

GERMAN TELLS HOW LIVING COST SOARS

Workmen Strike, Win, Then Prices Go Up and They Pay More, Says Tourist.

TAXES HIGH THERE, TOO

Otto Krahl, of Dresden, Studying Conditions in United States and Elsewhere and May Make Semi-Official Report.

The United States "has nothing on Germany in the matter of possessing a high-cost-of-living problem, according to Otto Krahl, of Dresden, who is at the Imperial.

Among recent arrivals at the Benson is Julius Ashelm, special agent for the Equitable Life of New York. H. C. Melby, business secretary of the Portland Young Men's Christian Association, returned yesterday from an Eastern trip which included attendance at the Y. M. C. A. conference at Lake Geneva, Wis. Mrs. Melby accompanied him.

CHICAGO, July 10.—(Special.)—The following from Oregon are registered at Chicago hotels: From Portland—N. A. Colman, at the Congress; J. Luusee, at the Great Northern. From Salem—Mrs. M. A. Priebe, at the La Salle.

Mr. Krahl is making a tour around the world for pleasure and study. He is what is termed a corporation lawyer in this country, some of the manufacturing firms in and near Dresden being his clients, and he is studying industrial methods and conditions as he goes.

He hears letters of introduction from the German Foreign Office, and may make a semi-official report of his observations to the government when he returns.

"I will not write a book," he said, gravely, "but I am making some notes that may be made the basis of a newspaper article when I get home."

Germany has a minimum wage law for women and children and has had it for years, similar to the one in force in Oregon, except that it is more inclusive, regulating the wages even of the pieceworkers who make toys and other articles in their homes.

Taxes are high in Germany, too. "We have an enemy on either side," he said, "and there is nothing for us to do but have a strong army. We have commercial interests abroad that must be protected. Hence a strong navy is necessary. And these things, as all the world knows, cost money."

Starting from Genoa last September, Mr. Krahl traveled eastward through the Orient, "doing" India, Ceylon, Java, New Guinea, Manila, China and Japan. In North China he saw symptoms of the magnitude of the rebellion that is in progress, under the leadership of "the White Wolf" against the Yuan Shi Kai government. He saw heavy troop-trains moving against the rebels.

Northwest is seen. From Japan he came to San Francisco, arriving June 16. Since then he has seen the Yosemite, the big trees and other sights of California and has covered the Pacific Northwest in a big loop out from Portland, taking in Seattle and British Columbia points as far east as Banff. He returned to Portland by way of Spokane and saw the scenery of the Columbia River. He will leave this evening for Yellowstone Park. He will take the plenty of time in the East, visiting the big industrial centers.

"In the West I have enjoyed the magnificent scenery," he said, "but in the East I will study the American at work."

By unanimous vote the City Commission yesterday shut the Tanness Grill out of business. The action followed the hearing Thursday afternoon, at which it was shown that the place has been a resort for lewd women and that the law has been violated in a number of ways.

This makes the sixth grill done away with by the Commission in the last seven months. They are the old Pittsburg Grill, on Sixth street; the Denny Grill, on Second street; Richards Grill, on Park and Alder; Chinese grill, on Park and Alder, and the notorious Leveus Grill, on Third street.

The Pittsburg and Denny places were put out of business last December because they were the clearing houses of fallen women, it was charged. Since then the persons who patronized these places went to the Tanness Grill.

The ordinance which the Council passed revoking the Tanness license went into effect as soon as passed. The grill was closed at once. The manager, H. Tanness, announced that he will continue the place as a restaurant.

PLAYGROUND STORIES SET

Library Arranges to Send Readers to Children's Parks. The Public Library has arranged to send story-tellers to the different playgrounds during July and August. The stories will be told at 4 o'clock. Tuesday will be the story hour day for Brooklyn, Columbia, Lakeview, Lenta, Lincoln, South Mount Tabon, North Mount Tabon, Peninsular and Sellwood playgrounds; Thursday at Falling, Kentworth and Laurelhurst; Friday at Washington playground, and Monday at North Parkway.

320 CHILDREN GET OUTING

Salvation Army Gives Picnic at Magone's Park. The Salvation Army free outing to poor mothers and children Thursday to Magone's Park was highly successful. The Grahamons carried 320 happy children with their mothers. It was the first trip on the water for many of the children and they showed their delight. After a trip to the locks at Oregon City the steamer landed at the park. Each person was provided with a box lunch. After lunch games and races were the order, first, second and third prizes being given.

The Portland Railway, Light & Power Company furnished street car transportation to the party and from their homes to the Taylor-street dock.
