Yesterday's Results. At Portland—Portland 7, Los Angeles 2.

BY ROSCOE FAWCETT. "Boy" Howard Ehmke may be worth $12,000 to some major league club.

Portland triumphed yesterday by getting the jump on Ehmke, and as he was accorded poor support, the visitors never had a chance.

Ehmke in Tight Place. Ehmke found himself in dire straits in the fifth and sixth innings with the bases full, but escaped in fairly good shape.

In the fifth, hits by Derrick and Rodgers and Abstein's low throw to third turned the trick, but Ryan's long sacrifice was the best the Beavers could muster.

Krause Walks Two Only. Southpaw Krause walked only two men, as against six for Ehmke, but he hit one man and it was the dead ball that cost him his first run in the third inning.
