Ten wagons with produce came to the Alberta public market Tuesday and about fourteen loads of local produce were brought. The business men on Alberta street contributed to pay the expense the women had incurred in the erection of booths at this market. Grocers and other business men subscribed. It had been reported that the grocers on that street had combined against this market and had decided to refuse credit to patrons of the market, but this is denied by Mrs.

Josephine Sharp, who said the grocers are favorable to the market because it brings people there from the outside and encourages children to bring in their produce.

Potlatch Special to Carry

'STUNTS' ON TRAIN BANNED

Visitors to Have Quiet and Rest on Trip in Order to Have Plenty of Carrying Portland's livest boosters, the Tillicum Potlatch Special, a solid Pullman train, will pull out of the Union Depot over the O.-W. R. & N.

tonight at 11:45 for Seattle.

It will carry Portland enthusiasm to the Potlatch and the delegates will take a prominent part in the closing day of Seattle's big celebration.

The trip is a joint junket by the Royal Rosarians, the Portland Ad Club and the Portland Transportation

The arrangements committee yeater-day decided that there will not be a succession of "stunts" on board the train on its way north, but that decorous quiet shall prevail that the excursionists may sleep and arrive at Seattle fresh and full of vim for an active part in the demonstrations to follow. Res-Board of Health and one of Portland's leading physicians, was injured seriously early yesterday when his automobile struck an auto truck at East Thirty-ninth and Burnside streets. The doctor was thrown from his machine to the payement, suffering a fracchine to the payement suffering a fracchine to the demonstrations to follow. Reservations to follow.

At closing time last night the follow-ing had booked reservations: Mayor H. R. Albee, Frank E. Smith, ture of the collarbone. He was unconscious for some time.

The truck, driven by Jack Eatch, was going east on Burnside street. Dr. Pierce's machine was going north on Thirty-ninth. When they struck the entire rear part of the automobile was torn off. Dr. Pierce struck the pavement head first. His face was badly cut. A passing automobile picked him up and he was taken to Dr. E. A.
