Contributions to the fresh air fund may be sent to V. B. Manning, secretary of the Associated Charities, 411 Commercial block; R. H. Howard, treasurer of the Associated Charities; Ladd & Tilton Bank, or The Oregonian. Contributions should be sent to 411 Commercial block.

Down at Nehalem, where the air is fresh and bracing with the tang of the salt sea, where the sun shines and the out-of-door life has many allurements for the city child, there are a number of good hearted women who are planning to entertain a party of "Fresh-Air" youngsters who will leave here tomorrow morning. When the happy group arrives at Wheeler, Captain Bush will meet them with a launch and take them across the Bay to their destination.

The details all were arranged yesterday when Secretary Manning, of the Associated Charities, received a letter from Mrs. A. J. Bush, of Nehalem, stating that the residents of that district were anxious to assist in the splendid work carried on by the association and local workers. Mrs. George Knight volunteers to take two little girls, Mrs. R. Gauld, two girls; Mrs. A. S. Tilden, a mother and child; Mrs. Harry Bell, a mother and child and Mrs. Bush, two children.

Worthy Flocks Included. What a boon the outing will be to the members of the party! Included among them is a mother whose husband is out of work and who has been facing starvation for the past month or more. With her three little ones, all under 10 years of age, the youngest a babe in arms, this woman is to be given a taste of the joys of country life, with plenty of rest and food and fresh air as tonic. She takes in washing for a living and makes the family income, but that income has been very meager.

Of another family, Harriet, aged 10; Grace, 8, and Marshall, 5, will go, but the eldest sister will have to stay at home with the mother, who is sick in bed. This big sister, however, is happy that the younger children are to leave in arms, this woman is to be given a taste of the joys of country life, with plenty of rest and food and fresh air as tonic. She takes in washing for a living and makes the family income, but that income has been very meager.

Hearty Co-operation Continues. Youthful plans for the out-going party are being made, generous co-operation for the movement is appearing from all directions. Edward Wortman took 15 little children to the Columbia yesterday. Miss Frances Fuller, of the Junior League, had the party in charge. When the boat returned late in the afternoon, the sun-burned cheeks and freckled noses, combined with happy smiles, told of a pleasant day.

The United States National Bank employees gave $30, a generous gift, to the fund. The day before the employees of Ladd & Tilton's bank had donated $25. Mrs. C. J. Kuna, of McNamara, wants to entertain a mother and three children. T. A. Rinehart, of Salem, a member of the State Industrial Accident Commission, writes that his little daughter, aged 11, has been watching the pictures and stories of the fresh-air parties in The Oregonian and has induced him to take two little girls. He will come in for them tomorrow.

Fifty-three of the "first" Silverton "fresh-air children" will arrive at the Union Depot today, in charge of Miss K. L. Trevett.

Places are needed for 10 more children to bring the total to 150 for this week. Invitations are asked for mothers, tired women to whom a little rest and recreation will mean untold blessings. If the enthusiasm which so far has been shown, shall continue, these mothers and children, too, soon will find willing hosts in the country.
