's race and thereby qualify for the senior fours, the by qualify for the senior fours, the grand prize event of the meet, which will be held tomorrow afternoon. The Vancouver junior four, it is said, is Miss Sarah Livingstone, of Seattle, present holder of the ladies' singles championship, will be here to enter the meet next Monday, and Homer F. Levinson and R. J. Greenberg, both of San Francisco, have sent in their entry slips. Lieutenants Lentz and Hobson, both of Vancouver Barracks, are among those who will compete for honors next week on the Multnomah Club courts.

ENTRIES NOW TOTAL NINE DERRICK DEAL NEVER MADE

Ray Brock, Portland Driver, Will Be on Hand for First Day's Races Is News Which Is Welcomed by Race Enthusiasts.

The full list of officials for the big sutomobile races to be held out at the Rose City Speedway track tomorrow and Sunday were named yesterday.
They are as follows:
Official representative of the contest

Official representative of the contest board of the American Automobile Association, Frank M. Fretwell, of Seattle; referce, John B. Yeon; timers, Frank E. Watkins, James E. Appleby, George L. Parker, T. Morris Dunne and Walter Giffard; judges, L. Y. Keady, John H. Burgard, Julius L. Meler, O. C. Leiter and A. L. Fish; announcer, C. J. Cook; clerk of the course, C. H. King; chairman of technical advisory board, Ben Trenkman; official handicapper, M. C. Dickinson.

The most interesting news of yesterday as far as the races are concerned, day as far as the races are concerned, is that Ray Brock definitely will be here in time for the first day's racing. He was afraid at first that the trouble he was having with his machine's frame at Tacoma would make him a day late, but he has now put in an entirely new side and left yesterday at midday for Portland by road. He is taking this course in order to subject his machine, and especially the new parts, to all the strain he can so that he will be sure of his "boat" by the time he gets here.

Total Entries Now Nine. His presence brings the total entries.
up to nine. They are Tetzlaff, Hughes and Carison in the three Maxwells; Brock in the Wright Special, the car that he the that has the motorboat engine in it; De Alene in the fast Marmon; Captain Kennedy in the Chalmers Bluebird; Ruedy Goetz in the Endicott Special; Percy Barnes with the Romano Spe-cial and the big Elitzen Benz. Local men are pinning their faith on Brock to hold down local honors.

For this meet extensive preparations are being made and also extensive alterations. Remembering the difficulty drivers had in entering the pits at the last meet and the trouble with spectalast meet and the trouble with spectators forcing their way in, the manage-ment has entirely changed the pits around so that all the drivers will have to do will be to draw up to the pits on the course without entering through any driveway. This is following In-dianapolis' precedent, and is just as the pits are at Tacoma.

Track Ready for Trials. A further amount of oil was put down again yesterday and the track was ready for practice. Still higher boards have been put up still higher boards have been put up so that no one will be able to witness the races from the hill without paying their entrance admission.

People going out to the course will have no difficulty in finding the way, as there is a large sign up on the Sandy Road at Tillamook street where motorists take the right fork of the Sandy. There are two blocks not paved, but F. T. Merrill sald yesterday that these will also be ofled so as to lay the dust. will also be ofled so as to lay the dust

POOREST GAME OF SEASON GOES TO YAKIMA, 4 TO 3.

At Pendieton—Baker 4. Pendieton 3.

At Pendleton—Baker 4. Pendleton 3.

Baker won another close game from Pendleton, 4 to 3, in the Western Tri-State League yesterday, and Walla Walla let Yakima win, 4 to 3, after apparently cinching the game in the first, 3 to 0. Loose playing gave the Yakimas the game.

Manager Bade, of the Bears, returned today from Spokane, where he was dickering with Russ Hall, of Tacoma, who already has Schmidt, the Bears' second baseman. Pitcher Telford will leave immediately and Hall also wants Johnson, who will go after the season is over. The Edmonton club of the Canadian League is now negotiating for the Bear infield. These sales if carried through will put the Bears high carried through will put the Bears high and dry.

At Pendieton, Baker's victory was a hard-fought one. Lewis, who opened for the Bucks, was knocked out of the box in three innings, the Kubs getting four runs before Schroeder replaced him. Schroeder held the Kubs to one hit. Pendleton made three in the fifth on Lodell's double, a walk, sacrifice fly, and two errors. In the eighth with two on and two down, the Bucks lost their chance to tie on a close decision at home.

Walla Walla's four errors were costly in the game with Yakima. The Bears started in the first with two two-baggers, two singles and an error, getting and dry.

One-half the Northwestern League schedule has been played and up in Spokane the fans are wondering why the Indians are not nearer the top. Portland, Victoria and Seattle have held Vancouver practically even, and Vancouver has walloped Spokane and Victoria unmercifully. The answer is that Vancouver has beaten Spokane in 10 of 14 games.

Early season dopesters seem to have done a thriving business. All the wise birds picked Seattle, Spokane and Vancouver to finish in the first division.
