Yesterday's Results. n Francisco Portinua (11 innings). Venice-Venice 2, Oakland 1.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 21 .- (Speeial.)—San Francisco spoiled a perfectly good rally this afternoon of the sort that electrifies any crowd—simply by failing to take advantage of the situation and win out in the end. They did not look to stand a chance for twothirds of the game. Meanwhile, with Krause pitching wonderful ball, and only one real hit tallied against him.

Krause pitching wonderful ball, and only one real hit tallied against him, the Beavers had been gently but firmly tapping Leifield for their five runs. But the tempest broke in the eighth inning with a walk for one man, an error for Speas and numberless hits, the greatest of which was a base-clearing triple to center by one Charles O'Leary. When the smoke cleared away the Seals were five runs to the good—tying the score.

the score.

Most of the Beaver run-getting was in the early innings. Bancroft singled to left and Doane sacrificed and scored when Rodgers stanted the ball into left, Schaller booting in the recovery. Then Rodgers stole, took third on Kores' infield smash and came home as Speas singled into center.

Bancroft Runs Around. In the second, with one down, Ban-eroft singled, reached second on Cor-han's weird throw, stole third and tal-lled when Doane tapped over Corhan's head.

Another Beaver made the circuit in the fifth. Derrick hit past third and Rodgers walked. Kores sacrificed the pair and Speas was hit, filling the bases. Buddy Ryan's swat to left sent Derrick home, but Rodgers was cut off at the pair.

Boneheaded baseball was responsible Boneheaded baseball was responsible for the fifth Beaver score. Speas fanned and Ryan walked. Dead asleep off first base, he should have been thrown out, but Charles was asleep and paid not the slightest attention as the ball went whirling by his head. The error in consequence took Ryan to third and Yantz' infield single puthim around.

Whirlwind Event Comes.

The eighth, however, was a whirl-wind affair. Corhan drew a pass and Speas, with his hands on Schmidt's fly, Speas, with his hands on Schmidt 113, dropped it. Cartwright, batting for Leifield, filled the bases with a poke to left. Fitzgerald's single to left scored the first of the runs and O'Leary cleaned the bases with a three-bagger to center.

Schaller whipped the ball to right to send O'Leary home. That was the end of Krause. Evans taking the mound. put over the winning run in h. With Bancroft out, Walter planted the ball over the shortstop's head to centerfield. Derrick was hit and Rodgers, attempting a bunt, was safe at first. With the basas full. Kores' sacrifice fly to center turned the trick. Score:

LOS ANGELES, Cal., July 21.—Venice took the first game of the series today, 2 to 1, although Oakland had the better of the batting. Fortunate bunching of the hits and good team work by Venice in the last half of the ninth won the game. In the final half Bayless knocked a single to center that scored Leard at second. Litschi made two doubles in twice at bat. Score:

Under the Newark contract Kraft, received $150 more a month than he would as a Nashville player, which was the crucial point in the controversy, the fraternity contending that the player could not be shunted from a class AA league to a class A organization with a consequent reduction in salary in the manner prescribed by the National Commission.

Ebbets denied that any pressure had been brought to bear upon him or the officers of the Newark club in making the deal, which cleared away the baseball war clouds.

While the National League did not while the National Desgue un assemble to discuss the proposed strike of the players, as did the young major league, it is understood that President John K. In fact, those Nation League powers who could be reached appeared better pleased with the outcome of the affair than did the American League officials. President Ban Johnson said after the

From other sources it was learned that certain club owners of the American League are not certain that peace and harmony will prevail between or-ganized baseball and the Players' Fraternity in the future. The belief was expressed that sooner or later there would be a struggle between players and magnates for control of profes-sional baseball. It was said that the American League was ready to fight the fraternity to a finish.

"There is more behind this than is apparent now. It is very strange that Fultz should take occasion to threaten a strike at this time. He has had many opportunities to construe the meaning of section nine, which relates to the drafting of class A players, before this, and always has held to my interpretation of it. Now that another league has started, he has another interpretation of the clause.

then, in the presence of a dozen witnesses, that a player who became a member of a league other than a protected league, was automatically suspended from the players' fraternity. I asked him what he meant by a 'protected league' and he said any league

John J. McGraw, manager of the New York National League club, which is playing here, while discussing the proposed strike late today, said:

"I would rather have seen the matter put through as planned, just to see if the players would go on strike."

I believe Kraft's claim was all right, but the news of the settlement of the case is not especially pleasing, because I preferred to see what the players really would do. I would like to see a precedent, so we would have an idea of how the players stand in this matter."
