

IMMEDIATE PEACE PLAN OF DIPLOMATS

United States Advises With Rebel Leaders, Urging Moderation in Victory.

REVENGE IS DEPRECATED

General Obregon Informs Washington Americans and Other Foreigners Can Return to Guadaluajara in Perfect Security.

WASHINGTON, July 17.—Every influence and diplomatic agency at the disposal of the United States Government was working today for immediate peace in Mexico.

Not only is the American Government at this moment counselling General Carranza, the constitutionalist chief, to arrange with Francisco Carbajal, Huerta's successor, for the peaceful transfer of the government to Mexico City, but the constitutionalists without further fighting, but it became known today that the Administration is indirectly in communication with Emiliano Zapata, leader of the revolution in Southern Mexico.

CYCLE AND TRUCK HIT

HENRY WANK, STENOGRAPHER, MAY DIE FROM INJURIES.

Skull Almost Crushed, Leg is Broken and Back Gashed, but Rider Rallies After Operation.

Another accident was added to the long list of recent automobile and motorcycle casualties last night when Henry Wank, a stenographer at the Portland Commercial building, was fatally injured at about 7 o'clock by the collision of his motorcycle with an auto truck driven by William Heinrich, of the Portland Baggage and Transfer Company, at Front and Harrison streets.

Wank's injuries consist of a compound fracture of the skull, a compound fracture of the right leg below the knee, and a slight cut on the back of his head. Hospital authorities say that his skull practically was crushed.

Wank and William T. McDonald, a chauffeur, who lives at 524 N. Hood street, were traveling along Hood street at the time of the accident. Patrolman McMichael estimated their speed at 25 to 30 miles an hour. Heinrich was driving his machine down the hill towards Hood street. At the intersection of the streets, according to Patrolman McMichael, Heinrich struck Wank's motorcycle from the right side of the street, and Wank's machine fell on the left, and Wank was thrown from the truck when he saw it crossing the street.

When Wank arrived at the hospital he was believed to be dying, but after an operation on his skull, Dr. Ziegler said he had some chance to recover.

Wank lives with his parents at 755 Front street, and his mother arrived at the hospital shortly after the accident.

FEDERALS LEAVE GUAYMAS

Town Formally Occupied by Rebels and Order Prevails.

ON BOARD U. S. S. CALIFORNIA, La Paz, Mexico, July 16.—(Via Wireless to San Diego, July 17.)—The federal evacuation of Guaymas is complete. The last of the rebels, who were driven in by the constitutionalist forces of General Obregon, embarked southward tonight with their horses and accoutrements in six steamers and four towing schooners. A provisional government has been established and order prevails throughout the city.

In accordance with the armistice arranged several days ago, the citizens of Guaymas were dismissed today. The federal mines planted in strategic points on the outskirts of the city were exploded, with constitutionalist officers as witnesses.

The first act of the new administration was to relieve the starving population by the distribution and sale of foodstuffs.

The peaceful exchange of governmental authority was facilitated by Captain Magruder, of the cruiser Raleigh. Arrangements also were completed today for the transfer of the Division of Guaymas by constitutionalists on July 15.

The federal steamers will stop at Mazatlan, Manzanillo and Salina Cruz.

SUICIDE RECORD IS BROKEN

Unprecedented Number Follow Fall of Huerta Government.

MEXICO CITY, July 17.—An unprecedented number of suicides and attempted suicides have taken place since the fall of the Huerta government. In the last two days four and three attempts have been reported. Such attempts are usually rare here.

Every representative of a foreign power received today a telegram from General Huerta. One of these was for the diplomat personally, bidding him farewell and asking that he repose confidence in President Carbajal; the other was for the government representative, requesting support for the new Mexican government.

The United States, for which the Brazilian Minister received no message.

The members of the diplomatic corps greeted Francisco Carbajal, the new President of Mexico, in the national palace today. Bernardo De Ochoa y Colosio, Spanish Minister and acting dean of the corps, read an address expressing strong hope for peace. President Carbajal replied, saying his personality would "in no case be an obstacle to the task of concord" to which he addressed himself.

FORGOTTEN GOVERNOR FREED

Carbajal Releases San Luis Potosi Official Who Rejected Huerta.

MEXICO CITY, July 17.—Rafael Cepeda, ex-Governor of San Luis Potosi, who has been confined in Santiago military prison for more than a year for refusing to recognize the Huerta government, was today released by order of President Carbajal at the personal request of the Brazilian Minister, who acted at the solicitation of the ex-governor's friends. The existence of Cepeda had almost been forgotten.

MEXICO CITY IS THREATENED WITH AN AVALANCHE OF DAILY PAPERS

Several new political journals appeared today and others which had been suspended early in the Huerta administration came to life again.

JACKSON CLUB AWARDS CUP

At a meeting of the Jackson Club last night a silver loving cup was presented to Mrs. B. F. Mackey for her work in selling tickets to the annual Jackson Club banquet last June. Mrs. Mackey and A. H. Harms sold the same number of tickets. They were to have shared the loving cup, but Mrs. Harms withdrew in favor of Mrs. Mackey last night. Milton A. Miller presided and made the cup presentation.

FOUR-FLUSHER IS CALLED BY JUDGE AND ASSESSED $10.

"Blamming" Man Who Filled Straight Flush Holds Cause for Fine. Despite Suspicion Cards Were Dealt From Bottom.

AN INTERESTING LESSON IN DRAW POKER

was given in Municipal Court yesterday, and Judge Stevenson displayed knowledge of the game. Emil Starr was charged with hitting J. H. Johnson on the nose. "He stood pat on a four flush," explained Johnson. "I discarded one of my pair of queens to draw to a straight, and I caught it. When I raised him he 'got' mine and hit me."

FRUITS HELD WORTHLESS

Linn County Tracts Considered but Desert Waste and "Victims" Revel Pliant by Recourse to Civil Suit in Court.

With the conviction of H. G. Kemp yesterday before Judge Morrow in the Circuit Court four of an alleged gang of land swindlers have been started for the penitentiary and three others are on trial, while other cases are under investigation and further indictments may follow.

ALL OF THE ALLEGED FRAUDS SO FAR UNCOVERED

They involve the trading of what is said to be worthless lands in Linn County for property in and about Portland. Titles to the lands traded are said to be fraudulent and the District Attorney's office has found that in many cases the tracts supposedly traded are owned by others.

Other tracts of supposedly worthless lands are said to have been traded over to Linn County farmers are said to have had many a hearty laugh over the arrival and departure of timber tracts and nearly all have been sold long ago for delinquent taxes.

"ORCHARDS" BUT DESERT WASTE.

The technical charge against the men convicted and those now standing trial is that of obtaining signatures by false pretenses and the penalty upon conviction is from one to five years' imprisonment. The cases are being pressed by Deputy District Attorney McGuire and his assistant, Walter Geron. The latter visited the Linn County lands and found them in nearly all cases to be rocky wastes, some of them burned over timber tracts and nearly all have been sold long ago for delinquent taxes.

The trials of the men convicted have developed the fact that they were represented by the traders as orchard lands.

R. M. Black, Guy D. Bell and R. L. Gibson have already been convicted and Ed DeYoung, Ted H. Hines and H. G. Kemp, the latter on a joint indictment with DeYoung, are yet to be tried. The Kemp-DeYoung case is now being heard before Judge Morrow.

The cases were first brought to light by a civil suit begun before Judge McGinn. They were referred to District Attorney Evans and criminal indictments followed. The cases have been pushed with vigor ever since. The first indictment was based on the trade of O. L. Hoadley's tract, near the Mount Tabor district, valued at $1500, for 20 acres in Linn County, represented to be orchard land, but which was found to be worthless.

The second indictment, involving H. G. Kemp and E. Kivich, alias Kaufman, charged that they had traded over to Linn County farmers, near the foot of Mount Jefferson, to Ernest Vanclaire for his equity in an East Side home, the value of which was $1000.

It is also charged against R. M. Black and J. L. Meador that they traded J. Munroe Davis and wife 80 acres of Linn County land for the Peninsula Apartments, near the Irving street owners. This land was represented as fine farming land, but investigation developed that it is 13 miles from a railroad, although it is a Yakima valley, and may some day become of use for farming. Black has been already convicted and Meador will be tried later.

At least two other tracts were maintained offices in the city and these places were known as the Meador investment company and the H. G. Kemp company. The idea of trading fraudulent transactions took place last year. The extent of the operations of the men now being tried is thought to have been large and the number of alleged victims is not known.

JUDGE COMMENDS PROSECUTOR.

Judge McGinn took occasion yesterday to congratulate District Attorney Evans upon the good work he has done in this series of cases. The Judge has kept in touch with the facts brought out at the trials and was brought into Judge Morrow's court recently to receive a verdict of the jury convicting some of the defendants, Judge Morrow being away from the courthouse at the time.

PARTY CONVENTION ON WASHINGTON DEMOCRATS GATHERING AT SEATTLE.

Four Candidates for Senate Nomination Present at Session Where Liquor Fight is Expected.

SEATTLE, Wash., July 17.—Many delegates to tomorrow's Democratic state convention arrived tonight. The convention will adopt a platform, but the candidates for United States Senate and Congress will be chosen by primaries on September 8.

Three of the four candidates for the nomination for Senator are here—ex-Senator George Turner, ex-Judge William Black and Hugh C. Todd. The fourth, ex-Mayor George F. Cotterill, of Seattle, is on his way to the world convention of Good Templars at Christiania, Norway.

Arthur E. Nafe, of Seattle, will probably be designated as temporary chairman of the convention by the state central committee. He is a supporter of President Wilson. The Washington delegates to the Baltimore convention stood out against Wilson to the last and it is alleged by their opponents that they are hostile to the President still.

Governor Ernest Lister will address the convention and may be offered the permanent chairmanship. It is expected there will be a hot fight over the adoption of a prohibition plank in the platform. Mr. Cotterill, the only avowed prohibitionist candidate for Senator among the Democrats, takes the position that it is not wise to make the liquor question a party issue.

The convention will meet in the State Armory before noon. It will contain numerous women delegates.

"I HAVE PAID," SAYS HUERTA IN REVIEWING PAST.

"I AM GOING TO EUROPE TO STAY UNTIL MY COUNTRY NEEDS MY SWORD," DECLARES DEPOSED DICTATOR.

PUERTO MEXICO, July 17.—In an interview after his arrival here General Huerta tonight said: "When I assumed the presidency, I said publicly that I would restore peace, cost what it might. I have paid; it has cost me the presidency. To restore peace has been my sole ambition. I hope it is coming."

"I am going to Europe and there I will stay until my country needs my sword sufficiently to call upon me should that time come. I will gladly return."

With General Huerta will go some 20 officers, and whether they will return depends upon the attitude adopted toward the new government.

During the day General Huerta spent some time at Orizaba, receiving and sending messages. To President Carranza he telegraphed: "I desire that your government shall continue. If you should require my small services I assure you they are at your disposal."

He also sent messages to the governors of several states, notifying them of his resignation and requesting that they accept the new government. Messages urging the same support or recognition for the new government were also forwarded to the diplomatic representatives of the United States.

General Huerta hopes to be able to leave here before Saturday night.

SEATTLE BECOMES MECCA

Scores of Portland People Leave to Attend Potlatch Festivities.

Seattle will be swarming with uniformed Portland men today, for scores of them went up from this city at midnight last night on the Potlatch excursion, under the joint auspices of the Royal Rosarians, the Ad Club and the Transportation Club.

Each club has a uniform distinctive to itself, and all three are going up with a set of stunts that are calculated to keep the Tillikums, their hosts, "guessing" all day long.

They are taking with them the Rosarian band to furnish all the music necessary for their purposes in pulling off their stunts.

All day long the party will be in Seattle, and many of them will remain over and not return to Portland until Monday, since the excursion tickets were not good until that time.

The excursionists will be guests of the Tillikums at breakfast and will witness the Dad's day parade and participate in the evening parade, which closes the Potlatch celebration.

CALL PRICE AGAINST LAW

Court Upholds Government Contention Against Board of Trade.

CHICAGO, July 17.—A decision favorable to the Government's suit against the Chicago Board of Trade to abolish what is known as the "call" was made today by Federal Judge Landis.

The Board of Trade is open from 9:30 A. M. to 1:15 P. M. The Government's petition charged that a committee of five of the Board met after 1:15 P. M. and fixed prices on grain which were to remain in effect until the Board opened the following morning.
