"Hig" Gets Double Dose. With Evans relieved as the score stood 4 to 3 on his own side of the fence, it's an easy matter to under-stand that the Portland relief twirler was held responsible when the Californians piled up their runs toward kept at the head of the league again today by winning from Oakland, 4 to 2. It was largely through the obliging manner in which Middleton failed to field Litschi's fly in the fourth inning that Venice sent in two runs in that round.

In the first game Portland pushed a run around the bases in the second, when Speas singled to left, took second on an infield out by Ryan and scored as Yantz singled to center.

For five innings in the second contest the Beavers pounded Fanning much at will. Bancroft tripled in the first and was scored by Derrick before Ryan hit into a double play. Kores registered the second run in the second inning, chiefly because of his own three-sacker. Kores and Fisher managed to add their fourth in the sixth Ninth Inning Fatal.

The ninth was the crowning glory. With Fisher down, Higginbotham, who had delivered Evans in the seventh, rapped out a smart hit. Bancroft beat out a bunt to the pitcher and Cart-wright booted on Speas filling the bases. Rodgers' double to left center drove in a brace of runs, but the rally as pinched when Doans fanned and uddy sent up a fly. With the Seals facing a score that didn't look good for them, Fitz singled to short. Cartwright hit to the infield but Bancroft dropped the throw that would have forced Fitzgerald—a fatal mistake for the Portlander. The runners worked the double steal Schaller fanned. Downs singled right to send in two and again tied the score. Mundorff singled to right and the double steal once more was worked. Charles grounded to Bancroft and would have been a dead out, but the Portland shortstop saw he couldn't stop the winning run and didn't try to throw Chappie out at fierst.

throw Chapple out at ficrst. In attempting to catch a foul fly from off Cartwright's bat, in the sec-ond game, Derrick ran smack against the grandstand and collapsed from the collision. Like Howard, he was able to leave the grounds unattended but Speas had to take on his job at the first base berth. The scores:
