As a hint for the early fall costume, a smart model is shown. The bodice and tunic are of checked material and the underskirt and high draped girde are of black satin.

When a woman's hair is well coiffed these days it looks like a series of waves without an obstacle to their flow. They flow neatly and surely across the head in one continuous ripple.

ant quest for peace of mind, had made her warm to him with anxiety and concern. "And how about the glum memories" she asked him once.

"They are losing their epic values," he smiled. "I've about found a place for them in the comic supplement. "Good," she answered. "You'll be getting back to your work soon now. You're going to make a great lawyer out of yourself."

"You're going back home and forgetting that I'm a woman," she said. "Why don't you look the other way when you make a remark like that?" he retorted.

"You mean it," she insisted. "Of course, I shouldn't advise you to turn clients away merely because they happened to be women," he objected.

"Get your pencil and pad and come out under a shade tree," said Calhoun. "Perhaps I can help you on some of your cases," he answered.

She made her escape. He followed her, she dreamed. Her room was too hot for work, and Marlan stole down into a secluded corner of the verandah.

A young married couple strolled past on the lawn below. Yesterday Marlan had seen the billings and cooings that she knew from their stern faces that conflict had begun between them.

Jones came out of his box in time to see the animal run across the table in Drusilla's dining-room, where some of the food had been left from the party.

"It certainly can run," said Bobby. "And I do not believe it will come back. You go to sleep, Drusilla, and I will watch."

"Oh, Bobby Jones! If I listened to you I guess I should not get far from this playroom," said Drusilla.

THERE is an educational revolution going on in this country. The people are demanding an education that fits our civilization.

Efficiency is the final test of the value of an education. How much of your education is actually being put into play in your life?

EZEMA SPREAD ALL OVER CHILD'S BODY

Came on Face and Caused Disfigurement. Clothing Aggravated Trouble. Itching Burning Sensation. Could Not Sleep. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Healed.

1177 Market St., Chesham, Wash.—"My little nephew was cross and cried and complained of itching. The eczema broke out with a rash, reddish looking. It spread until it was all over his body, and it came on his face and caused disfigurement. His hands had to be tied to keep him from scratching. His clothing aggravated the trouble and made the breaking out worse. He was so covered with eruptions he didn't look natural. There was such an itching and burning sensation he could not sleep and kept someone with him continually. Weeks and months passed by and we had almost given up in despair."

"One day I read about Cuticura Soap and Ointment being good for eczema and all skin troubles. I sent for a free sample and immediately we discovered a change for the better. Before the sample was used up there was such a remarkable change that I bought a box of Cuticura Soap and a box of Cuticura Ointment. The eruptions healed, the burning and itching ceased and by the time the Cuticura Soap and Ointment were used up we was a well boy." (Signed) Mrs. J. L. Steelman, Apr. 8, 1914.

Samples Free by Mail. Although Cuticura Soap (25c) and Cuticura Ointment (50c) are sold throughout the world, a sample of each with 35-p. Skin Book will be sent free upon request. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

Muffins

By Mrs. Janet McKennie Hill, Editor of the Boston Cooking School Magazine. When muffins are on the breakfast table, nobody cares for meat or eggs and they would be served more often if this meal were not prepared so hurriedly that there is no time to make them. If K. C. the Double-Raise baking powder is used, the batter may be stirred up the night before and put in the pan ready for baking and nothing to do in the morning but bake them.

One-Egg Muffins. 2 cups flour; 2 slightly rounded teaspoons K. C. Baking Powder; 1 teaspoonful salt; 1 egg; 1 cup milk or water; 2 to 3 tablespoonfuls melted butter; mix and bake as One-Egg Muffins. Graham Muffins. 1 cup flour; 1 cup pantry flour; 3 level teaspoons K. C. Baking Powder; 1 to 2 level tablespoons sugar; 1 teaspoonful salt; 1 egg; 1/2 cups milk or water; 2 to 3 tablespoonfuls melted butter; mix and bake as One-Egg Muffins. Graham batter should always be quite soft to insure light and moist muffins. To get 83 other recipes as good as these, send us the certificate packed in every 25-cent can of K. C. Baking Powder, and we will send you "The Cook's Book" by Mrs. McKennie Hill. Handsomely illustrated. Jacques Mig. Co., Chicago.

Facts in Nature

FOR centuries it has been known that Nature's most valuable health giving agents for the cure of disease are found in our American forests. Over forty years ago Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute at Buffalo, N. Y., used the powdered extract as well as the liquid extracts of native medicinal plants, such as Bloodroot and Queen's root, Golden Seal and Stone root, Chockerry bark and Mandrake, for the cure of blood diseases. This prescription as set up in liquid form was called

DR. PIERCE'S Golden Medical Discovery and has enjoyed a large sale for all these years in every drug store in the land. You can now obtain the powdered extract in sugar-coated tablet form of your medicine dealer, or send 50c in one-cent postage stamps for trial box to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., and tablets will be mailed, postage prepaid. The "Golden Medical Discovery" makes rich, red blood, invigorates the stomach, liver and bowels and through them the whole system. Skin affections, blotches, boils, pimples and eruptions—result of bad blood—are eradicated by this alternative extract—as thousands have testified.

Divorced Life

By Helen Messing Fuessle. (Copyright—The Adams Newspaper Service.) Calhoun Becomes Attentive. MARIAN was pleased and flattered when Calhoun asked her if she would mind if he changed his place in the dining-room to the table at which she ate. She acquiesced delightedly. Calhoun was smiling his beaming, boyish smile oftener than formerly. His sullen periods of brooding seemed to be departing. Soon, Marian fancied, the heart-wrecked young lawyer would be able to go back to Atlanta and resume his practice of the law. A motherly feeling toward the young man began developing, offsetting a trifle her avowed determination to attempt to play a bit with his emotions. She was growing to like him more and more. The simple trust with which he had made the revelation of his loss of the girl he had adored, the memory of which event he was now trying to see in the light of the absurd, in his vain-

Fashionable Coiffure Is Merely a Series of Waves.

NEW YORK, July 15.—(Special.)—There is one good thing about the modern coiffure: it is able to save one from the expense of false hair. And any one who has indulged in that luxury, nay necessity, knows how many pennies it took to be well equipped in this line of dressing. Once upon a time women would not
