SAN FRANCISCO, July 23.—(Special.)—The large-sized man's job of shutting out those rip-roaring Beavers was accomplished in Oakland today by Charles Spider Baum, much to the enjoyment of a large gathering of spectators who seem to realize that Portland is much in the pennant chase. It was no walkover, however, as the final score of 2 to 0 would indicate, and that does not truly illustrate how close

On the offensive, the Seals went right at it in the first inning. Fitzgerald was walked. Cartwright in attempting to bunt popped a fly right into the pitcher's mitts. Speedy Fitzger's wild pich. Biff Schaller was there with a solid lick to center which sent Fitz around the circuit.

Rieger stepped out in the eighth to let Bobby Davis single for him, but Evans, his successor, was touched uppretty merrily when the Seals came uppretty merrily merrily when the Seals came uppretty merrily merrily when the Seals came uppretty merrily when the Seals came uppretty merrily merr Venetians Stay at Top of League With 4-to-1 Score in First.

LOS ANGELES, July 23 .- Venice kep its position at the head of the Coast League list today by winning the first game of a doubleheader from Oakland.

4 to 1. Oakland annexed the second contest, 5 to 4. "Cack" Henley held the Oaks to four hits in the first game, while his team-mates got 11 off Prough and Killiay. Bayless got a single, double and a home run out of four times at bat. Roy Hitt's no-run, no-hit reputation, gained Sunday, falled to impress the Oakland batters in the second game, for they pounded him hard. Scores;

AND BAUM DID IT

Bayen could stand the heat to go the full route today, Sacramento ouilt up a safe enough lead off Ryan and added enough from Relief Pitcher Musser to register a 6 to 3 win over Los Angeles, giving the locals two out of three games for the week thus far.

This is the first time this year that Sacramento has won more than one game a week from the Angels. Youns, an outfielder in place of Shinn, practically saved the game for the Wolves by a wonderful running catch of Pinch Hitter Meek's eighth-inning drive. Metager was caught on a double play that does not truly lithuatats by the country in the last marker, and sensational fielding by Jerry Downs, Corhan and Howard figured prominently on the defense. With all due respect to the assortment of baffling hooks and spitters served by Spider Baum, the air-tight support rendered by the Seals was one of the game's features. In the third, for instance, when Rieger attempted to race from first to third on Bancroft's drive to right, Fitzgerald and Downs relayed the bail to Cartwright in masterful style to get the runner. No one was out at the time, and it aided Spider materially. Del Howard rung in some circus fielding to further back up the Spider. With two runners on in the eighth, Bancroft grounded towards first. Del gathered in the ball and in sprinting for the bag stumbled and fell flat on his stomach. He was down but not defeated, for he proceeded to crawl to the bag and beat the runner by half a step. On the offensive, the Seals went right at it in the first inning. Fitzgerald was walked. Cartwright in attempting to bunt popped a fly right. by the fact that, although the league directors decided to have one price for admission in all cities, or 75 cents for cents for interest the grandstand and 50 cents for bleachers, the prices were cut in at least one city—Ogden— and were kept up in others. In view of the fact that there has been a somewhat tight money situation have the money to pay the high admissions, the league showed mismanages ment when, after the attendance fell of in Boise and other cities because of this, it did not cut the prices and give the clubs a chance to pull out.

In the first place Union Association, ball is not worth 75 and 50 cents. It would do mighty well to hold an attendance at 50 and 25 cents. This conclusion is reached after looking over ball the league offered this year and comparing it with the Western Tri-State article.
