Governor of Federal District Announces Repressive Measures Will Be Taken if Necessary and Mounted Police Patrol.

MEXICO CITY, July 15.—General Victoriano Huerta resigned from the provisional presidency of the Mexican republic tonight and his resignation was accepted by the Senate and Chamber of Deputies by a vote of 121 to 17.

Francisco Carbajal was then appointed President and took the oath of office at the joint session of Deputies and Senators.

Resignation Formally Submitted. Huerta's resignation was submitted through the department of foreign relations. It was read in the House and was greeted with cries of "viva Huerta."

Article 1.—We accept the resignation presented by General Victoriano Huerta as president of the Mexican United States.

Carbajal Formally Called. Article 2.—We call Licentiate Francisco Carbajal, minister of foreign relations, to assume the presidency.

President Carbajal proceeded to the national palace under an escort of presidential guards and all along the way was greeted with tumultuous cheering.

"Vera Cruz Outrage" Denounced. The text of General Huerta's resignation follows: "Deputies and Senators: Public necessity, admitted by the Chamber of Deputies, by the Senate and the Supreme Court, called me to the supreme magistracy of the republic. Later, when in this same hall I had the honor of addressing you in compliance with the constitutional precept, I promised at all costs to bring about peace.

"Seventeen months have passed and in that brief period of time I have formed an army with which to carry out that solemn promise. You all know the immense difficulties which my government has encountered, owing to a scarcity of funds, as well as to the manifest and decided protection which a great power of this continent has afforded to the rebels—so much so that when the revolution had broken up, seeing that its chief leaders were and continued to be divided, the power in question sought a pretext to intervene directly in the conflict and the result of this was the outrage committed at Vera Cruz by the American fleet.

Personal Interest Not Sought. "Success was had, as you know, in adjusting honorably through our delegates at Niagara Falls the petty Tampico party incident, but the revolution continued, with the support of whom we all know.

Yet after the highly patriotic work achieved by our delegates at Niagara Falls, there are still some who say that I come what may, seek my personal interest and not that of the republic. And as I need to refute this allegation with facts, I tender my formal resignation of the Presidency of the republic.

The National Congress must know that the republic, through its government, has labored in entire good faith and with the fullest energy, having succeeded in doing away with the party which in the United States calls itself Democratic, and having shown how the right should be defended.

Blows Dealt to Unjust Power. "To be more explicit, I will say that the action of the government of the United States in the case of the Huerta...

SCOTTISH OFFICIAL SAVED BY BUTLER

SERVANT GRAPPLES WITH MILITANT HORSEWHIPPER.

Women Cry "Pig!" at Right Hon. Thomas McKinnon Wood and Almost Succeed in Thrashing Him.

LONDON, July 15.—Only the intercession of his butler today saved the Right Honorable Thomas McKinnon Wood, secretary of state for Scotland, from a horsewhipping at the hands of two suffragettes.

Just as he was leaving his residence a woman rushed up, horsewhip in hand, exclaiming: "You Scottish pig, if you don't stop the ferocious feeding of women, we shall smash you!"

The militant lashed him across the chest but before she could deliver a second cut the butler seized her and threw her to the ground, leaving him free to tackle the second woman, who was shouting, "Let me get at the Scotch pig!"

She made a rush with her whip at the secretary for the butler and was still struggling in the butler's grip when the police arrived and bundled both women to the police station, where they were searched. On one of them was found a decomposed egg, labeled "Refreshing fruit!"

In the court the women gave their names as Janette Wallace and Bertha Watson. They were fined 20 shillings each, but refused to pay and were sent to jail for 14 days.

$160,773 AWARDED THAW

Prisoner Wins Money Despite Warning of Alienists.

PITTSBURGH, July 15.—Harry K. Thaw won a six months' legal battle today, when the Orphans' Court here awarded him the income from his father's estate, which has been denied him by the trustees since he was adjudged insane for the murder of Sanford White.

By the decision Thaw gets $160,773. Judge Over says Thaw is legally entitled to the money despite the fact that alienists declare him to be suffering from an exaggerated sense of self, which would make it unwise to commit any large sums of money into his personal charge.

ROOSTER MOTHERS CHICKS

Little Vancouver Bantam Has Hard Work Covering Whole Brood.

VANCOUVER, Wash., July 15.—(Special.)—George A. Parrish's bantam rooster has taken a brood of chicks to raise and is doing nobly.

When Mr. Parrish placed the incubator chicks with the little rooster they at once became good friends. So many chicks get under the tiny rooster that he actually is carried off his feet. Mr. Parrish insists the little ones often carry their foster father the length of the pen on their backs. He scratches for them and mothers his wards as well as a hen could do.

WASCO, Or., July 15.—(Special.)—Fire destroyed about 60 acres of wheat on the Kaseburg farm and 10 acres on the Andrew May farm today. The call for help sent to Wasco was responded to by nearly 100 business men of the city, who came in automobiles.

Fire started in a strawstack that evidently had been smoldering for some time. The losses are covered by insurance.

Peaceful Entry of Rebels to Follow.

PRESENT REGIME TO BE BRIEF

Carranza Has Much to Gain by Assenting to Plan.

RECOGNITION IS AT STAKE

Should Rebel Leader Insist on Establishing Rule by Force, This Would Be Delayed—Immunity for Huerta Talked Of.

WASHINGTON, July 15.—News of General Huerta's resignation as provisional president of Mexico was hailed by official Washington tonight as the first practical step toward a quick solution of the Mexican problem.

Constitutionalists, diplomats and officials of the United States Government did not conceal their satisfaction over the fact that General Huerta at last had voluntarily eliminated himself from the situation and pointed the way to an era of peace in his country.

Carbajal Not to Be Recognized. Although the constitutionalists have declared they would not recognize Francisco Carbajal as provisional president any more than they did his predecessor, and the United States Government likewise will refuse to recognize him, the understanding here is that the new executive will hold office for only a short term—only until satisfactory arrangements can be made for the entry of General Carranza, the constitutionalist chief.

Speedy Transfer Hoped For. General Huerta's retirement came just as the constitutionalists were preparing their formal answer to the South American mediator rejecting the invitation for formal conferences with representatives of Huerta for the discussion of internal Mexican questions.

While the constitutionalists are averse to holding conferences which might recognize the legality of Carbajal's position as provisional president, hopes were raised today among South American diplomats that nevertheless negotiations might be begun between representatives of Carranza and Carbajal for the speedy transfer of power to the constitutionalists.

It is practically certain that Emilio Rabasa, Augustin Rodriguez and Luis Elguero, who represented Huerta at the Niagara Falls mediation, will be designated by Carbajal to look after his interests in this country. That the mediator now will make another effort

COLONEL LABELS WHITMAN

"Either Hopelessly Timid Weakling" or Tool of Barnes, Is Intimation.

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., July 15.—District Attorney Whitman, of New York, was characterized tonight by Colonel Roosevelt as either "a hopelessly timid weakling" or else as being in league with William Barnes, Jr., Republican state chairman.

The controversy grew out of what Colonel Roosevelt said was an attempt by men representing themselves as acting in Mr. Whitman's interests to obtain for the District Attorney's candidacy for the Governorship the support of the ex-President.

The next morning, Colonel Roosevelt declared, all through largely because Mr. Whitman failed to declare his opposition to Mr. Barnes, as it had been represented Colonel Roosevelt said he would do.

DIFFERENT STORIES TOLD

"Oregon Realty Company" and "Oregon Timber & Land Company" Are Two Concerns "Representative" in San Francisco.

Kodak pictures of the famous sequoia, or big redwood, trees of California were used as fake pictures of Oregon timber by J. W. Logan, of Tacoma, in persuading Californians to buy "locations" on timber lands within the Oregon & California Railroad grant in Oregon, according to testimony given in United States District Court yesterday by J. D. Stafford, a San Francisco chauffeur, who admitted he had been an accomplice of Logan's.

Stafford's testimony came in the continuation of the "Logan chapter" of the trial of Logan, W. F. Minard, of Portland, and E. J. Sellers, of Tacoma, accused of fraudulent use of the mails in connection with the sale of "locations" on the railroad land grant, which has been forfeited to the Government by the United States District Court for Oregon, the case now being on appeal to the United States Supreme Court.

Like much of the testimony given Tuesday, that of Stafford will have no bearing on the case against Minard and Sellers, and only on Logan's case insofar as it may show his intent in his previous activities in conjunction with Minard and Sellers. This testimony relates to Logan's acts subsequent to those for which he, Minard and Sellers now are accused of using the mails in a "conspiracy to defraud."

Calaveras Picture Identified. Questioned by District Attorney Reames as to pictures used by Logan in his "location" selling campaign, Stafford said at least one of them was taken in Calaveras County, noted for its big trees, he and Logan having come among the giant timber in the automobile in which they canvassed the country around San Francisco for a radius of 150 or 160 miles.

Logan suggested taking these pictures because they would be good boost pictures," said Stafford, adding that they were taken by Logan. He identified a picture which showed himself sitting in an automobile, with the

OREGON KID SINKS IN RACE UP RIVER

BOAT GOES DOWN OFF WALLACE ISLAND, IN COLUMBIA.

Coast Champion Hits Wave While Going Against Train at 45 Miles an Hour; All Escape.

RAINIER, Or., July 15.—(Special.)—Oregon Kid II, Pacific Coast and Columbia River champion motorboat, sank near the middle of the Columbia River off Wallace Island, 18 miles west of here tonight at 6:15 o'clock. The speedboat was racing a North Bank train up the river and was going at a usually big wave and shot under the water, never to regain the surface. The occupants were rescued after swimming about half an hour.

Those in the boat were Wilbur Smith, engineer; Judie Silva, pilot, and Ralph R. Ruffner, passenger. They were rescued by fishermen.

The Oregon Kid had been chartered by Mr. Ruffner to deliver a motion picture from a Portland concern, which had failed to dispatch the film on the Astoria train. A local carrier took the film to Rainier and the speedboat rushed it to Astoria, where the film was scheduled to be shown tonight. The boat left at 2:52 P. M. and reached Astoria, a distance of about 60 miles, at 5:03 o'clock.

According to Mr. Silva, the Oregon Kid can be raised with little effort, the buoy it carried showing the location.

CHEERS RING FOR BENSON

Women, Formerly Opposed to Suffrage, Are Sworn In and Join Husbands at Polls—Thrilling Scenes Greet Result.

STATUS OF GOOD ROADS BOND ISSUES IN OREGON. Hood River yesterday voted $75,000 in bonds to be spent on the Columbia River Highway. Columbia County issued $300,000 in bonds, of which $200,000 goes to the Columbia Highway. Clatsop County has issued $400,000 in bonds, of which $215,000 goes to the Columbia Highway.

Jackson County has bonded itself for $500,000, to be spent on the Pacific Highway and in bettering road conditions. Wasco County needs but two miles of good road to complete another link of the Columbia Highway. It is working on three trackage new. The work east of Portland will unite the Columbia River districts with Central Oregon. The road to the west means a beautiful road down the Columbia River and down the coast to the Tillamook County line. Multnomah County is spending $400,000 in cutting the road from Portland to the western county line. They will spend about $200,000 more to finish that work.

HOOD RIVER, Or., July 15.—(Special.)—By a vote of 1652 to 428 the people of Hood River County today authorized a bond issue of $75,000 for completion of the Columbia River Highway in Hood River County. All of the 12 precincts in the county, with the single exception of Dee, a thinly populated district, voted big majorities for the bonds.

Tonight the citizens turned out en masse and seldom in the annals of the city has such jubilation been shown over an election of any kind. The coronet band headed a parade in which 1000 of the principal residents of the county took part and each person seemed intent on making more noise than his neighbor.

One vote by precincts was: For, Against, Cascade Locks 150 84, Pine Grove 100 25, DEE 100 25, Coast Hood River 121 61, Clatsop 145 61, Stannard 25 24, Wasco Hood River 90 27, West Hood River 101 20, Paradise 119 22, Center 100 19, Lee 100 19.

Totals 1652 428. Many May Avail From Polls. A large percentage of the citizens of the upper valley districts, who have been indifferent to the election, failed to attend the polls.

The Cascade Locks precinct turned out almost its total adult male and female population, voting 150 for the bonds and but three against. The Pine Grove precinct, which was considered to be the opposition, it being the home of A. J. Mason, who has waged a relentless campaign against the bonds, surprised everyone by giving a majority of 24 in favor of the issue.

Women Take Hand. No election in the county has ever created greater interest, especially in the city. More than a score of women who have been professedly against woman suffrage were sworn in and joined their husbands in the march to the polls.

The Commercial Club, where returns were received tonight, was thronged with city and country people, and numerous cheers for S. Benson, of Portland, who has guaranteed to complete the highway in case the funds voted by the county were not sufficient, he echoed throughout the city. The result of no election has ever created such joy in Hood River.

This road, when completed, will be a perfect boulevard from White Salmon to Trout Lake, Glenwood and the foot of Mount Adams.

WASCO READY TO GO AHEAD. County's Finances Such as to Insure Route Without Bonds.

THE DALLES, Or., July 15.—(Special.)—With assurances tonight that the Hood River Columbia Highway bond issue had carried, it became certain that the work would be started.
